MINNESOTA VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

As committed as the Vikings are to bringing a Super Bowl championship to the fans and to the state, the franchise is equally devoted to securing a long-term home for the team in Minnesota. The Vikings are one of the few NFL franchises without a stadium solution but remain determined to collaborate with the State Legislature, the Governor and local leaders to resolve this issue. With the team's Metrodome lease set to expire in 2011 and costs increasing $50 million with each year of delay, 2009 is the critical year to preserve the long-term viability of the Vikings in Minnesota.

Working with the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission (MSFC), the Vikings are moving forward on a public-private partnership that will open a new, multi-purpose stadium on the current Metrodome site in 2012. The two sides will present this stadium development plan to the 2009 Legislature for consideration. The joint proposal will include specific stadium design and program elements, a finance plan and principles of agreement on how the new facility will be operated and governed, all crucial topics for state leaders to analyze as they work to reach a stadium solution in 2009.

The economic development proposal will include three critical elements that go beyond hosting Vikings home games:

- A retractable-roof stadium that will give Minnesotans a state-of-the-art venue to be used year-round for high school and amateur sports, trade shows, community and cultural events, as well as national and international happenings.

- A Winter Garden light rail train station that will serve as a connecting point for the future Central Corridor light rail line and the existing Hiawatha line. This gathering place is integral to the Vikings vision of the overall development and will host indoor/outdoor activities for transit riders, neighborhood residents, downtown workers and stadium attendees.

- A privately-financed redevelopment of the Downtown East area that will include office buildings, residences, shops and restaurants. This exciting project will create jobs, boost the economy and bring a renewed energy to this area of Minneapolis.

"The Metrodome site makes great sense for a new stadium because most of the necessary infrastructure is already in place," Vikings Owner/Chairman Zygi Wilf said. "However, while Minneapolis is the proposed location for this stadium, the facility will be a statewide asset used for events that student-athletes and fans from across Minnesota will attend and benefit from."

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Much work remains between now and the 2009 Legislative Session, and the Vikings need your help. You can help by: Joining Minnesota Momentum, the grassroots coalition of stadium supporters, by visiting minnesotamomentum.com. Contacting your elected officials and encouraging them to support a stadium solution in 2009.

VIKINGS CHILDREN'S FUND

There have been many changes on and off the field for the Minnesota Vikings since the team's inception, but the organization's steadfast commitment to children has always remained the same.

In light of the organization's commitment to community, the Vikings Children's Fund (VCF) was established in 1978 and has since raised nearly $8 million to give back to those in need. The VCF is a means for Vikings players, coaches, cheerleaders, staff and their families to focus their community support to help children. The VCF distributes grants to health, education and family services organizations benefiting children.

In 2007 the VCF provided more than 120 grants to nonprofit organizations, including $160,000 to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In total, the VCF has donated more than $4.5 million to support the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics, which boasts highly-skilled pediatricians and excels in break-through research.

To learn more about the VCF - or to make a donation - please call Patrick Leopold at (952) 828-6500. If your charitable organization is interested in applying for a VCF grant, log on to Vikings.com to download a grant application form. Grant applications need to be mailed by the end of March each year for fall awards.

VIKING CHILDREN'S FUND FACTS AND FIGURES

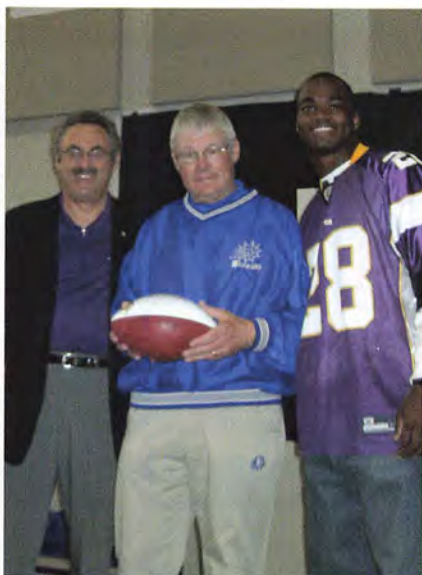

- ▣ The University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics has been awarded over $4.5 million to support research fighting childhood diseases.
- ▣ The Vikings Children's Fund supported over 50 organizations in 2007.
- ▣ The Vikings Children's Fund has supported over 300 child-related organizations across Vikings country since beginning in 1978.

The Vikings have a long-standing tradition with Vikings Victory Visits to local hospitals. Vikings LBs Heath Farwell and Ben Leber, along with their wives, joined other teammates in a visit to the University of Minnesota Children's Hospital, Fariview.

"What better call can you get in an afternoon but from the owner of the Minnesota Vikings asking 'How can we help?' It is sometimes hard for nonprofits always feeling they are knocking on doors hoping for help. How refreshing to get pre-emptive action. We so appreciate the Vikings faith in our work."

Major Paul Fleeman
The Salvation Army Twin Cities

The Vikings take an active role in the community through a variety of programs including hospital and school visits throughout the year. Providing a bright future for kids in the Upper Midwest is the goal of the Viking Children's Fund. The Wilf family ownership group is dedicated to giving back to the community and being an integral part in the fabric of life in Minnesota. The Vikings recognized Brainerd High School coaching legend Ron Stolski as part of the You Made The Team community tour to Brainerd and made a donation from the Vikings Children's Fund to the Brainerd Sports Boosters and Warrior Way.

The Vikings annual Bowl With The Vikings fundraiser was a hit again in 2007 at Andover Lanes.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS "ON THE FIELD AND IN THE COMMUNITY – YOUR SPECIAL TEAM"

The Minnesota Vikings are more than a football team. The coaches, players and staff are your neighbors. Their wives or husbands may be your co-workers. Their children attend school with your children. The Vikings are a part of our community. Many schools, hospital charities and civic groups have been impacted by player involvement, staff participation and family volunteerism.

The Vikings organization is your neighbor too, as a corporate citizen actively involved in policy and service to Minnesota. The Vikings community relations department and Vikings Children's Fund handle a broad range of requests including player appearances, in-kind donations, partnering with non-profit groups on fundraisers, the production of public service announcements and team philanthropy. Since its inception in 1978, the VCF has donated more than $4.5 million to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. The VCF has maintained a commitment to youth and families by distributing funds toward youth development, family services and education support- a total of nearly $8 million given back to our community.

EXECUTIVES

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Zygi Wilf and his partners have relied on consistency and investment in building a winner in every aspect of their four-year ownership of the Minnesota Vikings. The Wilf family and the ownership group has worked diligently at making the Vikings an important part of the fabric of the Upper Midwest.

As the franchise enters the 2008 season, a strong foundation has been established for success on the field and with civic and corporate leadership in the community. Over the last three years, the team has enhanced its already strong reputation as an NFL leader in community relations activities and has raised its level of involvement in the region. Under the stewardship of the Wilfs, the franchise has taken strides forward on the initiative for a state-of-the-art, multi-use stadium as the centerpiece of a downtown Minneapolis redevelopment. The Vikings ownership is committed to investing in the state's economy and are dedicated to a world-class showcase for Minnesota's sporting future.

Zygi Wilf leads an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development. Joining Wilf in the Vikings venture are his brother, Mark, cousin, Leonard, and nephew, Jeffrey, along with several associates from outside the family.

The journey for Wilf from avid New York Giants fan sitting in the bleachers of Yankee Stadium in the 1960's to taking over the leadership of one of the NFL's proudest franchises has been marked by bold and well-founded business decisions, commitment to family and employees, and dedication to community.

Throughout the Wilf family's rise to prominence in real estate development, the consistent focus on philanthropy and never losing touch with family roots has been a foundation and philosophy.

Building a championship team with character has been at the foundation of the Wilf ownership group's growth as NFL owners.

The Wilf family has stayed close to their roots, donating generously to heart-felt causes at home and throughout the world.

Wilf, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wilf, emigrated with his parents from Europe to the United States in the early 1950s and settled in New Jersey. Zygi attended nearby Fairleigh Dickinson University, earning a bachelor's degree in economics and later graduated from New York Law School in Manhattan.

Wilf, 58, and wife, Audrey, have four children.

Vikings owner Zygi Wilf connected with fans in the tailgate lots before the 2007 season-opening win over Atlanta. Wilf and the Vikings ownership group have solicited feedback from fans to provide better service and a great gameday experience for Vikings fans.

MARK WILF*OWNER/PRESIDENT

As the Vikings approach the 2008 season, team President Mark Wilf has played a key role in the development of the business aspects of the club and organizing the leadership of the franchise to mirror the successful family model that the Wilf family has implemented in other successful ventures.

Entering the fourth year of their ownership of the Minnesota Vikings, the Wilf family and their partners have placed a premium on building with vision and investing in the long-term viability of the team. Building on the rich tradition of the franchise, the ownership group stresses the civic and corporate citizenship of the Vikings moving into the future.

Along with dramatic facility upgrades at Winter Park since taking over the team, the ownership has prided itself on improving the identity and atmosphere associated with the franchise. The Vikings have been a valuable part of the fabric of life in the region since beginning play in 1961. The Wilf family takes pride in building on the proud tradition of community involvement the franchise has been known for.

The Wilfs lead an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development.

An NFL franchise is a valuable commodity to a community and the Wilf ownership group recognizes and embraces the role as a civic leader. Under Mark Wilf's direction, the Vikings have taken a more prominent role as a business and community leader and embraced their fans and partners locally and worldwide.

Another lifelong fan of the NFL, Mark brings the same passion and desire to succeed in the Wilf's professional football as his elder sibling, Zygi. Throughout their professional lives, the brothers have worked tirelessly to involve everyone associated in their businesses as members of the family. The Minnesota Vikings are the latest extension of the family model and one that is especially close to the family's heart with the opportunity to be actively engaged in the game they grew up passionately following.

Mark Wilf has been actively involved with the Wilf family's Garden Homes Development enterprises and has served as a principal in the family business.

A long-time fan of college and professional football, Wilf is no stranger to the game or the thrill of competition. During his collegiate years, Mark served as the radio voice of Princeton Tigers football and basketball. Wilf earned his bachelor's degree from Princeton University and later graduated from the New York University School of Law.

The Wilf family tradition of generous philanthropy and advancing causes with special meaning has been passed through the generations.

Wilf, 46, and wife, Jane, have four children. The couple is actively involved in several causes close to the heart of the Wilf family.

Mark Wilf and DE Jared Allen took part in a new Vikings tradition in June, visiting the Moorhead, MN, area as part of the Vikings' You Make The Team community tour. Wilf and Allen visited the Moorhead Spuds football camp and donated to the booster club. Community outreach and youth football are initiatives that the Wilf family ownership group has made a priority during their tenure.

LEONARD WILF

OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

Leonard Wilf joins cousins Zygi and Mark Wilf with the Vikings ownership group as Vice Chairman of the team for the fourth season in 2008. Away from the Vikings, Wilf also serves as President of family-owned Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development based in New Jersey.

Wilf earned his bachelor's degree, Cum Laude, from Boston University. Following his undergraduate work, Wilf graduated with a law degree from Georgetown University. During his tenure at Georgetown Wilf was editor of the Georgetown Law Review. Wilf went on to receive a Master of Law in taxation from New York University.

Active with several professional and civic groups, Wilf is Vice Chairman on the Board of Trustees of NYU and the NYU Law School. He is a member of the New Jersey, New York and American Bar Associations. He is an involved member of the International Council of Shopping Centers, New York Athletic Club and Friars Club.

Wilf and his wife, Beth, have four children and are active members of the community through the Central Park Conservancy and Metropolitan Opera. Wilf was appointed by President Clinton to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council in January 1997 and spearheaded the construction of the Metrowest Campus of UJA-Federation in East Hanover, NJ. He and his family reside in New York City.

JEFFREY WILF

OWNER/OWNERSHIP PARTNER

Jeffrey Wilf, nephew of Zygi and Mark Wilf, continues the family involvement with all aspects of the Wilf businesses. He is involved with the Wilfs' Garden Homes operations and with the Minnesota Vikings.

Wilf graduated from Harvard University with a bachelor of arts in government.

NFL Shield Honors Tradition and Future

The NFL shield, one of the most recognizable symbols in the sports world, underwent a stylistic upgrade during the 2008 offseason. The new font and design changes pay homage to the history of the League and the logo while turning an eye forward on the future. As the NFL enters its 89th season in 2008 the new shield symbolizes the progress of the league over those decades and the excellence that has laid the foundation for the modern NFL.

Adjustments to the logo include 8 stars representing the 8 Divisions in the NFL and the design of the football reflects the design of the football atop the Vince Lombardi Trophy. The blue color is darker and bolder than past shields and the shape has been refined over past versions.

REGGIE FOWLER

OWNERSHIP PARTNER

Reggie Fowler is the owner of Spiral, Inc., a company that has holdings in agriculture, aviation, banking, entertainment, manufacturing and real estate.

ALAN LANDIS

OWNERSHIP PARTNER

Alan Landis has achieved acclaim in the business world and the philanthropic community through his visionary thinking in each area. As founder and chairman of The Landis Group, he has put his stamp on the land development industry with a pair of landmarks, the Princeton Landmark Carnegie Center and Tower Center Office and Hotel Complex. A graduate of New York University, Landis holds a bachelor's degree in accounting. He is active in causes ranging from the National Prevent Child Abuse organization to the Foundation for Fighting Blindness. Alan and wife, Linda, have a son, Scott, and daughter, Dana. The couple resides in New York City.

DAVID MANDELBAUM

OWNERSHIP PARTNER

David Mandelbaum has served as General Partner of Interstate Properties since 1968, a trustee of Vornado Realty since 1979 and Director of Alexander's, Inc. since 1995. Mandelbaum has been a member of the law firm Mandelbaum & Mandelbaum, P.A. since 1967 and holds a law degree from Harvard. He earned his undergraduate degree at Princeton University. Mandelbaum and wife, Karen, have been married over 40 years. The couple has four sons, Richard, Michael, Jeffrey and Jonathan and resides in Livingston, NJ.

LESTER BAGLEY

VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS/STADIUM DEVELOPMENT

Lester Bagley brings more than two decades of experience in the public affairs arena and serves the Vikings as Vice President of Public Affairs and Stadium Development, his 4th year in that role. Bagley oversees public relations, public affairs, community relations and charitable giving for the Vikings.

Bagley has been instrumental in the Wilf ownership group's efforts to enhance the Vikings presence in the community and throughout the state. During the 2007 season Bagley helped develop the Vikings Board of Advisors, a club initiative aimed at increasing interaction with CEO-level civic and business leaders in Minnesota. Bagley also leads the Vikings "You Made The Team" community visits, which are embraced by Vikings fans across the state as the club connects with areas outside of the Twin Cities.

Along with a prominent role in external relations, Bagley oversees internal communications for the team and has led the efforts to restructure the Vikings Children's Fund and enhance the team's youth football programs.

Bagley also continues to lead the team's quest to finance and build a new home for Vikings football, which has become a priority for the National Football League. The Vikings have dedicated their stadium efforts to constructing a new facility in Minneapolis as part of a broader revitalization and economic development proposal for the area surrounding the Metrodome. Bagley oversees the team of architects, urban planners, NFL officials, financial analysts and public affairs professionals who are working diligently to bring a world-class multi-event venue to downtown Minneapolis.

Before joining the Vikings, Bagley operated Bagley Public Affairs from 1999-2005. The Minneapolis firm specialized in issues management, public relations and public affairs. Consulting with the Vikings through his company, Bagley served as the team's point person on stadium advocacy efforts from 2000-05.

From 1993-99 Bagley helped lead the Minnesota Business Partnership, a public policy organization comprised of the chief executive officers of 100 of Minnesota's largest companies, where Bagley served as associate director. He previously spent five years working in public affairs and public relations in Washington, D.C.

A native of Barron, WI, Bagley began college at the University of Minnesota before graduating from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) with a bachelor's degree in political science. He served as a White House intern and studied at Oxford University during his undergraduate days. Bagley serves on the boards of Athletes Committed to Educating Students (ACES), the Minneapolis Regional Chamber of Commerce and the Vikings Children's Fund.

Bagley's wife, Wendy, who has a bachelor's degree from the College of St. Catherine, has served on the staffs of three successive Minnesota governors. The couple resides in Minneapolis with their sons, Michael and Charles.

ROB BRZEZINSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

As Rob Brzezinski enters his 16th season in the NFL and 10th with the Minnesota Vikings in 2008, the team is positioned for long-term success with a favorable salary cap situation and several core players recently signed to long-term contracts. Brzezinski joined the Vikings in 1999 as Director of Football Administration and was promoted to Vice President of Football Administration in 2001. He was elevated to his current position as Vice President of Football Operations in 2002.

In 2008, the Vikings capitalized on the strategic salary cap management from the past several years. Armed with the highest net salary cap in the NFL, and core potential free agents already re-signed, the team filled key needs by trading for 2007 NFL sack leader DE Jared Allen and signing proven unrestricted free agent playmakers WR Bernard Berrian and S Madiue Williams.

In his current role, Brzezinski works closely with Head Coach Brad Childress and Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman on all football-related strategic planning and roster decisions. Brzezinski is also responsible for management and strategic planning of the salary cap, negotiation of player contracts, football operations and administration, team operations, medical and training staff, equipment, video, and player development. He has also represented the Vikings at the League meetings.

Brzezinski has NFL management experience in nearly every area critical to operating a successful NFL franchise. He has worked as the top football executive responsible for all roster decisions in conjunction with the head coach, has experience running a player personnel department, and has researched, developed and implemented processes and technology for the efficient management of pro and college scouting, including the college draft. Brzezinski also has experience in managing the business operations of an NFL franchise and, while in Minnesota, has transformed a substantial salary cap deficit into a long-term competitive advantage. In 2006, Brzezinski played a significant role in the head coaching search and interview process that resulted in the hiring of Brad Childress, the first of 10 head coach hirings in the NFL that season.

Brzezinski is a member of the NFL Management Council's Club Services Committee, which has developed new technology and systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management and information management. In 2004 Brzezinski was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Brzezinski spent the previous six seasons (1993-98) with the Miami Dolphins where he advanced to the position of Staff Counsel/Salary Cap. He has been involved with teams that have finished .500 or better in 12 of his 15 seasons in the NFL and have made the playoffs seven times. During the salary cap era of the NFL (1994-present), both the Dolphins and Vikings are among the NFL's best in winning percentage and playoff appearances.

In Miami, Brzezinski assisted in managing business affairs, which included salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. In his tenure, the Dolphins compiled a 55-41 (.573) regular-season record and made the playoffs four times.

Brzezinski earned degrees from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, a Juris Doctorate in 1995 and a Bachelor of Science in education in 1992. In addition, Brzezinski is a member of the Florida Bar. Brzezinski and his wife, Leah, who has earned a doctoral degree in education, have adopted sons, Ki and Jae, and daughters, Grace and Anna. The Brzezinski family resides in Edina is very active in the community raising money and awareness for adoption-related causes.

Steve LaCroix enters his 8th season with the Vikings in 2008 as the team's Vice President of Sales and Marketing, adding the title of Chief Marketing Officer. LaCroix oversees all aspects of Vikings generated revenues, including corporate sales, sponsorships, media sales, ticket sales, suite sales and hospitality. LaCroix also leads the team's marketing, radio and television programming, websites, new media initiatives, merchandise and e-commerce operations, community and special events, marketing partnerships, advertising, branding, promotions and game day activities.

In each of his seasons with the Vikings, LaCroix has led the team to record-setting sales revenues. In 2007, the Vikings continued their sellout streak – reaching a total of 114 straight home games, launched a social networking website and introduced the Vikings throwback uniforms that paid homage to the Vikings teams from the Super Bowl years in the 1960s and 1970s.

In 2006, LaCroix and his staff undertook the successful introduction of a new, more modern design of the Vikings traditional uniforms. In addition, LaCroix's tenure has resulted in several new sales and marketing initiatives, including bringing radio and television broadcast rights in-house, the creation of weekly television programming, opening "Vikings Locker Room" official retail stores, a full redesign of vikings.com and the construction of two Terrace Suites that created the first premium seat offering in the Metrodome.

LaCroix serves on the NFL Club Business Working Group comprised of eight club executives to help shape strategies for implementing league and club initiatives. In addition, LaCroix serves on the Steering Committee of the National Sports Forum, the sports industry's leading annual conference. In 2005, LaCroix was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

LaCroix's charitable involvement includes serving as Treasurer of the Viking Children's Fund, which has raised nearly $8 million since 1978 benefiting children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest, including the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. LaCroix also serves on the Board of Directors of Hunger Related Events and Summit Academy. Hunger Related Events has raised several million dollars for hunger-related organizations through the creation of Taste of the NFL as an annual event at the Super Bowl and in many NFL cities. Summit Academy is a non-profit vocational training and educational center that empowers residents in the most economically depressed neighborhoods in the Twin Cities to become educated, employed and self-supporting members of our communities.

Prior to joining the Vikings, LaCroix worked as the Director of Sponsorship Sales for Pacers Sports and Entertainment in Indianapolis, IN, from 1999-00. His main responsibilities included overseeing the corporate sales efforts for the National Basketball Association's Indiana Pacers, the WNBA's Indiana Fever and other sports and entertainment events held at Conseco Fieldhouse, for which he negotiated the naming rights deal.

During LaCroix's tenure with Pacers Sports and Entertainment, which began in 1991 as a sales representative, the organization saw dramatic increases in sponsorship, ticket sales and other major corporate partnerships.

LaCroix earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Iowa and his master's at Western Illinois University. Steve and wife, Sue, who holds her bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Iowa, have two children, Katie and Alex. The LaCroix family resides in Minnetonka.

STEVE POPPEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

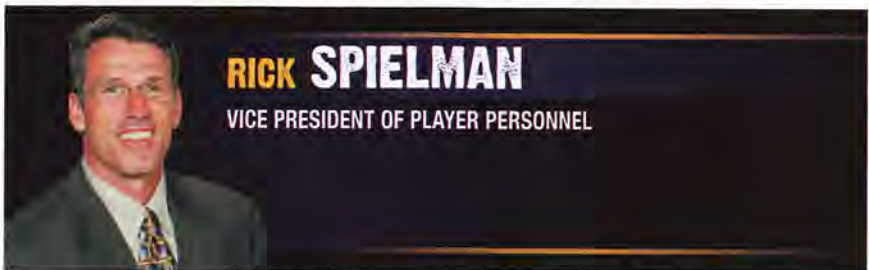

Steve Poppen begins his 10th season with the Vikings in 2008 as Vice President of Finance. He joined the Vikings as Director of Finance in 1999 and was promoted prior to the 2000 season to his current position. A native of Watertown, SD, Poppen spent eight years before joining the Vikings as a Certified Public Accountant in the business assurance group of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in Kansas City.

Poppen is responsible for all financial aspects of the team including business planning, budgeting, day-to-day financial and administrative operations, human resources, information technology, facilities, new stadium project financing and is the team liaison with the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission. In 2006, Poppen participated in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote growth of leaders within the League. Poppen helped engineer the dramatic renovations to Winter Park during the 2006 off-season that featured a total remake of the locker room and equipment facilities and upgrade of the athletic training areas.

Poppen received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Evangel University in Springfield, MO, in 1991. An active member of his community, Poppen serves on the board of Minnesota Teen Challenge and recently completed a 3-year term as the treasurer and working on the executive committee. Teen Challenge is a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for Minnesota adults and teens. Poppen serves on the board of the Minneapolis Downtown Council, an organization promoting business development in downtown Minneapolis, and holds a position with the Minnesota State Fair Foundation board of directors. The State Fair Foundation was created to preserve and improve the historic Minnesota State Fair buildings and grounds and support State Fair educational, scientific and agricultural programs.

Poppen and his wife, Christy, who holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Evangel, have four children, Natalie, Andrew, Nathan and Avery. The Poppen family resides in Chanhassen.

RICK SPIELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Entering his 3rd season with the Vikings, Rick Spielman has put his stamp on the franchise with one of the most aggressive off-seasons in team history and the most active in the NFL in 2008. The 2008 Vikings added the reigning NFL sack king when Jared Allen was acquired via trade with Kansas City. The addition of Allen put an exclamation point on an off-season free agency period highlighted by the addition of dynamic WR Bernard Berrian, starting S Madiue Williams and special teams standout Maurice Hicks.

Spielman begins his 18th season as an NFL executive with his fourth franchise in 2008. Spielman assumed the Vikings' Vice President of Player Personnel role on May 30, 2006, and will be responsible for overseeing the Vikings' pro and college scouting departments. The 2007 Vikings had 7 players earn Pro Bowl honors, the most Vikings in the game since 2000.

In his opening season with the club, Spielman and the Vikings enjoyed one of the best drafts in 2007, selecting the NFL's Rookie of the Year RB Adrian Peterson and got impact performances from the rest of the draft class that featured WR Sidney Rice, who was 2nd among NFL rookies with 4 TDs, CB Marcus McCauley, who started 9 games, DE Brian Robison, who was named to the All-Rookie team and WR Aundrae Allison, who set Vikings records for kickoff returns. The Vikings roster combines a strong mix of established veterans at the top of their games and emerging, talented rookies. The Vikings commitment to keeping talent in-house was continued in 2007 when Pro Bowl DT Pat Williams' contract was extended prior to the start of the regular season. The team also secured record-setting P Chris Kluwe with an in-season extension, extended starting RG Anthony Herrera's contract and benefited from signing free-agent WR Bobby Wade after the initial flurry of 2007 free agency, watching him set career-highs and lead the team in receiving.

Spielman has climbed the ranks of NFL personnel departments with Detroit, Chicago and Miami, ascending to General Manager of the Dolphins for the 2004 season. He began his NFL career as a scout with Detroit in 1990 and worked with the club in college scouting for five seasons before adding pro scouting duties in 1995 and '96. He moved to Director of Pro Personnel for the Bears from 1997-99 before joining the Dolphins in 2000 as Vice President of Player Personnel. He was promoted in 2002 to Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel and eventually General Manager in 2004. Spielman left the Dolphins during the 2005 off-season and worked with ESPN as an NFL analyst before joining the Vikings.

Spielman's tenure with all three franchises has been highlighted by drafting impact players throughout the seven rounds and making key trades and free agency acquisitions. Spielman's teams have won 3 divisional titles and advanced to the playoffs six times.

While with Miami for five seasons, the team had a winning record four times, won the AFC East in 2000 and went to the playoffs in 2000 and 2001 but missed the playoffs in 2002 and 2003 despite 9-7 and 10-6 records respectively. The team drafted its top WR, Chris Chambers, in 2001 and traded for RB Ricky Williams in 2002. Williams posted the top two single-season rushing marks in Miami history with 1,853 yards in 2002 and 1,372 in 2003. The Dolphins' 2005 draft class included 1st-round RB Ronnie Brown, who led the team in rushing with 907 yards and ranked 2nd among all NFL rookies. Joining the impressive rookie group was LB Channing Crowder (3rd round) and CB Travis Daniels (4th round), who both went on to start 14 games in 2005 and finished the season ranked 2nd and 5th on the team in tackles respectively.

During his three seasons with Chicago the team amassed some of the talent that has propelled the team to the top of the NFC North and found gems late in the draft. The team selected perennial Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz in the 3rd round of the 1998 draft and followed with a 3rd-round find in 1999 by taking WR Marty Booker. The team uncovered 4th-rounders WR Marcus Robinson (1997) LB Rosevelt Colvin (1999) and LB Warrick Holdman (1999) along with CB Jerry Azumah in the 5th round (1999). The team traded a 7th-round pick in 1999 to arch rival Green Bay for KR Glyn Milburn, who went on to the Pro Bowl that season.

Spielman got his first taste of NFL personnel analysis as a college scout with Detroit from 1990-94 and added pro scouting responsibilities for his final two seasons (1995-96) in the Motor City. The Lions enjoyed one of the finest stretches in franchise history in the early 1990s, winning a pair of NFC Central titles in 1991 and 1993 and the team advanced to the playoffs in 1991, '93, '94 and '95. The trio of consecutive post-season berths was a first for the team. The 1991 team set a franchise record with a 12-4 regular season mark, hosted and won a playoff game for the first time since 1957 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game against Washington, losing out on the chance to play in Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome. The Lions drafted well during Spielman's tenure, selecting the core talent for the team and several players who earned regular Pro Bowl accolades. The club drafted WR Herman Moore in the 1st round of the 1991 draft and he went on to four Pro Bowl berths while defensive linemen Robert Parcher and Luther Elliss were 1st-round picks in 1992 and 1995 respectively and each earned multiple trips to Hawaii. The 1995 draft class was especially deep, featuring Elliss, TE David Sloan (2nd round), LB Stephen Boyd (3rd round) and FB Cory Schlesinger (6th round). Elliss, Sloan and Boyd were Pro Bowlers while Schlesinger was a three-time Pro Bowl alternate. The team drafted Lions career scoring leader K Jason Hanson in 1992 (2nd round), who has earned a reputation as one of the top kickers of his era.

Following Spielman's playing career at Southern Illinois from 1983-86 he was invited to training camp with the San Diego Chargers (1987) and Lions (1988). As a collegiate player, Spielman was a 1st-Team All-Gateway Conference honoree as a junior and part of the 1983 NCAA Division I-AA national championship team as a redshirt freshman. His younger brother, Chris, was a Pro Bowl LB and a 2nd-round pick of the Lions in 1988. He played 11 NFL seasons with Detroit (1988-95) and Buffalo (1996-98).

Spielman has a bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois and a master's from Ohio State. He and his wife, Michele, have been active with children's charities. The couple has adopted six children, Juan, Lewis, Ronnie, J.D., Omie and Whitney.

Kevin Warren's extensive background in athletics and unique perspective in both law and business, has been instrumental to the Wilf family ownership group for the entire four seasons of their stewardship of the Minnesota Vikings.

Warren enters his 10th season in the NFL and his fourth with the Vikings in 2008. Warren is the Vikings' Vice President of Operations and Legal Counsel with primary responsibility for various day-to-day business operational issues, legal affairs, strategic planning and special projects, while also serving as the Vikings' primary liaison with the NFL. In 2007, Warren was appointed to the NFL's working group on emergency planning.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Warren worked as an attorney from 2003-2005, including working with the Wilf ownership group during their acquisition of the Vikings. Warren spent 2001-03 with the Detroit Lions as Senior Vice President of Business Operations and General Counsel. While working with the Lions, he was recognized by Crain's Detroit Business on their "40 Under 40" list as one of the top 40 Detroit business leaders under the age of 40. Prior to joining the Vikings' NFC North rivals in Detroit, Warren worked from 1997-2001 with the St. Louis Rams, including the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV championship over the Tennessee Titans. During his tenure with St. Louis, Warren served as Vice President of Player Programs and Football Legal Counsel from 1997-2000 before serving as Vice President of Football Administration in 2001.

Warren's first exposure to sports law came when he worked with an Overland Park, Kansas law firm that specialized in representing universities charged with NCAA violations. Warren also worked as a sports and entertainment attorney/agent, representing various professional athletes and entertainers.

Warren's involvement in athletics helped pave the way for his future career. As a freshman on the University of Pennsylvania basketball team, Warren was part of the Quakers' Ivy League championship team in 1982. A native of Tempe, AZ, Warren enrolled at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix to complete his undergraduate degree. While at Grand Canyon, he excelled both in the classroom and on the basketball court. Warren scored over 1,100 points during his two seasons at Grand Canyon and earned GTE/CoSida Academic All-America honors as a senior and also received NAIA Academic All-America honors as both a junior and senior.

Warren earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, his master's degree in business administration from Arizona State University in 1988, and his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Notre Dame School of Law in 1990. Warren is a member of both the Kansas and Michigan Bar Associations.

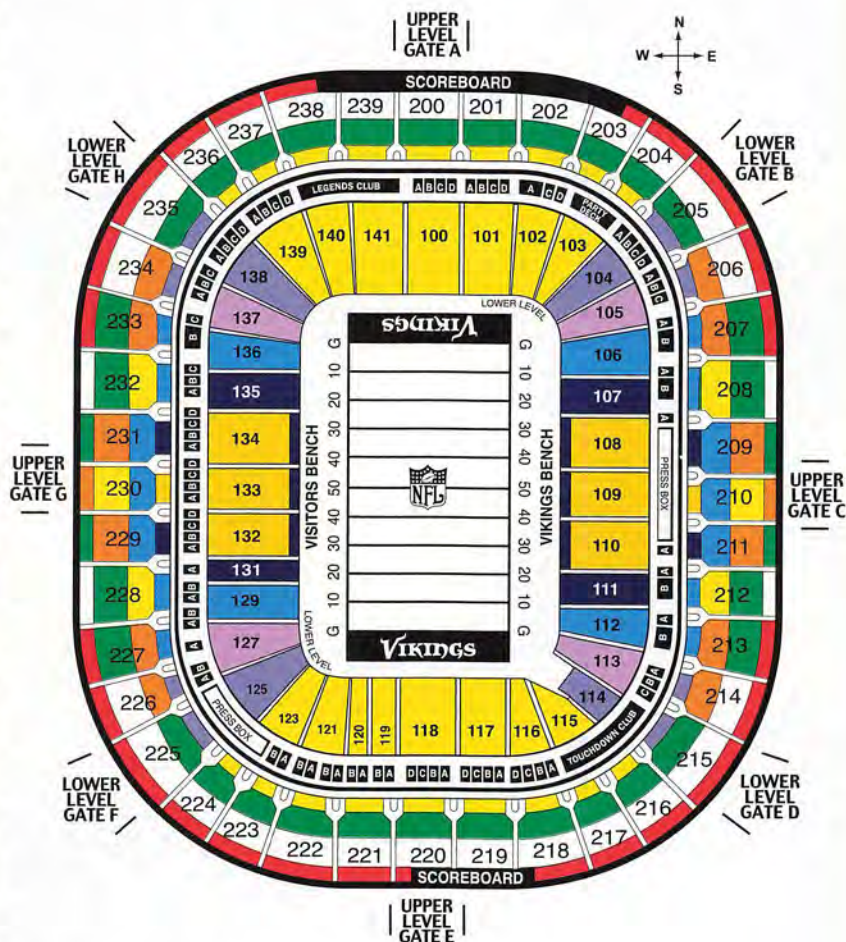

Several members of Warren's family have helped fuel his lifelong passion for sports, including his father, the late Dr. Morrison Warren, Sr., who played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948 during the era of the All-American Football Conference, before the league was merged with the NFL. The senior Warren would go on to be the first African-American President of a major college bowl game when he was named President of the 1982 Fiesta Bowl. Warren's oldest brother, Morrison, Jr., was one of the first African-American scholarship athletes at Stanford, playing football for the Cardinal in the early 1960s, before a severe knee injury cut short his promising athletic career.

An active member of the Twin Cities community, Warren was named to the United Way Board of Directors in 2007, named to the Page Education Foundation Board of Directors in 2006, has taken an active role in Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity and was recognized by Twin Cities

Business Journal in 2006 as a Minority Business Leader. Warren also has been a member of the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors since 2004. Warren and his wife, Greta, who holds a bachelor's degree from Kansas State University, have a daughter, Peri, and a son, Powers. The Warren family resides in Chanhassen, MN.

BRAD CHILDRESS HEAD COACH

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 31ST SEASON

NFL COACHING EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: EASTERN ILLINOIS

Entering his 3rd season leading the Minnesota Vikings, Head Coach Brad Childress has a team built on his principles for winning football. The Vikings feature strong play along both lines, a dynamic running game and an opportunistic defense. A bevy of top-flight linemen have been important to developing the identity of the Vikings and are being complimented by emerging playmakers. The Vikings had 7 players in 2007 rewarded with Pro Bowl berths, the most since the 2000 season.

Since taking over the Vikings in 2006, Childress has placed a premium on playing smart football, minimizing mistakes and winning the line of scrimmage. With 4 Pro Bowlers along the offensive and defensive lines, a pair of proven 1,000-yard runners in the backfield and an aggressive defense with a nose for the ball, the Vikings enter 2008 with a strong nucleus of experienced talent. In the 3rd season under Childress' leadership the team has made steady improvement and are poised to build on a solid foundation. The offseason addition of 2007 NFL sack leader and All-Pro DE Jared Allen via trade with Kansas City and free agent starters WR Bernard Berrian and S Madiue Williams fill positions with veteran playmakers.

The 2008 season marks Childress' 31st in coaching and his 11th on an NFL sideline. During his previous 30 seasons at the collegiate and professional ranks Childress has been a part of teams with .500 or better records 18 times and has a combined record of 219-174-8 including playoffs and bowl action.

Record Book Redux

The 2007 Vikings set new team records in several categories across the board- offense, defense and special teams. The team continued to build on the solid foundation established since Brad Childress took over in 2006. The sound fundamentals of rushing defense, a strong running game and game-breaking special teams gave some of the best performances in team history.

WINNING UP FRONT

The Vikings have evolved under Childress as a team that controls the line of scrimmage with a physical style. The 2007 Vikings became the 1st team in franchise history to rank #1 in the NFL in rushing offense and rushing defense. The duos of Steve Hutchinson and Matt Birk on offense joined by Kevin Williams and Pat Williams on defense have all made back-to-back Pro Bowl trips in 2006 and 2007. The Vikings offense in 2007 set franchise records by rushing for 2,634 yards (164.6 per game) with rookie phenom Adrian Peterson leading with way with an NFC-best 1,341 yards.

Defensively, the Williams tandem shut down the run better than anyone in the NFL. The Vikings posted the #1 rush defense in the NFL in 2006 and 2007. Over the past 2 seasons, the Vikings have stifled opponents by allowing 67.9 yards per game, 2.9 yards per carry and 0.5 rushing TDs per game over those 32 contests. Behind the rugged DTs, the Vikings have an emerging trio of LBs who have a knack for the big play and ball-hawking DBs. The 2007 Vikings tied a franchise record by scoring 6 TDs on interception returns and 2 more on fumble returns. The Vikings' 13 defensive TDs (9 INTs, 4 FRs) since 2006 lead the NFL and are 5 more than the runner-up Packers' 8. Pro Bowl S Darren Sharper has snared 53 career interceptions to rank among the all-time NFL leaders.

Peterson is joined in the backfield by RB Chester Taylor, who ran for 1,216 yards for the Vikings in 2006, and newly-acquired free agent FB Thomas Tapeh from Philadelphia. Peterson and Taylor set a Vikings record for rushing yards by a tandem with 2,185 yards. In 2007, QB Tarvaris Jackson posted an 8-4 record as a starter in his 1st season with the full-time job and rallied the team on a 5-game win streak in November and December to put the team in playoff contention.

IDENTIFYING AND DEVELOPING TALENT

The Vikings have made the most of their drafts in the past 2 seasons. The Vikings have drafted 11 players in rounds 1-5 during the 2006 and 2007 drafts and have had 10 of those players crack the starting lineup. The lone player not to start, WR Aundrae Allison, set Vikings records with a 28.7 average on kickoff returns in 2007 and notched the longest play in team history with a 104-yard kickoff return TD vs. Detroit. The 2007 draft class landed both Peterson and 5th-round DE Brian Robison on the All-Rookie team.

Acquiring players through free agency and the organizational commitment to improving the talent level allowed Hutchinson to join the team in 2006 in a free agent group that included Taylor, LB Ben Leber and K Ryan Longwell.

The Vikings coaching staff has a talent for developing players and taking advantage of their skills. The team has 5 assistant coaches on staff who have played in the NFL and overall have a staff with a wealth of experience on the sideline.

PROVEN SUCCESS WITH PHILADELPHIA

Childress joined the Vikings following a seven-year stint with the Philadelphia Eagles, including the final four seasons as offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Philadelphia, the Eagles represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX, amassed a 70-42 (.625) record in the regular season, won four straight NFC East titles from 2001-04 and advanced to the playoffs from 2000-04. During

The 2007 Vikings were represented by 7 players in the Pro Bowl, 3 of those players joined the team during Head Coach Brad Childress' tenure- G Steve Hutchinson, FB Tony Richardson and RB Adrian Peterson. The 7 honorees were the most for the Vikings since the 2000 season.

Childress' time as offensive coordinator (2002-05), the Eagles were 43-21 in the regular season, the most wins in the NFC over that span. Since joining the Eagles in 1999, Childress' teams had a 13-1 mark against NFC North teams including playoff wins over Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota.

The Eagles offense under Childress was able to excel while adjusting to personnel transition and injuries. The team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense twice in those four seasons and assembled numerous individual achievements. In the four seasons Childress guided the offense, the team amassed 5,000+ yards each season, averaging 333.8 yards per game in that span. The Eagles offense from 2000-05 featured 7 players who have earned 14 berths in the Pro Bowl, highlighted by signal caller Donovan McNabb who has been honored with 5 berths in the all-star game. Joining McNabb in Hawaii over the span were TE Chad Lewis (3 times), T Tra Thomas (2), G Jermaine Mayberry (1), T Jon Runyan (1), WR Terrell Owens (1) and RB Brian Westbrook (1).

Childress worked with McNabb since his rookie season in 1999 when he signed on as the Eagles QB coach. McNabb has emerged as one of the top QBs in the NFL during the past seven seasons and established an NFL record in 2004 as the 1st QB to throw for 30+ TDs and less than 10 interceptions. The Eagles offense set franchise records in several areas in the 2004 run to Super Bowl XXXIX, including team passer rating (96.4), completion percentage (61.4%) and gross passing yardage (4,208). In 2000 McNabb was runner-up in the Associated Press MVP voting.

The Eagles improvement during Childress' tenure was remarkable as the team went 5-11 in the Andy Reid staff's first season in 1999. A year later the 2000 Eagles won the first playoff game in eight seasons for the franchise. The 2001 team that won the NFC East was the first division title for the Eagles since 1988 and the 2004 team that won 13 regular season games en route to the NFC title set the franchise record for wins.

COLLEGIATE PROGRAM BUILDING

Before joining Reid's Eagles staff in January 1999, Childress tutored the University of Wisconsin as offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and running backs coach from 1991-98. During his tenure in Madison the Badgers played in five bowl games, highlighted by Rose Bowl wins over UCLA in 1994 and 1998. The 1993 squad set a school record and ranked 4th in Big Ten history by averaging 455.2 yards per game. Childress guided Badgers RB Ron Dayne through his junior season and helped him become the first collegiate player to rush for over 7,000 career yards and go on to win the Heisman Trophy. While tutoring the UW offense, Childress guided some of the top performers in school history. Ron Dayne (1st-7,125 yards), Brent Moss (4th-3,428 yards) and Terrell Fletcher (5th-3,414) all rank among the career rushing leaders while QB Darrell Bevell left as the top passer in school history (7,686 yards) and Mike Samuel ranks 4th (4,989 yards). Three of the top five receivers in UW annals were under Childress' instruction as Chris Chambers (3rd-2,004 yards), Tony Simmons (4th-1,991 yards) and Lee DeRamus (5th-1,974 yards) all made their mark on the Big Ten during their careers.

The Badgers climbed out of the cellar of the Big Ten prior to Childress arriving on campus. The 1990 club struggled through a 1-10 season before Childress came aboard in 1991 and helped the team to a 59-32-4 mark over the next eight seasons and a 4-1 mark in bowl games. The 1993 team tied for the Big Ten title at 10-1-1 and went to the Rose Bowl, the first conference championship and Rose Bowl appearance since 1963. The 1998 squad, Childress' last with the Badgers, topped UCLA 38-31 in the Rose Bowl. Along with Dayne, Childress oversaw UW standouts Brent Moss as he won the 1993 Big Ten MVP and conference Offensive Player of the Year. Dayne took home the 1996 Big Ten Rookie of the Year hardware.

Prior to joining the Wisconsin staff, Childress was wide receivers coach at Utah in 1990 and offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona from 1986-89. The coaching staff at NAU included future NFL head coaches Andy Reid, Bill Callahan and Marty Mornhinweg. Reid, Childress and Mornhinweg were later reunited with the Eagles.

Childress' first taste of NFL coaching came as quarterbacks/quality control coach of the 1985 Indianapolis Colts. His coaching career began at Illinois from 1978-84 where

Running Hard

In the past 2 seasons the Vikings commitment to a top-notch running attack has been highlighted by individual performances, team records and the ability to have different RBs showcase their skills behind one of the NFL's best offensive lines. The 2006 and 2007 teams set a team mark by having different RBs go for 1,000+ yards in consecutive seasons.

Childress and wife, Dru-Ann, have four children- Cara, Kyle, Andrew and Christopher. Born 6/27/56 and raised in Aurora, IL, Childress attended Marmion Academy. Childress briefly played QB and WR at Illinois before graduating from Eastern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in psychology. In 2008 Childress was recognized by his alma mater with the Marmion Centurion Award, the highest honor bestowed on Marmion alumni for exceptional achievement in their chosen field.

Head Coach Brad Childress takes the Vikings role in the community to heart, starting new initiatives since moving to Minnesota including a program to invite special guests to the Saturday practice at Winter Park. Guests in 2007 included Minnesota National Guard Iraq war veteran Sgt. John Kriesel and his family.

CLIMBING THE COACHING LADDER

Philadelphia Eagles

Reuniting with Reid in Philly, Childress is instrumental in developing 1st-round QB Donovan McNabb. The Eagles become the dominant team in the NFC, making the playoffs 5 times from 2000-05, winning 4 straight NFC East titles from 2001-04 and representing the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. McNabb is selected to 5 Pro Bowls with Childress and the team averages over 333 yards per game in his 4 years as Offensive Coordinator. From 2002-05 no NFC team wins more games than Philadelphia's 43.

1990
University of Utah

Joining Ron McBride's staff at Utah, Childress coaches the Utes' WRs where he works with Bryan Rowley, who leaves as the all-time leading WR in school history.

1986-89
Northern Arizona University

Returning to the collegiate ranks, Childress serves as offensive coordinator for the 1st time in his career and the results are immediate for NAU. The Lumberjacks finish #4 in the country in 1986 and TE Shawn Collins becomes the first 1st-round draft pick in school history. The NAU coaching staff includes future NFL head coaches Andy Reid, Bill Callahan and Marty Mornhinweg during the span.

2006-
Minnesota Vikings

Brad Childress is named the 7th Head Coach in Vikings history on January 6, 2006. Childress emphasizes a stout defense and bruising running game in his debut season and places a premium on top-flight play along the offensive and defensive lines. In his first 2 seasons, the Vikings have 7 players earn 11 Pro Bowl honors.

1991-1998
University of Wisconsin

Back in the Big Ten after a 6-year absence, Childress coaches RBs and QBs before taking over offensive coordinator duties for Barry Alvarez. The team climbs to the top of the conference in a short time, plays in 5 bowl games in his final 6 seasons, including Rose Bowl wins after the '93 and '98 seasons. The '93 team is led by QB Darrell Bevell and the '98 team by future Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne.

1985
Indianapolis Colts

In his NFL debut, Childress works on the offensive staff under another disciple of the West Coast offense- Colts head coach Rod Dowhower. The Colts' offensive output jumps by 11 TDs over the previous season, interceptions decline and penalties and turnovers both dropped.

1978-84
University of Illinois

Childress gets his start in coaching at the University of Illinois working as a graduate assistant in 1978 and working his way up to a full-time job coaching RBs and WRs. The Illini improve from 1 win in 1978 to the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl berth in 1983. Childress works under Mike White and helps re-write the UI record book with a dominating passing attack. Childress is part of history, coaching against Bear Bryant in his final game in the 1982 Liberty Bowl in Memphis when the Illini face Alabama.

DARRELL BEVELL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON

NFL COACHING EXPERIENCE: 9TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: WISCONSIN

Darrell Bevell has been key to the Vikings offensive improvement from 2006 to 2007 and the squad stands poised in 2008 to continue building on the foundation that has established the Vikings as the NFL's dominant rushing team.

The 2007 Vikings featured a dynamic backfield that set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards and set a team record with a 5.33 yard-per-carry average. The Vikings scored 22 rushing TDs, an improvement of 10 over the 2006 club, and tied a team record with 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance.

Rookie sensation Adrian Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor to give the Vikings an unrivaled 1-2 punch in the backfield and the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. Peterson burst onto the NFL scene in 2007 and left his name etched throughout the NFL's and the Vikings' record books. Peterson ran away with the 2007 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year and became only the 4th Vikings player and 2nd Vikings RB to win the award. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

Peterson was the only offensive rookie in 2007 to earn Pro Bowl honors and was joined on the NFC squad by FB Tony Richardson, C Matt Birk and G Steve Hutchinson, who both repeated their trips from 2006. The trip was Birk's 6th of his career. Hutchinson made his 5th consecutive appearance in the game and Richardson earned a trip to Hawaii for the 3rd time in his career.

The Vikings development of QB Tarvaris Jackson continued in 2007 as the 2nd-year pro went 8-4 in his 12 starts, guiding the Vikings to all 8 of their wins on the season. As a team the Vikings reduced turnovers dramatically, throwing only 14 interceptions, tied for the 2nd-fewest in a 16-game season in Vikings history. Jackson battled injuries early in the season but started all 5 games in the club's 5-game win streak in November and December.

The 2006 Vikings were led on the ground by free agent acquisition RB Taylor, who set a franchise record with 303 rushing attempts and the 4th-highest total in team history with 1,216 rushing yards. The offense went through transition throughout the season with 4 different starting groups in the offensive line and only 3 players starting all 16 games across the front. Of the 3 players who did start every game, 2 of them earned Pro Bowl berths- Birk Hutchinson.

The Vikings produced a 100-yard rusher in 5 games during the 2006 season with Taylor notching 4 and Artose Pinner broke the century mark once. The 5 games breaking the 100-yard plateau in 2006 was equal to the amount of 100-yard rushing performances in the previous 2 seasons combined for the Vikings. Minnesota was 5-0 in games with a 100-yard rusher.

When Brad Childress began building his Minnesota Vikings coaching staff he had certain qualities in mind for the men who would lead the team into the future. Childress wanted coaches who were good teachers, hard workers

Backs to the Front

The Vikings are fortunate to have an offensive attack that features a pair of RBs capable of carrying the load. Between Chester Taylor and Adrian Peterson, the team has been able to establish the top ground game in the NFL and shatter records along the way.

and dedicated to the task. Childress had seen all of those qualities years earlier in a gritty QB who led his 1993 Wisconsin Badger squad to the school's 1st Big Ten title and Rose Bowl in 31 years. Over a decade later, the coach and QB were reunited with the Vikings.

Bevell spent 6 seasons working with NFC North rivals Green Bay, spending the last 3 seasons as the Packers' QBs coach. During his tenure with Green Bay the team went 57-39 in regular-season play and won 3 straight North titles from 2002-04, the first 3 titles in the newly-realigned division. The Packers advanced to the playoffs 4 straight seasons from 2001-04. From 2003-05 Green Bay legend Brett Favre led the NFL with 1,026 completions, ranked 2nd with 82 TD passes and ranked 4th in the NFL over that span with 11,330 yards. From 2002-04 the Packers had a 41-game streak with a TD pass, all thrown by Favre, the 2nd-longest such streak in NFL history trailing 49 games held by Johnny Unitas' Colts from 1956-60.

In 2005, Green Bay led the NFL in completions (383) and attempts (626) and set a new team record in both categories. Favre extended his NFL record for QBs by starting his 221st consecutive game in the 2005 finale. Despite the Packers offense being decimated by injury, Favre still completed 61.3% of his passes on the season, his 5th straight season over 60%.

The 2004 Packers set a team record with 4,449 net passing yards, breaking an 11-year old franchise record en route to ranking 3rd in the NFL in total offense. After setting a team record for rushing yards the season before, the Packers became the 1st NFL team since the 1988-89 San Francisco 49ers to set team marks in rushing and passing in back-to-back seasons. The Packers offense also set a new team record by allowing only 14 sacks on the season with Favre being caught a mere 12 times. The Packers signal-caller threw for 4,088 yards, his 4th career 4,000-yard season and 1st since 1999. His 61.4% completion rate was tioned for the 2nd-best in his career.

Bevell stepped into the Packers' QB coaching role in 2003 with solid results. Favre set a career-high with a 65.4% completion rate, led the NFL with 32 TD passes and earned his 8th career berth in the Pro Bowl. The Packers offense was balanced as the team set a new franchise record with 2,558 net yards rushing. Bevell's debut in the NFL came in 2000 as an offensive assistant with the team. Along with Favre, Bevell worked with future NFC Champion QB Matt Hasselbeck before his trade from Green Bay to Seattle.

In his 12th season on a collegiate or professional sideline, Bevell got his first taste of coaching at Westmar University in Lemars, IA in 1996 where he worked as passing game coordinator and QBs coach. He moved on to Iowa State in 1997 as a graduate assistant and then the University of Connecticut for 2 seasons in 1998 and '99 as WRs coach. The '98 UConn Huskies posted the most successful season in school history with a 10-3 record, a school-record 461 points, the Atlantic-10 Conference North Division title and advanced to the Division I-AA playoff quarterfinals.

As a collegiate player Bevell studied under Childress as the duo helped turn the dormant University of Wisconsin program into a national power. A 4-year starter for the Badgers, Bevell helped guide the team to a 10-1-1 mark as a sophomore in 1993. The squad claimed a share of the Big Ten championship for the 1st time since 1962 and won the Rose Bowl over UCLA. Between his sophomore and junior seasons, Bevell helped UW go 18-4-2. He left Madison as the school's all-time leading passer with 19 team records and a pair of Big Ten marks. His 67.8% completion mark set in 1993 still stands as the conference record while he was a 61.4% passer for his career.

A native of Yuma, AZ, Bevell was a standout at Chaparral High in Scottsdale where he played under his father, James. After redshirting in 1989 as a freshman at Northern Arizona, where Childress was on the coaching staff, Bevell went on a 2-year Mormon mission in Cleveland in 1990-91. It was at Northern Arizona where Bevell first studied under Childress when he was a member of the Lumberjacks staff.

Bevell and his wife, Tammy, have 3 daughters- Kylie, Morgan and Hailey.

records for kickoff return average, the longest kickoff return in team history, the most punts landed inside the 20, the most 50+ yard punts and the team converted a pair of onside kicks. The Vikings special teams coverage units were led by LB Heath Farwell, who led the team in special teams tackles for the 2nd straight season and was voted by his teammates as the Special Teams MVP and was recognized as a Pro Bowl alternate. Farwell set a Vikings record with 7 special teams tackles in a win at NY Giants (11/25/07).

The Vikings kickoff return unit was keyed by the development of a pair of rookies and set a team record with an average return of 24.8 yards. Rookie 5th-round pick Aundrae Allison set a Vikings record with a 28.7 average on kickoff returns, posted the longest play in Vikings history when he returned a kickoff 104 yards vs. Detroit (12/2/07) and led the NFC in kickoff return average. Allison came to the Vikings and was developed as a return man despite not being a factor in the return game during his collegiate career. The Vikings return game allowed 3 different players (Allison-3, Adrian Peterson-2 and Troy Williamson-1) to post 6 kickoff returns of 50+ yards.

Punter Chris Kluwe set team records with 34 punts landed inside the 20 and 29 punts of 50+ yards on the season. Kicker Ryan Longwell booted a game-winning 55-yard FG at Chicago (10/14/07), the 2nd-longest FG in Vikings history. Longwell converted a pair of onside kicks that were recovered by Farwell, including the 1st-ever by the Vikings in the 1st quarter of a game vs. Philadelphia (10/28/07). Longwell has converted 3 onside kicks in his 7 attempts in 2 seasons with the Vikings. In his 2 seasons as a Viking and working with Ferraro, Longwell has not missed a FG inside 45 yards.

In his 1st season with the Vikings in 2006 Ferraro generated 4 takeaways with his special team units, had punt returner Mewelde Moore tie a franchise record with his 2nd career punt return TD and Longwell make all 21 of his FG attempts under 46 yards. The Vikings successfully executed a fake FG for a TD when Longwell hit TE Richard Owens with a 16-yard TD pass, becoming the 1st Vikings kicker to throw a TD pass in team history. Kluwe matched a team record by landing 28 punts inside the 20 for the season. Moore ranked 4th in the NFC for the 2006 season with a 10.1 average. Moore returned a punt for a TD for the 2nd time in his career with a 71-yarder vs. New England (10/30) on Monday Night Football.

In 2005 the #5-seeded Panthers notched a pair of upset road wins en route to the NFC Championship game, topping the NY Giants and #2-seeded Chicago Bears on their home fields. During the playoff run the Panthers special teams were stellar as Pro Bowl WR Steve Smith returned a punt for a TD in the Championship game and the punt coverage team held opponents to a 2.2-yard return average. John Kasay was 6-of-6 in FGs and P Jason Baker landed 7 of his 16 punts inside the 20. During the regular season Baker led the NFC and ranked 3rd in the NFL in net punting average at 38.9 and landed a career-best 20 punts inside the 20 in his debut season with the Panthers. Kasay's 121 points were the 3rd-most in his career and his 26 FGs made him tied for the 3rd-best in his 14 NFL seasons. Smith, coming back from a season-ending injury in 2004, was fearless on punt returns and ranked 3rd in the NFC with a 10.6-yard average. Both the kickoff and punt coverage units were solid, ranking 5th in the NFL in punt return average allowed at 6.5 yards and 11th in the NFL with a 21.3 kickoff return average allowed.

Ferraro's stint with Carolina was the 1st for him in the NFL after 23 seasons at the collegiate level. Previous to coming to the Panthers he was defensive coordinator at Rutgers from 2001-04. The 2004 Scarlet Knights led the Big East in sacks, takeaways and 3rd-down defense.

Ferraro spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons coaching defensive backs with Georgia Tech, coaching a pair of DBs to All-Atlantic Coast Conference 2nd-team honors as Travares Tillman was recognized in 1999 and Jeremy Muyres in 2000. Tillman went on to be a 2nd-round draft choice in 2000 by the Buffalo Bills. The Yellow Jackets went to the Gator Bowl in 1999 to face Miami and the Peach Bowl in 2000 playing LSU. Ferraro served on the staff of future Vikings defensive coordinator George O'Leary at Tech.

His coaching travels have taken Ferraro from his beginnings at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1982 to stops at Syracuse (1983), Villanova (1984-86) and Dartmouth (1987). In 1988 Ferraro was named assistant head coach/assistant athletic director at Catholic University before moving to Maine in 1989 where he helped the Black Bears win the Yankee Conference title and advance to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Following a stint at Ohio University as LBs coach in 1990 he became defensive coordinator at Bowling Green in 1991.

During his tenure at BGSU, the team climbed to the top of the Mid-America Conference where the team went undefeated in league play in 1991 and '92 en route to winning the Raisin Bowl over Fresno State and the Las Vegas Bowl over Nevada respectively. The Falcon defense under Ferraro was stingy, allowing only 16.3 points per game in from 1991-94 and posted 3 shutouts in 1994. During his tenure, 12 BGSU players earned 1st-Team All-MAC honors and LB Vince Palko was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year in 1993 and '94. Ferraro spent 8 seasons at the school (1991-98) before advancing to Georgia Tech.

As a collegian, Ferraro played SS at Springfield College, earning All-New England honors as a senior. A native of Ridgewood, NJ, Ferraro (4/30/59) earned his bachelor's degree in 1982 a master's from Syracuse in 1986. Ferraro was teammates at Springfield with NY Giants defensive coordinator Steve Spagnuolo.

A PART OF THE MINNESOTA LANDSCAPE SINCE 1961

The following excerpt explains the early stages of the Vikings franchise as chronicled in the Minnesota Vikings 1961 Press, Radio, TV Guide.

Club History

Twin Cities football enthusiasts began their quest for professional football some 12 years ago, and it was on January 28, 1960, that their efforts were culminated with the announcement — from Miami, Florida, where the National Football League owners were in session — that Minnesota was being granted a franchise for 1961.

At the same meeting, Dallas was accepted to start play in 1960.

The franchise was granted just ten days after E. William Boyer, president of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, had made an official presentation to the league on behalf of statewide Minnesota interests.

Besides Boyer in the founding group were: Max Winter, promoter and restaurateur; H.P. Skoglund, president of North American Life and Casualty Company; Ole Haugrud, Duluth businessman, and the Northwest Publications, Inc., publishers of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, through its president, Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

They decided to start with an original outlay of one million dollars, of which the Minneapolis sources would put up $600,000; St. Paul $300,000 and Duluth, representing the rest of the state, $100,000.

Upon acquiring a franchise, the group hired Joe Thomas, former scout with the Los Angeles Rams, to scout the country in preparation for the 1961 draft meeting, and went on a nationwide search to find a general manager. This ended with the selection of Bert E. Rose, who was at the time the public relations director for the Rams.

LESLIE FRAZIER

ASST. HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORD.

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 21ST SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 16TH SEASON (10 COACHING/6 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

ALMA MATER: ALCORN STATE

Entering his 2nd season with the Minnesota Vikings, Leslie Frazier was named Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator for the 2008 campaign. His role will expand to include additional administrative tasks along with leading the Vikings defense.

Combining a proven track record of winning as a player and a coach, Frazier joined the Vikings in 2007, mere days after winning Super Bowl XLI with the Indianapolis Colts. The Super Bowl title was the 2nd for Frazier, his 1st coming as a starting CB with the 1985 Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. Frazier enters his 10th season as an NFL coach in 2008 and has another 11 years of collegiate coaching experience. In his 9 seasons as an NFL coach, Frazier has suffered a losing season only once—his 1st season with Philadelphia in 1999.

In his debut season with the Vikings the team maintained its dominance against the run, posting the #1 rush defense in the NFL and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry. The anchors of the Vikings defense—DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams—were joined by S Darren Sharper as Pro Bowl honorees in 2007, the most defensive Vikings to earn trips to Hawaii since 1992.

Frazier's defense was opportunistic, scoring on 6 interception returns to tie a Vikings record and added a pair of TDs on fumble recoveries. The Vikings' 6 scores by interception return ranked tied for 5th-most in a season in NFL history. The team scored on 3 interceptions in a key road game against the NY Giants to set a team record against the eventual Super Bowl XLII champions. The Vikings tied for 3rd in the NFL in 2007 by allowing only 7 rushing TDs and were 5th in the NFC in total offensive points allowed, an average of 17.8 points per game.

The Vikings defense responded to new faces and new positions with impressive performances in 2007. The team was led in tackles by MLB E.J. Henderson's career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. Henderson added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-best 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors and garnered All-Pro votes. The Vikings LBs entered 2007 with only SLB Ben Leber playing his same position from the previous year. One of the most impressive individual performances came from 2nd-year WLB Chad Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury but came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, led the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and had a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2007 Vikings rush defense was the envy of the NFL, allowing 74.1 yards per game on the ground. The Vikings allowed 1 opponent back to break the 100-yard mark and held some of the NFL's best runners in check, including limiting 2007 NFL rushing king LaDainian Tomlinson to 40 yards. The Vikings limited Chiefs star Larry Johnson to 42 yards and Eagles 1,300-yard man Brian Westbrook to 46 yards.

Frazier came to Minnesota after coaching DBs with Indianapolis and serving as Special Assistant to Head Coach Tony Dungy for 2 seasons. The 2006 Colts defense clamped down on opponents throughout the playoff run that brought the franchise its 1st Super Bowl title since 1970. The team notched 7 interceptions, 8 sacks and took away 6 fumbles. The Indy defense allowed only 2 second-half TDs in the 4 post-season games and held the Bears out of the end zone for the final 3 quarters of Super Bowl XLI en route to the win.

In his 1st season with Indianapolis in 2005, Frazier helped S Bob Sanders earn a berth in the Pro Bowl in his 1st season as a full-time starter and became the 1st Colts DB to play in the game since 1971. The Colts ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense for the season after ranking 29th overall in 2004 and improved in yards allowed per game from 370.6 per game to 307.1.

Prior to his tenure with Indianapolis, Frazier served as defensive coordinator with Cincinnati in 2003 and '04 where he helped the Bengals go .500 in consecutive seasons for the 1st time in 12 seasons. Frazier's NFL coaching debut came from 1999-2002 with Philadelphia where he worked with the Eagles DBs while Vikings' Head Coach Brad Childress worked on the offensive side of the ball. While with the Eagles, Frazier helped CB Troy Vincent earn 4 Pro Bowl berths, S Brian Dawkins went to the game 3 times and Bobby Taylor appear in the all-star game once. The trio all earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2002. Frazier was part of an impressive program-building project in Philadelphia that saw the team improve from a 5-11 record in 1999 to 11-5 in 2000, 11-5 in 2001 and 12-4 in 2002. The team won advanced to the playoffs in each of the final 3 seasons Frazier was with the Eagles, including winning the NFC East in 2001 and '02 and advancing to the NFC Championship game in both seasons.

Frazier had spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before returning to the NFL. In 1997 and '98 he worked with the DBs at Illinois on Ron Turner's staff, who Frazier would face 10 seasons later in the Super Bowl. The staff was part of an impressive rebuilding project with the Illini, going 0-11 in 1997 before winning a bowl game in 1999.

Building programs was not unusual for Frazier before going to Illinois and the Eagles. He started the Trinity College football program from the ground up as the school started a football team with Frazier as head coach in 1988. Frazier turned the team into a winner, claiming Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles twice. The school, now known as Trinity International University, named the football field in Frazier's honor in 1997 in honor of his impact on the campus.

Turnovers to TDs

The Vikings defense showed the flair for the big play in 2007 and tied a team record for most defensive TDs in a season and most interception-return TDs in a season. The opportunistic Vikings also continued to establish their dominance against opposing runners, ranking #1 in the NFL in rushing defense for the 2nd straight year.

As a player, Frazier was part of the legendary Chicago Bears defense that keyed the Super Bowl XX win over New England. He was a starter at CB on the 1985 Super Bowl team and played for the Bears from 1981-86. He led Chicago in interceptions in 1983, '84 and '85 but his career was cut short by a severe knee injury suffered in the Super Bowl. During his career he had 20 interceptions in 65 games and returned a pair for TDs. Frazier was an All-America DB and standout baseball player at Alcorn State University. In 2007, Frazier was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame.

Frazier (4/3/59) was born in Columbus, MS and attended Columbus High School. He and wife Gale have 3 children- Kieron, Chantel and Corey. He holds a degree in business administration and was active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his playing career.

ERIC BIENIEMY

RUNNING BACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 12TH SEASON (3 COACHING/9 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: COLORADO

Eric Bieniemy enters his 3rd season with the Vikings in 2008 as running backs coach after spending 5 successful seasons coaching the same position in the collegiate ranks. Bieniemy played 9 seasons in the NFL as a RB with 3 teams before he began his coaching career.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards as a team. Minnesota also set a team record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and tied a team record with 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance.

The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the league in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

Rookie Adrian Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. Peterson made an immediate impact and set numerous NFL and team records in his first season in the league. He became only the 4th Vikings player and the 2nd Vikings RB to win the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year and earned a starting nod in the Pro Bowl. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history. FB Tony Richardson helped pave the way for Peterson and Taylor's record-setting season on his way to being the 1st Vikings FB to earn Pro Bowl honors since Bill Brown in 1968.

In 2006, Bieniemy helped guide free agent pickup Taylor to the 4th-best single-season rushing mark by a Viking with 1,216 yards and recorded the longest play from scrimmage in team history with a 95-yard TD gallop at Seattle. The Vikings RBs posted 5 games over the century mark on the season with Taylor accounting for 4 and Pinner adding another. Taylor became a full-time starter for the 1st time in his career with the Vikings and responded to the workload with a battering style. Bieniemy prepared Artoise Pinner for his lone start of the season in place of Taylor and he responded against his old Lions teammates with a career-high 125 yards and tied a Vikings record with 3 rushing TDs in the game. Bieniemy honed Jeff Dugan to step into the starting job at FB after veteran Tony Richardson was sidelined by injury. Dugan had not started a game at FB in his career before being called upon for the final 7 games of 2006.

Bieniemy spent the past 3 seasons (2003-05) as RBs coach at UCLA and was also the Bruins' recruiting coordinator in 2005. In 2005, the Bruins finished with a 10-2 record, a #16 ranking in The Associated Press poll, and also earned a 50-38 Sun Bowl victory over Northwestern. Bieniemy tutored RB Maurice Drew for 3 seasons, who was drafted in the 2nd round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2005, Drew rushed for 914 yards and 13 TDs and was selected to virtually every All-America 1st-Team as an all-purpose player/kick returner. In 2004, Drew became just the 10th Bruin to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,007) and set a single-game school record with 322 yards and 5 TDs at Washington. As a freshman in 2003, Drew earned 3rd-team Freshman All-America honors as a KR/RB after rushing for almost 600 yards and returning 2 kickoffs for TDs. Bieniemy also coached Chris Markey to 561 yards rushing in 2005, and in 2004, Manuel White had his most productive season as a Bruin, rushing for over 750 yards and catching 20 passes. White went on to be drafted in the 4th round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

Prior to joining the UCLA staff, Bieniemy began his collegiate coaching career by working 2 seasons (2001-02) at his alma mater, Colorado, as RBs coach. In 2002, the Buffaloes ranked 9th in team rushing in the NCAA with 232.8 yards per game on the ground. Chris Brown ranked 3rd in the nation with a 153.4 yards per game average, and the Colorado TBs and FBs combined for over 3,000 yards rushing to lead the nation. Bieniemy made an immediate impact at Colorado in his first season in 2001 as the Buffs ranked 8th in the nation in rushing, averaging 228.5 yards per game. The TBs and FBs combined for 2,620 yards, the most yards out of all the RB positions in college football in 2001. Bieniemy had returned to Colorado in order to complete his degree in sociology. He also served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver in the fall of 2000 before his return to Colorado.

Bieniemy played 9 seasons in the NFL (1991-99) and was a 2nd-round pick of the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 NFL Draft. He played 4 seasons in San Diego (1991-94) and was a member of the Chargers' 1994 AFC Championship team that played San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIX. Bieniemy went on to play 4 seasons with Cincinnati (1995-98) and one season with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1999. Vikings' head coach Brad Childers was in his first season with the Eagles as QB coach in '99.

Bieniemy's name continues to be prominent throughout Colorado's record books as he remains the school's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,940), all-purpose yards (4,351), touchdowns (42), and scoring (254 points). He was the nation's 2nd-leading rusher in 1990 with 1,628 yards, along with 17 TDs, and he finished 3rd that year in the Heisman Trophy balloting behind BYU's Ty Detmer (the winner) and Notre Dame's Raghbi Ismail. Bieniemy earned unanimous All-America honors in 1990 and was a two-time All-Big Eight selection in 1988 and 1990, earning the conference's offensive player of the year award in '90. He was part of Colorado's national championship team in 1991 that defeated Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl. As a junior, he was named to CU's prestigious 25-member "All-Century Football Team," the only active member selected to the team honoring the first 100 years of Buffalo football.

Bieniemy was born in New Orleans, LA (8/15/69) and earned 2nd-team All-America honors from USA Today at Bishop Amat High School in LaPuente, CA as a senior when he rushed for 2,002 yards and 30 TDs.

Bieniemy and wife, Mia, have sons, Eric III and Elijah.

KARL DUNBAR

DEFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 9TH SEASON (4 COACHING/5 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: LOUISIANA STATE

Karl Dunbar enters his third season with the Vikings in 2008 after having a dramatic impact in each of his first two years. During his 2006 Vikings' debut, Dunbar tightened the team's defensive line into one of the best against the run in NFL history and followed it up last season with a second consecutive #1 ranking in terms of rushing defense.

In 2007, the Vikings held opponents to 1,185 yards on the ground, or an average of 74.1 yards per game, marking the 2nd straight year and the 4th time in team history the team finished with the best rushing defense in the league. The Vikings' tough interior was anchored by DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, who both earned Pro Bowl honors for the 2nd consecutive season. Kevin Williams notched his 4th career interception, setting a team record for the most career INTs by a defensive lineman. On the edge, DEs Ray Edwards and Kenechi Udezue tied for the team lead with 5.0 sacks, while 2007 4th-round draft choice DE Brian Robison finished right behind them with 4.5 sacks and earned All-Rookie team honors.

The outstanding 2007 performance came on the heels of a record-setting 2006 season, as Dunbar helped the team rank #1 in the NFL in rushing defense for only the third time in team history. That season, the Vikings defense allowed just 985 rushing yards, or 61.6 yards per game. That total set a team record and ranked 2nd in the NFL since the 1970 merger behind only the Baltimore Ravens' 970 yards allowed in 2000. Minnesota posted the two best marks in franchise history for rushing yards allowed in a game with -3 at Detroit (12/10) and 7 at Miami (11/19), breaking the record of 12 yards allowed vs. San Francisco on 12/14/69. The Williams tandem earned Pro Bowl honors, which was the first time since 1970 (DTs Gary Larsen and Alan Page) that the team sent a pair of defensive tackles to the all-star game. The Vikings 2006 front set the table for the team to rank #8 in the NFL in total defense, the first time in the top 10 since 1994.

For Dunbar, 2008 will be his 11th season on a collegiate or professional sideline. His current stint in the NFL is his second after he worked as a defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears in 2004. Dunbar has the experience gained in five seasons as an NFL defensive lineman along with his coaching credentials. An 8th-round draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers' and legendary head coach Chuck Noll in 1990, Dunbar went on to play with New Orleans (1992-93) and Arizona (1994-95). He also spent a season each with Orlando and Rhein in the World League.

As the assistant head coach/defensive line in 2005 for his alma mater, LSU, Dunbar was reunited with head coach Les Miles, whom he worked under at Oklahoma State in 2002-03. The Tigers won the SEC West in 2005 and upset Miami in the Peach Bowl to end the season. Dunbar's linemen, highlighted by DTs Kyle Williams and Claude Wroten, were among the most decorated in the SEC that year. Williams and Wroten were each honored as 1st-team All-SEC choices by Associated Press, while Williams added 2nd-team All-America recognition from AP. Wroten was also selected to the 1st-team All-SEC by league coaches while Williams was a 2nd-team All-SEC pick. Closing out the honors was freshman DE Tyson Jackson, who was an SEC All-Freshmen Team honoree. Dunbar's linemen paved the way for the Tigers defense to

Opportunistic on Defense

The Vikings defensive line has been a key part of the defense being ranked #1 in the NFL against the run in 2006 and 2007. The Vikings linemen have also showed a flair for the big play and have been led by DT Kevin Williams, whose nose for the ball has him among the Vikings career leaders in interceptions and TDs.

rank #5 in the nation in total defense at 276.8 yards per game and 7th in the country in rushing defense at 94.8 yards per game. The defense also allowed only 15.2 points per game, which ranked 8th in the nation, and led the SEC with 39 team sacks.

The 2005 season was Dunbar's second tour of duty at LSU, as he had previously worked with the Tigers' strength and conditioning program in 2000-01. He returned to the Tigers in 2000 under head coach Nick Saban and helped kick-start the team to an 8-4 finish and a win in the Peach Bowl. The following season the squad went 10-3, won the SEC title for the first time since 1986 when Dunbar was a freshman defensive lineman, and won the Sugar Bowl. In seven seasons as a player and coach with LSU, Dunbar helped amass a 60-24-1 record, win a pair of SEC titles and play in six bowl games.

During Dunbar's first stint in the NFL with the Bears in 2004, he helped tutor a young and talented line that included rookie 1st-round pick Tommie Harris and 2nd-rounder Tank Johnson. Harris opened all 16 games, the first Bears DT to accomplish the feat since 1975. Dunbar helped build the foundation of the Bears' attack that ranked #2 in the NFL in total defense in 2005 and saw Harris earn a Pro Bowl berth.

Dunbar's connection to the Vikings defensive line dates back to 2002-03, when he took over as line coach at Oklahoma State. At that time he tutored Vikings' All-Pro DT Kevin Williams during his senior season and helped him become the first OSU defensive lineman to be a 1st-round draft pick (9th in 2003) since Leslie O'Neal (8th in 1986) 17 years earlier. Another of Dunbar's pupils, DE Antonio Smith, was selected in the 5th round of the 2004 draft. During Dunbar's OSU tenure, the Cowboys began a dramatic program revival, finishing 8-5 and 9-4 respectively in 2002 and 2003. The squad played in the Houston and Cotton Bowls, marking the first back-to-back bowl games by OSU since 1987-88.

A standout player at LSU, Dunbar was a starter for his final three seasons and earned 2nd-Team All-SEC accolades as a senior in 1989. Dunbar was part of Tiger teams that won or shared a pair of SEC titles in 1986 and 1988, posted a 31-15-1 record and played in the Sugar, Gator and Hall of Fame bowls. As a senior in 1989, Dunbar was LSU's co-captain with QB Tommy Hodson. He was also a linemate at LSU with former Vikings' Pro Bowler Henry Thomas.

Dunbar (5/18/67) graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He and wife, Pamela, have three children - Karmichael MacKenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nickolette Alyse.

JIM HUEBER ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 35TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: SOUTH DAKOTA

Jim Hueber will look to help the Vikings offense build on their record-setting season on the ground as he enters his 3rd season with the team and his 35th in coaching in 2008.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards as a team. Minnesota also set a team record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and tied a team record with 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance. The Vikings posted the top two team rushing performances in the NFL in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

Up front, C Matt Birk and G Steve Hutchinson earned Pro Bowl honors for their performances in 2007 for the 2nd consecutive year, which was the 1st time since 1999-2000 that the Vikings had two offensive linemen earn the honor in back-to-back years. Rookie Adrian Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

Hueber made his NFL debut in 2006 after 33 seasons in the collegiate game. His proven talent for improving the running game showed as Taylor took advantage of his first full-time starting role in the NFL to run for 1,216 yards, the 4th-highest single-season total in NFL history. The 2006 Vikings posted 5 games with a 100-yard rusher, which matched the total of the 2004 and 2005 Vikings teams combined.

Hueber is familiar with the Twin Cities after spending 1984-91 on the Golden Gophers' coaching staff. In his current role he is reunited with Head Coach Brad Childress, whom he coached with at Wisconsin. Hueber will work closely with a former pupil in Vikings Offensive Coordinator Darrell Bevell, who as a Badger QB, helped Wisconsin rise to national power.

Hueber spent the 1995-2005 seasons coaching the Wisconsin linemen after beginning his tenure in Madison, working with the RBs from 1992-94. Hueber moved to tutoring the linemen in 1995 and his group paved the way for 1999 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne to leave with the all-time college football rushing title with 6,397 yards.

Hueber played a major part in rebuilding the Badger program. Wisconsin played in 11 bowl games in his 14 seasons in Madison. The 1993 Badgers went 10-1-1 to claim a share of the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl for the 1st time since 1962. The 1993 win over UCLA was the 1st Rose Bowl title for the Badgers in school history and started a remarkable streak of success as the Badgers won or tied for the Big Ten crown 3 times from 1993-99. During Hueber's tenure, UW posted a 112-57-4 record, including an 8-3 bowl mark.

Prior to moving across the border to Wisconsin, Hueber guided the Golden Gophers offensive line for 8 seasons from 1984-91. Starting at Minnesota on the staff of legendary head coach Lou Holtz. During his tenure with the Gophers, Hueber's linemen paved the way for all-time leading rusher and 1st-round draft pick Darrell Thompson to run for 4,654 yards.

Hueber and his wife, Nancy, are parents to Jeffrey, Jonathan, Joseph and Kristine.

JIMMIE JOHNSON

TIGHT ENDS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON (3 COACHING/10 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: HOWARD

Entering his 3rd season with the Vikings' coaching staff in 2008, Jimmie Johnson brings a blend of expertise as an NFL player and a coach that has proved to be a valuable asset during his opening 2 years with the team. As a player, Johnson was committed to the art of blocking, helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in 8 of his 10 seasons. Now as a coach, he continues to stress the importance of the skill to his current TE's unit, which in 2008 will include 10-year veteran Jim Kleinsasser and 2nd-year Viking Visanthe Shiancoe.

Last season, Kleinsasser and Shiancoe played a critical role in the Vikings' #1-ranked rushing attack. Averaging 164.6 rushing yards per game, the team gained 2,634 yards on 494 carries. The running back duo of 1st-round draft choice Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor combined for 2,185 of those yards, the most in team history by a tandem. Peterson, who finished 1st in the NFC and second in the NFL with 1,341 rushing yards, set the NFL record for the most rushing yards in a single game when he gained 296 vs. San Diego (11/4), a game in which the Vikings set a new team record with 378 yards on the ground.

Not only did Kleinsasser and Shiancoe assist in the Vikings rushing attack, but the duo also contributed in the passing game. In Shiancoe's 1st season with the Vikings, he finished with career highs in every category as he hauled in 27 receptions for 323 yards and 1 TD. He caught the longest pass by a Vikings' TE in team history, a 79-yarder on a reverse by WR Sidney Rice. Kleinsasser, who was recognized for his unselfish blocking with a spot on the USA Today's All-Joe Team, added four catches for 43 yards and a TD. He now ranks fifth in Vikings' annals for career catches by a TD with 158 while blocking for four of the top five single-season rushing totals in team history.

In 2006, Johnson's TE corps helped newly-acquired Taylor run for 1,214 yards in his first shot as a full-time starter. Taylor's total ranked as the 4th-highest single-season mark in Vikings' history. Jermaine Wiggins tied for second on the team with 46 receptions while Kleinsasser added 7 catches for 47 yards.

During his 10 NFL seasons as a tight end, Johnson spent time with Washington, Detroit, Kansas City and Philadelphia. Originally selected in the 12th round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, he was a long-shot rookie who not only made the final squad, but also went on to play in all 16 games that year. While with the Redskins, Johnson played under the legendary Joe Gibbs and was part of teams that went 34-14 in regular season action and 4-1 in the playoffs. He was a member of the 1991 Redskins team that reached the pinnacle of the NFL, winning Super Bowl XXVI over Buffalo in the stadium he now calls home – the Metrodome. His best season statistically was 1990, when he caught 15 passes for 218 yards and a pair of TDs. That year he averaged 14.5 yards per catch, which trailed only Gary Clark's team-leading 14.8 average, and caught his first NFL touchdown on a 4-yard pass from Stan Humphries in a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit (11/4/90). In 1991, Johnson caught 3 passes in the opening 6 games, including 2 for TDs from Mark Rypien in the 1st and 2nd games of the year vs. Detroit (9/1/91) and at Dallas (10/6/91) on Monday Night Football. A neck injury suffered at Chicago (10/6/91), however, placed Johnson on injured reserve for the rest of the Redskins championship season.

Following his three seasons with Washington, Johnson joined the Lions in 1992 as a Plan B free agent and went on to start 10 of the 22 games he played from 1992-93 under head coach Wayne Fontes. After his release by Detroit in November 1993, Johnson joined Kansas City and head coach Marty Schottenheimer for the 1994 season. That year the Chiefs played against the Vikings in the preseason game held in Tokyo and went on to ride Hall of Famers Joe Montana and Marcus Allen to a 9-7 record and a berth in the playoffs. Johnson played in 7 games and started 1 that season.

In 1995, Johnson moved on to Philadelphia where he enjoyed his most productive seasons as part of the two-tight end power running game employed by the Eagles. Johnson blocked for Ricky Watters as he earned Pro Bowl berths in 1995 and '96 while breaking the 1,000-yard mark each season from 1995-97. In 1996, Watters set the Eagles team record for attempts with 353, the 2nd-most yards in team history with 1,411, and the 2nd-most rushing TDs with 13. The Eagles took NFC east runner-up honors in 1995 and '96 while advancing to the playoffs both seasons under Ray Rhodes. During that time, Johnson started 18 of the 51 games he played and had a career best 18.1-yard receiving average in 1996, when he caught 7 passes for 127 yards. His final NFL touchdown came from QB Bobby Hoyer vs. Cincinnati (11/30/97).

As a player, Johnson was durable, seeing action in all 16 games in six of his 10 seasons. He finished his career with 61 catches for 723 yards and five touchdowns while playing in five postseason games. He also blocked for 1,000 yards rushers in eight of his 10 NFL seasons, helping Earnest Byner break the 1,000-yard mark and earn Pro Bowl honors in 1990 and 1991. Barry Sanders repeated the feats in Detroit in 1992 and '93, and in Philadelphia, Johnson helped Watters get over the 1,000-yard plateau in 1995, '96 and '97. Johnson finished his career clearing the way for Deuce Staley in 1998, who gained 1,000+ yards in only his second NFL season.

After his playing days were over, Johnson entered coaching, beginning his career as the running backs coach at South Carolina State in 2001, where he helped the Bulldogs finish 6-5. He then held the offensive coordinator position at Shaw University in 2002 before becoming offensive coordinator/QBs coach at Texas Southern in 2004 and 2005. Johnson had an immediate impact in both positions. In 2005 at TSU, Johnson helped develop sophomore RB Brent Wilson into a 1st-Team All-SWAC performer with 1,032 rushing yards, 10 rushing touchdowns and one receiving TD. Wilson became the first TSU player to break the 1,000-yard mark since 1998 and was the lone sophomore on offense to earn 1st-Team honors after making a dramatic improvement over his freshman season when he finished with 16 rushing yards. At Shaw, Johnson helped resurrect the Bears football program that had been discontinued since 1978. The team went 7-3 in both 2002 and 2003 and rejoined the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in '03.

Johnson attended Howard University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in consumer studies. As a senior he was an All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice after hauling in 31 receptions for 546 yards and 9 TDs. For his college career, Johnson finished with 16 TDs and 1,229 receiving yards on 73 catches.

A native of Augusta, GA, Johnson (10/6/66) attended T.W. Josey High School. He and his family reside in Shakopee.

DEREK MASON

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 15TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

ALMA MATER: NORTHERN ARIZONA

Coming off his debut season on an NFL sideline in 2007, Derek Mason will continue to assist with the Vikings defensive backs in 2008. Mason brings 14 seasons of coaching experience on both sides of the ball and was exposed to the NFL through the Minority Coaching Fellowship program in 1996 with the St. Louis Rams, 2000 with the NY Giants and 2006 with the Oakland Raiders. He joined the Vikings staff in 2007, working with defensive backs coach Joe Woods.

In 2007, Mason helped coach a defensive backfield that included Pro Bowl S Darren Sharper, who finished the season tied for the team lead with four INTs, along with S Dwight Smith and CB Antoine Winfield. The Vikings also saw 2nd-year CB Cedric Griffin start all 16 games and 2007 3rd-round draft choice Marcus McCauley start 9 of the 16 games he played. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Smith that ranks as the fourth-longest INT return in Vikings' history. The Vikings defense finished the year with 15 INTs and now has 36 picks since the 2006 season opener, a total that ranks tied for 6th in the NFL during that span.

Despite currently coaching on the defensive side of the ball, Mason has spent much of his career working with wide receivers and special teams. He helped elevate numerous college players to new heights and improve throughout their careers. In his most recent position before joining Minnesota, Mason tutored the Ohio University wide receivers under head coach Frank Solich and helped the Bobcats improve from a 4-7 season in 2005 to a 9-5 mark in 2006, ending their season in the GMAC Bowl against Southern Mississippi. The Bobcats won seven consecutive games in the middle of the 2006 season, highlighted by a 20-17 win at Big Ten opponent Illinois. The team advanced to the Mid-America Conference title game against Central Michigan and the Bobcats berth in the GMAC Bowl marked the third bowl appearance in school history and the first since the 1968 Tangerine Bowl.

Prior to joining the staff at Ohio, Mason spent 2004 coaching wide receivers at New Mexico State and helped the Aggies lead the conference in passing. In 2003, he was co-defensive coordinator/assistant head coach at Division I-AA St. Mary's College in California, where he helped DB Wes Boba earn All-America honors in the final season the Gaels fielded a football team. During the 2002 season, Mason mentored the receivers and assisted with special teams at Utah. The 2002 Utes finished with two of the top 10 wide receivers in the Mountain West Conference and led the league in kickoff returns. During Mason's season in Utah, the team also featured future #1 overall NFL Draft pick QB Alex Smith and WR draftee Paris Warren.

Mason made his first appearance on the defensive side of the ball in 2001 at Bucknell. His impact was immediate as the 2001 Bison defenders ranked #5 in I-AA total defense and led the Patriot League. For two seasons prior, Mason coached the Bison wide receivers, helping guide freshman WR Jim Moran to the best debut season in school history in 1999.

Mason spent his early coaching years in the West, coaching running backs at Idaho State from 1997-98 after coaching wide receivers from 1995-96 at Weber State. His coaching career began at Mesa CC in 1994.

As a player, Mason was a two-year starter and four-year letterman at Northern Arizona, where he was teammates for a season with Vikings offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell and played under Larry Kentera and Steve Axman. During Mason's playing days at NAU, the Lumberjacks' staff included future NFL head coaches Brad Childress, Marty Mornhinweg and Bill Callahan.

A native of Phoenix, Mason attended Camelback High School. He and his wife, Leighanne, have two daughters — Makenzie and Sydney.

PAT MORRIS OFFENSIVE LINE

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 33RD SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 12TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Pat Morris will help the Vikings offense build on their record-setting season on the ground as he enters his 3rd season with the team in 2008. Morris will be entering his 12th season coaching in the NFL and coached at the college level for 21 seasons.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards as a team. The team set a franchise record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and tied a team record with 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the NFL in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

In the past 11 seasons (1997-2007), Morris has coached lines that have cleared the way for the NFL's #1 rushing attack 3 times (1998, '99, '07) and ranked in the NFL's top 10 on 7 occasions.

Two of Morris' players, C Matt Birk and G Steve Hutchinson, earned Pro Bowl honors for their performances in 2007 for the 2nd consecutive season, which was the 1st time since 1999-2000 that the Vikings had 2 offensive linemen earn the honor in back-to-back years. Rookie Adrian Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined to rush for a team-record 2,185 yards. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards on the ground at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 rushing on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

In 2006 Taylor took advantage of his first full-time starting role in the NFL to run for 1,216 yards, the 4th-highest single-season total in team history. The Vikings posted 5 games with a 100-yard rusher on the season, which matched the 2004 and 2005 Vikings teams combined.

Morris spent 2004 and 2005 in the NFC North as the offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions on Steve Mariucci's staff.

Before joining the Lions, Morris spent 7 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, 2 as TE's/assistant offensive line coach (1997-98) and 5 as OL coach (1999-2003), and 6 of those seasons (1997-02) were under Mariucci. During the 6 seasons under Mariucci, the 49ers made the playoffs 4 times with a pair of NFC West titles. During his time with the 49ers, the team totaled the 2nd-highest rushing total in the NFL, averaging 135.5 yards per game over the 7-year span. San Francisco's offensive line cleared the way for five 2,000-yard rushing seasons, with 2,544 in 1998 (franchise record), 2,095 in 1999, 2,244 in 2000, 2,244 in 2002, and 2,279 in 2003. Four offensive linemen played in the Pro Bowl during Morris' time working with the line, including G Kevin Gogan (1998), G Ray Brown (2002), C Jeremy Newberry (2002-03), and G Ron Stone (2003). The 49ers had 1,000-yard rushing backs in 6 of Morris' 7 seasons with the team, including Garrison Hearst's franchise-record 1,570 yards in 1998.

Morris also has familiarity with the state of Minnesota from his 4 seasons at the University of Minnesota (1979-82) as offensive line coach under Joe Salem. He spent a season at Northern Arizona (1978) before joining the Gophers' staff. Morris began his coaching career at Southern California as a graduate assistant from 1976-77. He graduated from USC following his playing days in 1976.

During his college playing and coaching career, Morris was associated with 5 Rose Bowl teams and 2 national championships. Morris was born in Cleveland, OH, and is married to wife, Kathy.

BRIAN MURPHY ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: LEHIGH

Brian Murphy enters his 3rd season with the Vikings in 2008, assisting special teams coordinator Paul Ferraro with a unit that broke several team records in 2007.

Murphy and Ferraro have the benefit of a nucleus that blends veterans like K Ryan Longwell, who currently ranks 26th in league history in scoring and 24th all-time with 270 FGs, with young, emerging stars like KR Aundrea Allison, who led the NFC and finished 3rd in the league in kickoff return average as a rookie last year and 2-time Vikings Special Teams MVP Heath Farwell—one of the top coverage men in the NFL.

In 2007, the Vikings ranked near the top in several NFL categories, including kickoff return average, kickoff coverage, and punts inside the 20. The team finished 4th in the league with an average of 24.8 yards per kickoff return as they returned 59 kicks for 1,461 yards. KR Aundrea Allison led the NFC and finished 3rd in the NFL in kickoff return average, returning 20 kickoffs for 574 yards (28.7 avg.), including a team record 104-yard return for a TD against Detroit that ranks as not only the longest kickoff return but also as the longest play in team history. Allison became the only player in team history to have 3 kickoff returns of 60+ yards in the same season.

The 2007 squad allowed opponents an average starting field position just beyond the 26-yard line (26.2), which ranked 6th in the league. LB Heath Farwell led the team with 32 special teams tackles and was named the special teams MVP for a 2nd straight season. He also recovered 2 onside kicks in '07, setting a team record for the most onside recoveries in a single season and tying a team record for the most in a career. Farwell has found his niche as a special teams standout since he came into the league as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2005, collecting 70 stops in only 39 games played.

Vikings P Chris Kluwe led opponents inside their own 20-yard line 34 times in 2007, which ranked 3rd in the NFL and set a Vikings' single-season record. In the season opener against Atlanta, Kluwe tied a team record as he pinned the Falcons inside the 20-yard line on each of his five punts. He also broke a single game team record at Detroit when he punted four times for 230 yards, a gross average of 57.5 yards per punt, and broke his previous single-season shared record with Mitch Berger of punts over 50 yards (22) as he finished the year with 29 kicks of 50+ yards.

In Murphy's NFL debut season, the 2006 Vikings special teams generated four takeaways, saw PR Mewelde Moore tie a franchise record with his second career punt return touchdown and had newly acquired Longwell make all 21 of his field goal attempts under 46 yards. The Vikings successfully executed a fake FG for a TD when Longwell hit TE Richard Owens with a 16-yard pass, becoming the first Vikings kicker to throw a touchdown pass in team history. Vikings 2nd-year P Chris Kluwe matched a team record by landing 28 punts inside the 20 for the season. Moore moved into the top spot in Vikings history for career punt return average at 10.5 yards and ranked 4th in the NFC for the 2006 season with a 10.1 average. Moore returned a punt for a TD for the second time in his career with a 71-yarder vs. New England (10/30/06) on Monday Night Football.

Murphy jumped to the NFL after serving as the special teams coordinator/outside linebackers coach for the University of Wisconsin from 2002-05. During the 2005 season, Murphy helped Wisconsin rank at or near the top of the Big Ten in several special teams categories, including punting and kicking. Sophomore P Kenneth DeBauche finished 1st in the Big Ten and 7th among Division I-A players with a 44.8 yards-per-punt average, which stands as a University of Wisconsin single-season record. DeBauche's performance earned him a spot on the 2005 1st-team All-Big Ten roster, the 2005 Sports Illustrated All-American 2nd team and the 2005 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American 2nd team. With DeBauche's leg and the punting unit's outstanding coverage, the Badgers ranked 1st in the conference and 12 in the nation with a 39.3 net punting average. The team also averaged 41.5 yards per kickoff, which was good enough for 4th place in the Big Ten, and K Taylor Mehlhaff finished 2nd in scoring among conference kickers, tallying 98 points on the season.

While his kicking and punting crews put up impressive statistics, Murphy's return units also led the Big Ten in punt and kickoff return categories, averaging 14.7 yards and 20.0 yards respectively during their 10-3 season in 2005. Returner Brandon Williams, who tied a Badgers' record with two punt returns for TDs, finished 2nd in the conference with a 14.6 yards-per-punt return average and ranked 2nd in kickoff returns, averaging 28.0 yards per attempt. As a result of his standout season, Williams was named to the 2005 Associated Press All-America 2nd team as an all-purpose player and the 2005 Rivals.com All-America 2nd team as a punt returner. He also earned honorable mention honors on the 2005 Sports Illustrated All-America team and the 2005 CollegeFootballNews.com All-America team. Williams currently ranks 2nd in school history for career kickoff return yards (2,349) and holds the University of Wisconsin team records for career punt return average and kickoff return average.

Murphy, now in his 17th year on the sideline, stepped into the coaching role for the first time in 1992 when he coached the defensive line at Benedictine University (IL). He then became an assistant recruiting coordinator and academic liaison for Wisconsin from 1993-94. As a graduate assistant, Murphy helped the Badgers' offensive and defensive lines from 1994-96 and the defensive backs at Baylor University in 1997. The following year he acted as the defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator for the University of San Diego. After one season he returned to his alma mater, Lehigh University to coach the defensive line and serve as the strength and conditioning coordinator, and before his final position with Wisconsin, Murphy was an administrative assistant for the Badgers from 2000-02.

Throughout his college coaching career, Murphy helped lead his squads to 8 bowl games ('94 Rose Bowl, '95 Hall of Fame Bowl, '96 Copper Bowl, '00 Sun Bowl, '02 Alamogordo Bowl, '03 Music City Bowl, '05 Outback Bowl, '06 Capital One Bowl), six of which his teams won. He coached six Big Ten Players of the Week and was a part of two Pontiac Game-Changing Plays of the Week and one Master Coaches Survey-Special Teams Play of the Year. Prior to DeBauche and Williams, Murphy coached special teams stars Jim Leonhard, who holds the Big Ten career record for punt return yardage with 1,347 yards and NFL long snapper Matt Katula.

Murphy graduated with a bachelor of arts in international relations in 1992 from Lehigh, where he also was a four-year letter-winner as a defensive lineman. He went on to earn his master's in education administration from the University of Wisconsin in 1997. Murphy and his wife, Maggie, have a son, Eamon, and a daughter, Flynn.

FRED PAGAC LINEBACKERS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 31ST SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON (8 COACHING/2 PLAYING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: OHIO STATE

The most experienced member of the Vikings defensive staff, Fred Pagac enters his 31st season with the team and his 31st season of coaching in 2008. In 2007 each of the Vikings' starting LBs posted career-best numbers under Pagac's tutelage.

The Vikings ranked as the #1 rush defense in the NFL for the 2nd straight season and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry. Minnesota allowed 74.1 yards per game on the ground and allowed only 1 opponent to break the 100-yard mark.

MLB E.J. Henderson led the team with a career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. He added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors. The linebacking corps entered 2007 with only SLB Ben Leber playing his same position from the previous year. Leber tied for the team lead with 5.0 sacks, matching his career-best mark set as a rookie with San Diego in 2002, and posted a career-high 88 tackles. WLB Chad Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury, came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, led the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and had a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in NFL total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defense became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings LBs played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks, 6 INTs and 2 TDs. Henderson led the team in tackles with 142 and posted career-highs with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs under Pagac's watch, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Leber made his impact on the team felt in his 1st season with the team with 3.0 sacks, an INT and scored a TD on a fumble recovery.

Pagac coached LBs for the Kansas City Chiefs for 2 seasons (2004-05) and with the Oakland Raiders for 3 seasons (2001-03) before coming to the Vikings. Prior to entering the professional ranks, Pagac spent 23 years on the coaching staff at Ohio State, where he aided in the development of several top players.

Under Pagac's direction in 2005, Chiefs 3rd-year LB Kawika Mitchell led the team with a career-high 135 tackles and 14 passes defended as he started all 16 games at MLB for the 1st time in his career. Pagac also tutored rookie LB Derrick Johnson, who finished 3rd on the team with 110 tackles and added 2.0 sacks and 9 passes defended on his way to being named the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, which is given to KC's top rookie. Johnson became the 1st rookie LB in Chiefs history to start all 16 games since LB Dino Hackett accomplished the feat in 1986. The Chiefs defense finished 7th in the NFL against the run in '05, and 6th in the NFL with 31 takeaways.

In 2004, 3rd-year LB Scott Fujita led the Chiefs for the 2nd consecutive season in tackles with 112. Kawika Mitchell bounced back from an early-season ankle injury to start 12 games and finished 2nd on the team with 85 tackles. The Chiefs defense finished 12th in the NFL against the run.

In 2002, Pagac helped the Raiders defense to a #11 overall NFL ranking and a #3 ranking against the run as Oakland won the AFC and faced Tampa Bay in Super Bowl XXXVII. Pagac tutored LB Napoleon Harris as he was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team and finished 3rd on the team in tackles. In 2001, MLB and former Viking Greg Biekert led the Raiders with 108 tackles and tied a career high with 3.0 sacks.

From 1978-2000, Pagac coached at his alma mater, Ohio State, and worked with 10 Buckeye defensive performers who earned All-America honors, including Vikings CB Antoine Winfield. Winfield was a 2-time All-America pick and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back in 1998. Pagac also tutored future Pro Bowl LBs Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson, as well as LB Mike Vrabel, CB Shawn Springs, LB Na'il Diggs, S Mike Doss, and CB Nate Clements. Andy Katzenmoyer won All-America accolades in 1997 and won the Butkus Award as the nation's top LB. During Pagac's 23 years on the Ohio State coaching staff, the Buckeyes played in 20 bowl games. As a player and coach, Pagac was part of 6 Rose Bowls with the Buckeyes.

Pagac was assistant head coach to John Cooper in 2000 in his final season at OSU. From 1996-99, Pagac served as defensive coordinator. In 1998, the Buckeyes led the nation in rushing defense, ranked 2nd in pass defense, and were 4th overall. Pagac was among 5 finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the NCAA's top assistant in '98.

In '97, Ohio State allowed 170 points to rank 2nd in the nation in scoring defense. That season the Buckeyes also ranked 2nd in the nation in pass defense. In 1996, Ohio State was 1st in the country in pass defense and ranked 2nd in scoring defense, allowing just 131 points, which was the fewest surrendered by Ohio State since 1979.

Prior to being named defensive coordinator in 1996, Pagac tutored Ohio State's LBs for 14 seasons (1982-95). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1978 before joining the staff on a full-time basis under Earle Bruce in 1982. Pagac coached on the Buckeyes staff with Vikings QB coach Kevin Rogers from 1977-78.

Pagac entered the NFL as a TE with Chicago in 1974 as a rookie free agent, where he was honored with the club's prestigious Brian Piccolo Award. Pagac also played 13 games for Tampa Bay in their 1976 inaugural season.

Pagac was a 3-year starter at TE for Ohio State from 1971-73. He was part of Buckeyes teams that compiled an impressive 25-6-2 record over his playing career, including a 19-3 mark in the Big Ten. During his senior season in '73, the Buckeyes posted a 10-0-1 record and finished 2nd in the final AP poll.

Pagac (4/26/52) was born in Richeyville, PA. He and his wife, Bernie, have a daughter, Jennifer, and a son, Fred, Jr., who played LB at Ohio State, with the Frankfurt Galaxy and currently works as a graduate assistant at Ohio State.

KEVIN ROGERS

QUARTERBACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 34TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: WILLIAM & MARY

Kevin Rogers returns for his third season with the Vikings coaching staff in 2008 and will be responsible for a quarterbacks unit that features a blend of youth and experience. The team enters the season with 3 QBs that have started in the NFL, including the much-improved 3rd-year QB Tarvaris Jackson, as well as 15-year veteran Gus Frerotte and 6-year vet Brooks Bollinger.

In 2007, Rogers watched Jackson, the former 2006 2nd-round draft choice, finish the season with 1,911 passing yards and nine touchdowns on 171-of-294 passing. He also rushed 54 times for 260 yards and 3 TDs. Jackson went 8-4 as a starter, including 7-3 in his final 10 starts with wins over the 2006 NFC Champion Chicago Bears (twice) as well as the Super Bowl XLII champion NY Giants and 2007 playoff-bound San Diego Chargers. After returning from a concussion that forced him to miss Week 10, Jackson completed 120-of-174 passes (69.0%) for 1,311 yards and 7 TDs in the final 7 games. He averaged 187.3 passing yards per game while rushing for two touchdowns and two 2-point conversions during that span. Jackson played his career-best game against Detroit, when he connected on 18-of-24 passes for 204 yards and two TDs. It was the 1st time he had thrown 2 TDs in a game, and his 110.4 QB rating was a career high.

The year prior, Rogers prepared Jackson as the rookie took over the starting duties for the final 2 games of the season. Jackson's athleticism produced a 5.1 yards-per-carry average and a rushing TD along with 3 passes of 30+ yards in his 47 completions, including a 50-yarder.

For Rogers, the 2008 season will mark his 34th year in the coaching profession, 28 of which have been at the collegiate level. He has coached an impressive list of players such as Donovan McNabb, Marvin Harrison and Napoleon McCallum, and has been fortunate to coach alongside some of the legends of the game, sharing the sideline with the likes of Woody Hayes, Paul Pasqualoni and Frank Beamer.

Before joining Minnesota, Rogers spent the 2002-05 seasons at Virginia Tech, where he guided back-to-back Hokies QBs to impressive performances. Rogers helped QB Bryan Randall etch his name throughout the school record book as he became the all-time leader in passing yards, touchdowns and total offense. Randall ended his career in 2004 with Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year honors. In 2005, Rogers guided QB Marcus Vick in his debut as a starter on to 1st-Team All-ACC honors. Vick led the ACC in pass efficiency, while the Hokies led the conference in scoring offense at 33.8 points per game, including a league-high 51 TDs. During Rogers' tenure, the Hokies amassed a 39-14 record, won the ACC title in 2004 and played in the first ACC Championship Game in 2005 after winning the ACC Coastal Division. The team also advanced to bowl games in each of his four seasons.

Prior to his successful stint at Virginia Tech, Rogers spent the 1999-2001 seasons at Notre Dame as the offensive coordinator/QBs coach on Bob Davie's staff. He played a part in the 2000 Irish squad that finished 9-3 and was invited to the Fiesta Bowl in the school's debut in a Bowl Championship Series game. Rogers worked with QB Jarious Jackson in his final season and helped the senior signal-caller leave with the single-season passing yardage record in 1999 and set school marks for attempts and completions. Jackson ended his career as the 4th-ranked quarterback in school history and was selected in the 7th round of the 2000 NFL Draft, the first Irish QB drafted since Rick Mirer in 1993.

Rogers' longest tenure came with Syracuse University, where he coached from 1991-1998 and helped the Orange to a combined 68-26-1 record and six bowl appearances. He joined the team as quarterbacks coach on Pasqualoni's staff, was named assistant head coach in 1995, serving as the recruiting coordinator from 1995-97 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997. During Rogers' time with Syracuse, the team tied for the 1996 Big East title and won the crown outright in 1997 and '98, becoming the first team in conference history to win three straight championships. It was also during that time that Rogers first became acquainted with Vikings' head coach Brad Childress, as the Philadelphia Eagles began evaluating Rogers' star pupil, Donovan McNabb, before the 1999 NFL Draft. McNabb excelled under Rogers' tutelage, leaving Syracuse with the majority of the school's passing records and earning three straight Big East Offensive Player of the Year awards from 1996-98 before being drafted #2 overall by the Eagles. Individually, McNabb was one of the most decorated players in team history, but other Orange players benefited from Rogers' teaching as well. From 1992-98, Syracuse quarterbacks were prominent in league play as McNabb was a 1st-Team All-Big East choice in each of his four seasons (1995-98). Kevin Mason earned 1st-Team acclaim in 1994 and Marvin Graves was a 2nd-Team choice in 1992 when he ranked 2nd in the nation in passing. Graves held the school records that McNabb would soon break as both still stand among the top quarterbacks in school history. Rogers also helped groom future NFL stars Marvin Harrison, Qadry Ismail and Rob Konrad.

Rogers' spent 1983-90 on the staff at Navy, where he spent seven seasons working with the offense and future NFL standout Napoleon McCallum. From 1980-82, he coached RBs at his alma mater, William & Mary. Rogers got his start in coaching at Virginia Beach's Bayside High (1974-76) before serving as a graduate assistant at Ohio State under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1977-78, where he also coached with Vikings LB coach Fred Pagac.

A 1974 graduate from the College of William & Mary, where he also played LB, Rogers went on to receive his master's degree from Ohio State in 1978. Rogers and his wife, Betty, have three children – Kevin, Megan and Ryan. Kevin is a former Villanova QB and works as a pro scout for the Super Bowl XLI Champion Indianapolis Colts. Ryan earned his degree from Notre Dame and is in grad school at Syracuse's Newhouse School of Communications. Megan is a former Notre Dame soccer player and currently the Coordinator of Labor Operations at the NFL office.

GEORGE STEWART

WIDE RECEIVERS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 26TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 21ST SEASON (1 PLAYING/20 COACHING)

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

ALMA MATER: ARKANSAS

For Vikings wide receivers coach George Stewart, the 2008 season marks his second campaign with Minnesota and his 20th year on an NFL sideline. Having previously coached in Pittsburgh, Tampa Bay, San Francisco and Atlanta, Stewart has a proven track record of working with top-notch collegiate and NFL talent. This season he has the opportunity to teach another big-time playmaker, WR Bernard Berrian, whom the Vikings signed during the 2008 offseason. A five-year NFL veteran who spent his first four seasons with the NFC North rival Chicago Bears, Berrian brings to Minnesota a 14.6 yards-per-catch career average and a much-needed ability to stretch the field. He joins fellow veterans and locker room leaders Bobby Wade and Robert Ferguson, giving Stewart a receiving corps that blends experience with emerging 2nd-year players Sidney Rice and Aundrae Allison.

In his 2007 Vikings debut, Stewart had the challenge of coaching a unit that included 4 fresh faces in Allison, Ferguson, Rice and Wade. Nonetheless, each of the new players found success under Stewart's tutelage. While Wade set career-highs with 54 receptions and 647 receiving yards, Ferguson finished with his 2nd-best season, pulling in 32 catches for 391 yards, and Rice led the team with 4 receiving TDs. Rice, who ranked 3rd on the team with 31 catches for 396 yards, was 2nd among NFL rookies with 4 TDs.

Throughout Stewart's coaching career, he has been fortunate to learn from some of the game's all-time greats, beginning both his playing and early coaching careers under college legend Lou Holtz. Stewart went on to work in the NFL side-by-side with Chuck Noll, Sam Wyche, George Seifert and Dan Reeves, all men who led teams to the NFL pinnacle and a berth in the Super Bowl. Over the years, Stewart has also been a part of several successful programs, highlighted by six playoff appearances in the past 12 seasons and a pair of NFC Championship games with San Francisco in 1997 and Atlanta in 2004. Recently, Stewart helped win two NFC Division titles in the past six seasons – 2002 with San Francisco and 2004 with Atlanta.

During Stewart's tenure in Atlanta, the team won the NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia. Stewart's wide receivers with the Falcons included Jenkins, Lelie and Roddy White. Jenkins started every game, ranked 2nd in catches and turned in a career-best 7-touchdown season in 2006 on 39 receptions, becoming one of only two wide receivers in the NFL in 2006 that had 7+ touchdowns on under 40 receptions.

Prior to joining Atlanta, Stewart was an integral part of the San Francisco 49ers' success from 1996-2002, as the team advanced to the playoffs five times in those seven seasons. In 1997, the 49ers won the NFC West with a 13-3 mark and eventually lost to Green Bay in the NFC Championship game. During that time, Stewart tutored the 49ers wide receiving corps and helped elevate each of Terrell Owens, J.J. Stokes and Tai Streets performances, with Owens making Pro Bowl appearances in three straight seasons from 2000-02 as well as earning consensus All-Pro honors in each of those years. In the three seasons Stewart worked with Owens, the wide receiver had 17 games over the 100-yard receiving mark and five games with 150+ yards. Before working with Stewart, Owens' career-highs for season receptions was 67, a mark he shattered with 97, 93 and 100 respectively in 2000, '01 and '02. Owens set his career-high in receiving yards with 1,451 in 2000 and touchdowns with 16 in 2001. He broke a 50-year-old NFL record when he caught 20 passes for 283 yards against the Bears in 2000 en route to his career-best day. The 49ers wide receivers also helped the development of QB Jeff Garcia during that time span as well, as he also earned three Pro Bowl berths.

Stewart's first taste of NFL coaching came with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91, as he served as the special teams coach on Chuck Noll's staff. In his debut season in 1989, Stewart helped Rod Woodson earn a Pro Bowl berth as a kickoff return man. Following his three seasons with Pittsburgh, Stewart went on to spend four years working with the special teams unit in Tampa Bay, where he helped K Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in 1993.

Before making the move to the NFL, Stewart spent several years in the college ranks, making his final stop as the Notre Dame linebackers coach from 1986-88. Under Holtz's tutelage, the Irish steadily improved from the coach's opening season in '86 to become national champions in 1988, a year in which the team finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. The stingy Irish defense allowed opponents to score over 20 points only twice during the season. Stewart's unit, which included Arnold Ale and Andre Jones highlighted by consensus All-America choice Frank Stams played a prominent role in the defensive success.

Stewart and Holtz first worked together in 1983, when Stewart got his start in coaching as an Arkansas graduate assistant, working with the Razorbacks' tight ends. When Holtz moved from Arkansas to Minnesota as the Golden Gophers head coach in 1984, Stewart accompanied him as the offensive line coach, his first exposure to the state where he would return in 2007. In two short seasons, Holtz and his staff quickly turned the Gophers program around, finishing 7-5 in 1985 and winning the Independence Bowl over Clemson, the first bowl victory for the Gophers since the 1962 Rose Bowl.

Stewart was a standout player as an offensive guard for the Razorbacks from 1977-80 and helped the squad share the 1979 Southwest Conference title. The team played in four straight bowl games during Stewart's playing tenure as Arkansas returned to national prominence under Holtz. Stewart was an All-SWC honoree as a junior in 1979, served as a team captain in 1980 and earned a spot on the Arkansas Team of the Decade for the 1970s. He signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981 but spent the season on injured reserve.

Stewart has a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas and is a native of Little Rock, AR, where he graduated from Parkview High School in 1977.

JOE WOODS

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 17TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: ILLINOIS STATE

Joe Woods enters his 3rd season coaching the Vikings DBs in 2008 and brings a backfield deep on experience and talent to the field.

Along with returning starters Darren Sharper, Antoine Winfield and Cedric Griffin, the squad added veteran S Madiou Williams to the mix. The Vikings have become crafty at scoring on defense since Woods' arrival in 2006. The Vikings lead the NFL with 13 defensive TDs in the past 2 seasons (2006-07). In 2007, all 4 regular starters in the Vikings secondary scored TDs, 3 by INT return and once on a fumble recovery.

In 2007, Woods led a defensive backfield that included featured Sharper earning his 4th career Pro Bowl trip. The Vikings adjusted due to injury and pressed rookie Marcus McCauley into duty as a nickel back and 9-game starter. The rock of the unit, Winfield, built on his reputation as the best tackling CB in the NFL and scored on an INT-return in the season opener vs. Atlanta. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Dwight Smith that ranks as the 4th-longest INT return in Vikings' history. The Vikings defense finished the year with 15 INTs and now has 36 picks since the 2006 season opener, a total that ranks tied for 6th in the NFL during that span.

The Vikings ended the 2006 season ranked #8 in the NFL in total defense and finished #1 against the run for the 3rd time in team history. The Vikings DBs had 3 players tie for the team lead with 4 interceptions each- Dwight Smith, Darren Sharper and Winfield. The trio also ranked 2nd, 4th and 5th on the team in tackles respectively.

The 2006 Vikings DBs scored on a pair of interception returns and didn't skip a beat when roster moves shuffled the lineup. Woods helped develop a trio of rookies- CB Cedric Griffin, S Greg Blue and CB Charles Gordon- who started a combined 10 games. Griffin earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Detroit (12/10/06), becoming the 5th Vikings CB to earn the award and only the 2nd since 1992.

In Tampa, Woods coached with 2006 Vikings defensive coordinator and current Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin as well as former Vikings' coach Monte Kiffin, the Buccaneers' defensive coordinator, as Tampa fielded top 5 defenses in each of Woods' 2 seasons.

In 2005, Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense, allowing 277.8 yards per game while CB Ronde Barber and LB Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl berths for the 2nd consecutive season. Barber set a Tampa Bay single-season record for most tackles by a CB with 120 and he led the team with 7 interceptions, which was tied for 7th in the NFC. Brooks finished 2nd on the team with 174 tackles and added 3.0 sacks. DE Simeon Rice finished 3rd in the NFL with 14.0 sacks.

In 2004, Woods was part of a defensive staff that helped the Buccaneers finish 5th in the NFL in total defense (284.5 ypg) and 1st in pass defense (123.3 ypg). Barber and Brooks each earned Pro Bowl berths. Rice's 12.0 sacks led the team and tied him for 5th in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Woods was the defensive backs coach at Western Michigan for three seasons (2001-03). In 2002, the Broncos' secondary posted 14 interceptions and helped lead a defense that ranked 2nd in the MAC in pass defense (179.5 ypg). Woods' unit helped Western Michigan lead the MAC in pass defense and finish 17th in the country in 2001. Under Woods' tutelage, CB Ronald Rogers earned 1st-team All-MAC honors in 2001.

Before coaching at Western Michigan, Woods spent 3 seasons on the staff at Hofstra University. During his time with the Pride, the team made a pair of trips to the NCAA Division 1-AA playoffs and advanced to the quarterfinals in consecutive seasons (1999-2000).

Woods spent a season at Kent State University (1997) as defensive backs coach prior to joining the staff at Hofstra. He also coached the secondary at Grand Valley State (1994-97), ILBs at Northwestern State University in the spring of 1994, and was a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (1993-94). Woods entered coaching in 1992 as the secondary coach at Muskingum College.

Woods was a four-year letterman at safety and a captain during his senior year at Illinois State University. He earned 1st-team All-Gateway Conference honors in 1991. Woods earned a degree in criminal justice from ISU in 1992.

Woods (6/25/70) was born in North Vandergrift, PA. He and his wife, Ellen, have daughters, Brianna and Danari.

After helping the Vikings defense record the NFL's best rush defense for a 2nd consecutive season, Brendan Daly returns in 2008 for his 3rd NFL season.

In 2007, the Vikings defense finished the season 1st in the NFL in rushing yards allowed, giving up an average of 74.1 rushing yards per game. For the 2nd consecutive season, the DT duo of Kevin Williams and Pat Williams earned Pro Bowl recognition. In addition to its dominance against the run, the Vikings defensive line put up points against the opponents' passing games as Kevin Williams tied a Vikings franchise record with his 4th defensive return for a TD, after returning 2 interceptions for scores in 2007.

The 2006 Vikings ranked #1 in the NFL in rushing defense, set a team record and ranked 2nd in the NFL since the 1970 merger by allowing 985 yards, an average of 61.6 yards per game. The Vikings' tough interior was anchored by Pro Bowl DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams. The DT tandem earned Pro Bowl honors, marking the 1st time since 1970 (DTs Gary Larsen and Alan Page) that the team sent a pair of DTs to the all-star game. The Vikings 2006 front set the table for the team to rank #8 in the NFL in total defense, the 1st time in the top 10 since 1994.

In his most recent role Daly worked with the Villanova defensive linemen in 2005, his 2nd stint at the school. The Wildcats defense was helped in a big way by DE Darrell Adams, a 1st-team All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice who notched 11.5 tackles for loss. He ended his Villanova career with 13 sacks and 40 tackles for loss. Daly made his 2nd coaching appearance on Andy Talley's staff at Villanova in 2005 having spent the 1999 season working with the TEs. The '99 Wildcats went 7-4 and Talley posted his 100th victory at the school.

Daly coached TEs at Division I-AA Illinois State in 2004 when the Redbirds led the Gateway Conference in passing offense. The team posted 480 yards in a non-conference matchup at Minnesota that season.

His longest tenure came during a 3-season stint from 2001-03 at Oklahoma State where he worked on both sides of the ball and in strength and conditioning with the Cowboys program. During his tenure the team progressed from the 4-7 mark posted in 2001 to bowl berths in 2002 and 2003. The team won the Houston Bowl over Southern Miss in '02 and advanced to the Cotton Bowl after a 9-4 season in '03. In 2002 Daly worked with the OSU defensive line that featured future Vikings All-Pro Kevin Williams in his senior year. In his final season with the Cowboys, Daly worked with the team in a strength and conditioning role. During Daly's time in Stillwater the coaching staff featured Dunbar on the defensive line.

Daly's 1st exposure to major Division I football came as an offensive graduate assistant at Maryland in 2000 where he worked with the TEs, including future Viking Jeff Dugan. The Terps went 5-6 in Ron Vanderlinden's final season. Before coaching at Villanova in 1999 Daly got his 1st taste of collegiate coaching at his alma mater in 1998 at Drake. His 1st position after graduating from Drake was in 1997 coaching and teaching at Ridgewood High in New Port Richey, FL.

Daly (9/10/75), earned his bachelor's degree in history from Drake and came to Des Moines from Springfield, IL where he attended Sacred Heart-Griffin High. Daly and his wife, Keely, reside in Minneapolis with their son, Liam.

CHAD O'SHEA OFFENSIVE ASST./WIDE RECEIVERS

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 13TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 6TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: HOUSTON

Chad O'Shea returns to the Vikings for the 2008 season, his 3rd season with the club. O'Shea will continue to assist offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell and work with Vikings WRs coach George Stewart.

The 2007 Vikings offense emerged as the NFL's top rushing offense, going for 164.6 yards rushing per game. The Vikings offense tied the high-powered 1998 Vikings with 19 50+ yard plays in 2007, 6 of which were passes including a 69 yard pass from rookie WR Sidney Rice to TE Visanthe Shiancoe. Rice finished a solid rookie season with 31 catches for 396 yards and a team-high 4 TDs in just 13 games.

O'Shea began his NFL coaching career in Kansas City in 2003 for Head Coach Dick Vermeil and worked with Chiefs special teams coordinator Frank Ganz, Jr. The two originally met in 1994 when Ganz was the TE/special teams coach at the University of Houston and O'Shea had just transferred from Marshall University to play QB for his final 2 seasons and served as a team captain as a senior. O'Shea had been a member of a Marshall squad that won the 1992 Division I-AA title.

While working with Ganz in Kansas City, O'Shea helped the Chiefs put up impressive numbers on special teams for 3 consecutive seasons. In 2003, the team registered an NFL-high 4 TDs on special teams and became the 1st to lead the league in both punt return and kickoff return averages since Washington in 1995. The following season, the Chiefs continued their excellent special teams play, setting single-season team records with 75 kickoff returns and 1,820 kickoff return yards. Dante Hall returned 2 kickoffs for TDs, his 3rd straight season with multiple returns for scores. The 2-time Pro Bowler had more returns for TDs (10) from 2002-05 than any other NFL player. O'Shea also worked with a pair of other Kansas City Pro Bowlers - LB Gary Stills and TE Kendall Gammon. Along with his special teams duties in Kansas City, O'Shea assisted with the LBs where he worked closely with current Vikings LB coach Fred Pagac.

O'Shea's father, Mike, served as a longtime athletic trainer in the collegiate and NFL ranks, including a stint with the Baltimore Colts.

O'Shea enters his 12th year of coaching after beginning with Houston in 1996. He became the WRs coach in '97, took over as TE/special teams coach in 1998, and added the title of recruiting coordinator in '99. In 2000, O'Shea began a 3-year stint as Southern Mississippi's special teams coach and recruiting coordinator. During his time with the Eagles, his units blocked 21 kicks.

O'Shea received his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1995 from the University of Houston. He and his wife, Melissa, have 2 daughters, Claire and Grace and a son, Mick.

NFL EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: TEXAS CHRISTIAN

Jeff Imamura returns to the Vikings in 2008 for his 3rd season in the Quality Control-Defense role. His primary duties include working directly with Defensive Coordinator Leslie Frazier on day-to-day defensive operations and activities, assisting Fred Pagac in coaching the LBs and generating comprehensive scouting reports on opponents.

For the 2nd consecutive season in 2007, the Vikings defense finished #1 in the league against the run, allowing just 74.1 yards per game on the ground. The Vikings LBs thrived in this run-stuffing defense as E.J. Henderson led the team with 155 total tackles and 4.5 sacks, while Chad Greenway and Ben Leber finished directly behind Henderson in total tackles with 130 and 88, respectively. Overall, the Vikings linebackers finished with 373 tackles, 9.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 6 FFs and 7 FRs.

In the previous season, the 2006 Vikings finished #8 in total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defenders became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings linebackers played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks and 6 INTs. E.J. Henderson led the team in tackles for the second time in three years and posted career-highs with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Free agent Ben Leber made his impact felt in his first season with the team as he notched 3.0 sacks, an INT and scored on a fumble recovery.

Before joining the Vikings, Imamura coached OLBs at Saginaw Valley (MI) State University in 2003. He helped build the Cardinals' defense into a national leader as the unit ranked 7th in the country in scoring, 12th in turnover margin and 22nd in the country in passing. The Cardinals' OLBs accounted for over 60 percent of the team's sacks on the season. SVSU won the Great Lakes Conference regular season title with an 11-0 record, finished the regular season ranked #1 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals for only the 2nd time in the school's history.

Imamura spent the previous three seasons (2000-02) at Northern Arizona University as the defensive line coach. In 2002, the Lumberjacks ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense and 2nd in the conference with 39.0 sacks. NAU advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 for only the 2nd time in school history.

A 1997 graduate of Texas Christian University, Imamura got his start in the coaching profession at TCU as a defensive assistant from 1997-99, where he assisted the Horned Frogs' DBs coach and defensive coordinator. TCU beat USC in the 1998 Sun Bowl to earn the school's first bowl victory since the 1957 Cotton Bowl, and in 1999 earned a share of the WAC title and another bowl bid.

Imamura earned his degree in finance at TCU. He is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 2ND SEASON

ALMA MATER: ARIZONA STATE

Ryan Ficken enters his 2nd season with the Vikings in the Quality Control-Offense position. He will be assisting offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell with the day-to-day offensive operations and activities in addition to assisting running backs coach Eric Bieriemy.

In his 1st season in 2007, the Vikings offense finished ranked #1 in rush offense, averaging 164.6 rush yards per game. Rookie RB Adrian Peterson had a sensational season, including breaking the NFL's single game rushing record after going for 296 yards against the San Diego Chargers on 11/4/07. Peterson finished with 1341 yards rushing and 12 TDs and was named to the Pro Bowl, where he received MVP honors after rushing for 129 yards and 2 TDs. The other half of the Vikings record-setting rushing tandem, RB Chester Taylor, rushed for 844 yards and 7 TDs, including 164 yards and 3 TDs against the Oakland Raiders on 11/18/07.

Ficken served as an offensive graduate assistant with UCLA in 2006, assisting the offensive coordinator staff with the day-to-day activities involving practice and game week preparation. He worked extensively with Jim Colletto and the offensive line, developing an NFL mentality for the running game and line play. Ficken broke down opponents' game film, gave weekly opponent reports to the offensive staff and served as the defensive scout team coach.

Prior to his work with the offense, Ficken was a graduate assistant in the football operations department where he acted as the NFL scout liaison and tracked opponents' personnel packages during games. He was as an assistant to the recruiting coordinator, playing a big part in the 2006 recruiting class that ranked in the top 10 nationally. From 2004-2005, Ficken was a volunteer coach at UCLA, focusing primarily on the defense and the secondary.

Ficken earned his BA in business administration with a concentration in finance from Arizona State. He was a member of the Sun Devils football team for 2 seasons and received the Maroon and Gold Scholar-Athlete Award. He also was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken is currently finishing graduate school to obtain a masters in comparative education at UCLA. He is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

RYAN SILVERFIELD OFFENSIVE/DEFENSIVE ASST.

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 10TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

ALMA MATER: HAMPDEN-SYDNEY

Ryan Silverfield enters his 1st season with Minnesota and his first year on an NFL sideline after spending the past several coaching at the collegiate level. Silverfield will be responsible for assisting coaches on both sides of the ball, working primarily with QBs.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Silverfield spent 2 seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Central Florida, working with both the offense and defense. In 2007, his second year with UCF, Silverfield helped prepare the Knights defense each week by running the offensive scout team during practices. His guidance helped the unit rank 3rd nationally with 24 interceptions in 2007. The Knights closed the regular season with a seven-game winning streak en route to winning the first conference championship in school history. The year prior Silverfield worked with the Knights offense.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. Before working on the Dolphins staff and at the age of 23, he was the head coach at Memorial Day High School in Savannah, GA. That opportunity followed his four seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater - Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia - where he began as an offensive assistant in 2000. At the age of 20, he became the defensive line coach, making him one of the younger position coaches in all of college football. He held that position for two seasons before moving to tight ends and H-backs in 2003, a season in which the Tigers went 9-1 and had the #1-ranked scoring offense in the country, averaging over 47.0 points.

Silverfield's coaching career began as an assistant at The Bolles School in Jacksonville in 1999, following a four-year playing career with the Bulldogs. During his playing days, Silverfield helped Bolles win two state championships and earn the title of the #1-ranked high school team in the country by USA Today. As a senior, Silverfield was a first-team All-First Coast selection after leading his team to the Florida Class 3A state title.

Silverfield graduated Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney.

Entering his 3rd season on the Vikings staff is Kevin Stefanski, who will work as Assistant to Head Coach Brad Childress and assists the Vikings staff in several areas.

Stefanski first became acquainted with head coach Brad Childress during Philadelphia Eagles training camp in 2005 while working in the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, as Assistant Director of Football Operations. He coordinated all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations of the football team and was responsible for team practices, travel and assisting in the recruiting process.

Before stepping off the field and into the administration of the team, Stefanski was a standout defensive back at Penn. A team captain as a senior in 2004, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won Ivy League titles in 2000, 2002 and 2003 and the squad went undefeated in league play during 2002 and 2003.

Twice honored as an Honorable Mention All-Ivy choice in 2002 and 2004, Stefanski ranked 3rd on the team in tackles as a senior. A ball-hawking defender, Stefanski recorded 9 career takeaways with 7 interceptions and a pair of fumble recoveries. He was named Penn's Defensive Rookie of the Year as a freshman in 2000 when he had a career-high 4 interceptions. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy play. As a senior, the team went 10-0 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade.

Stefanski (5/8/82) holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia. The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a 4-year letterman in basketball at Penn and is the General Manager of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, reside in Minneapolis.

TOM KANAVY STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 16TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 14TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: PENN STATE

Vikings Strength and Conditioning Coach Tom Kanavy enters his 3rd season with the Vikings and his 14th in the NFL in 2008.

Among Brad Childress' first priorities as Head Coach was to allow Kanavy to transform the Vikings strength and conditioning facilities. The willingness of ownership to provide the tools to succeed allowed for the addition of the best in strength and conditioning equipment and a staff with valuable NFL experience.

The off-season strength and conditioning program was once again well-attended by players as they embraced a program that utilizes a combination of free weights and machines, and emphasizes speed, agility, flexibility and thorough overall physical conditioning.

Kanavy oversees the planning and implementation of all aspects of the Vikings' program, which is tailored to each player. He has also enlisted the services of Carrie Peterson, a registered dietician on the University of Minnesota faculty, in order to optimize team nutrition.

Kanavy came to Minnesota from the Philadelphia Eagles where he helped in the dramatic turnaround of the franchise and performance on the field. Kanavy served as assistant strength and conditioning coach in Philadelphia where he worked under Mike Wolf, who had served as an assistant with the Vikings from 1992-94.

Kanavy received a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Penn State in 1993 and earned his master's in sport management from Temple in 1996.

Kanavy began his professional career working as a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Miami with the football program. He returned to his alma mater, Penn State, from 1993-95 working as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Nittany Lions football program. In 1994, in only their 2nd season as members of the Big Ten Conference, the squad notched a 12-0 season to win the Big Ten title and brought a Rose Bowl championship to Happy Valley after a 38-20 win over Oregon.

From Penn State, Kanavy was tabbed by Wolf to assist him with the Eagles in head coach Ray Rhodes' debut in 1995. The new staff notched a 10-6 regular season, qualified for the playoffs in the first season and went 1-1 in post-season play. In 1999 the Eagles hired Andy Reid as head coach and the fortunes of the team improved quickly. From 2000-05 the team won 4 NFC East titles, qualified for the playoffs in 5 of 6 seasons and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. Kanavy worked with Childress in Philadelphia from 1999-2005.

A native of Archibald, PA (4/8/70), Kanavy and wife, Kim, reside in suburban Minneapolis with their daughters, Caroline and Kristen.

JUNEY BARNETT ASST. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 8TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 5TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: BLOOMSBURG

June Barnett enters his third season with the Vikings and assists Tom Kanavy with the implementation of the Vikings strength and conditioning program.

Barnett joined the Vikings in 2006 after spending the 2005 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army. In the spring of '05, he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, a position he held for two seasons (2004-05).

Prior to his stint in NFL Europe, Barnett worked for the Baltimore Ravens from 2003-04 as a part-time assistant. During that time he was tutored by the Ravens' Paul Ricci and Jeff Friday, who coached on the Vikings' staff from 1996-98. In the summer of 2002, Barnett interned at Drexel University in strength and conditioning.

Barnett got his first taste of coaching at his alma mater, Bloomsburg University (PA), as a volunteer DBs coach in 2001. The Huskies went 6-0 in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference on their way to a league title.

As a collegiate athlete, Barnett played four years as a DB at Bloomsburg (1997-00) and was part of a PSAC Championship team and Division II national runner-up in 2000. He graduated from Bloomsburg with a degree in exercise science and went on to receive his master's in exercise physiology from the university.

Barnett, who was born in Philadelphia, PA (1/11/79), attended Balboa High School in Panama. His family currently resides in Italy, where his father is stationed as a senior master sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

MARTIN STREIGHT

ASST. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 15TH SEASON

NFL EXPERIENCE: 11TH SEASON

VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 3RD SEASON

ALMA MATER: INDIANA (PA)

The 2008 season marks Martin Streight's 3rd with the Vikings and 11th in the NFL as he continues to assist in the development of the Vikings strength and conditioning program. Streight joined Vikings strength and conditioning coach Tom Kanavy in 2006 when the new staff revamped the Vikings facilities and program.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Streight was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Berlin Thunder in NFL Europe from 2004-05. During that time, the Thunder accumulated a 16-4 combined regular season record and made consecutive World Bowl appearances. In 2005, Berlin posted a 7-3 record and played in World Bowl XIII. The previous year, the Thunder finished 9-1 and were World Bowl XII champions. In 2003, Streight held the same position with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

From 1997-2002, Streight served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Arizona Cardinals. The 1998 season saw the Cardinals make their first post-season appearance since the strike-shortened season in 1982, playing at the Metrodome against the Vikings in an NFC Divisional Playoff game.

Streight's NFL coaching career began in 1995-96, when he was a part-time strength and conditioning coach with Kanavy and the Philadelphia Eagles. During that time, Streight was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach and health fitness instructor at Princeton University.

Streight and Kanavy first worked together at Penn State in 1994, when Streight served as a strength and conditioning intern for the Nittany Lions. That year, Penn State finished as Big Ten champions in only the team's second year of league play and became the first team in Big Ten history to post a 12-0 record.

As an undergrad, Streight attended Indiana University (PA), earning his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport science. He also competed in track and field at Indiana, throwing the discus and shot put.

Streight was born in Trenton, NJ (6/20/69) and attended McCorristin Catholic High School in Trenton.

Indy and Minny Connections Run Deep

The Vikings will host the Indianapolis Colts in the 2008 home opener on 9/14/08. The game will mark the 1st time the Colts have visited Minnesota since the 1997 season finale, a 39-28 Vikings win. The Colts have only been to the Metrodome 3 previous times and the Vikings are 3-0 in those visits during the 1982, 1988 and 1997 seasons. There is not a Vikings player on the roster that was on the squad for the 1997 season finale at the Metrodome.

The connections between the franchises stretch back to the earliest days of the clubs. The 1961 expansion Vikings played Weeb Ewbank's Baltimore Colts twice, falling 34-33 in Baltimore on 10/1/61 but the upstart Vikings claimed a 28-20 win at Met Stadium on 11/12/61.

The Colts hold a 14-7-1 all-time series advantage between the teams and the Vikings have never beat the Colts on the road- going 0-10. The Vikings and Baltimore Colts squared off twice a year as members of the NFL Western Conference for the opening 6 seasons of Vikings history- 1961-66 with Baltimore holding a 10-2 advantage in those early years. In 1967 the Vikings and Colts tied 20-20 at Met Stadium during Bud Grant's 1st season as Vikings coach. A year later, in 1968, the Vikings traveled to Baltimore for the 1st playoff game in team history in the NFL Western Conference Championship Game, a 24-14 Colts win en route to their meeting with the NY Jets in Super Bowl III. After the loss in the playoffs the Vikings won 5 straight in the series.

The Vikings have strong coaching connections to the Colts. Head Coach Brad Childress had his NFL coaching debut with the Colts in 1985 as a member of Rod Dowhower's staff. Colts Head Coach Tony Dungy served as the Vikings defensive coordinator from 1992-95, his final stop before becoming a Head Coach in 1996 with Tampa Bay. Childress hired Vikings defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier from the Colts days after they won Super Bowl XLI over Chicago, putting Frazier in elite company as a Super Bowl winner as a player in Super Bowl XX with Chicago and as a coach. Frazier and Childress had worked together with the Eagles and remained close. Frazier now occupies the office Dungy did as a Vikings coordinator. In 2007, Frazier's defense tied a Vikings record originally set by the 1992 Dungy-led Vikings defense with 6 TDs off interception returns.

Childress matched wits with Dungy's Tampa Bay defenses frequently when he was offensive coordinator of the Eagles, meeting the Bucs in the playoffs 3 straight seasons from 2000-02. Childress and Colts defensive line guru John Teerlinck served on the University of Illinois staff together in the early 1980s. Colts offensive coordinator Tom Moore is a native of Owatonna, MN, went to high school in Rochester, MN, and coached at the U of M and with the Vikings from 1989-93. Moore entered the coaching profession in the early 1960s at his alma mater, Iowa, under Head Coach Jerry Burns, who later coached on the Vikings staff from 1968-85 as an assistant and from 1986-91 as the Head Coach. Dungy has deeper ties to the state of Minnesota, having played QB for the Golden Gophers from 1973-76 and played his freshman year on the basketball team. Dungy left the U as the career-leader in passing for the Gophers. Vikings QB coach Kevin Rogers' son, Kevin, is a pro scout on the Indianapolis staff. Colts DBs coach Alan Williams is a William & Mary alum and was on the Tribe staff during Vikings Pro Bowler Darren Sharper's collegiate career.

ERIC SUGARMAN

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Eric Sugarman has a decade of NFL experience under his belt and returns in 2008 for his 3rd season leading the athletic training efforts for the Vikings under Head Coach Brad Childress. The pair worked together for 6 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2000-05).

With the Vikings, Sugarman supervises the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained. He and his staff implement and maintain proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs.

The Vikings athletic training staff, including assistants Tom Hunkele and Rob Roche, have broad-based experience in athletic training and have trained under some of the most respected professionals in their field. The staff prides themselves on being proactive while using the most current concepts, modalities and principles. The entire athletic training staff are Performance Enhancement Specialists through the National Academy of Sports Medicine. Sugarman has worked closely the past several years with the Nike SST (Sensory Sport Training) team and has brought many of their vision concepts into the Vikings athletic training room.

Sugarman enters his 12th full-time season in the NFL in 2008 after spending the 1997-99 seasons with the Chicago Bears and the 2000-05 campaigns with Philadelphia. Sugarman got his first taste of the NFL as a summer intern for the Bears' athletic training staff from 1993-95.

Sugarman earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Chester University and went on to earn his master's degree in sports management at the University of Richmond. During his tenure at Richmond, Sugarman served as the graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Spiders football team and head athletic trainer for the Spiders' baseball squad. In 1994-95 Sugarman served as assistant athletic trainer at West Chester and worked as an instructor at the school. During the summers of 1993-95 he worked as a training camp athletic training intern for the Chicago Bears. In 1996 Sugarman served as an athletic trainer in the Chicago Cubs organization focusing on the rehabilitation of minor league and major league players.

Sugarman joined the Bears as an assistant trainer from 1997-99 before moving to the Eagles in a similar role in 2000 where he worked on Rick Burkholder's staff. The Eagles were noted for progressive rehab programs. That athletic training staff played an integral part in helping Terrell Owens' return from ankle surgery during the regular season in time for Super Bowl XXXIX.

An active member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society, Sugarman is also an American Heart Association Basic Life Support, AED and First Aid certified instructor. In 2003 he received the PFATS' "Big Heart" award for saving the life of a fellow Eagles employee by performing CPR.

Sugarman and wife, Heather, reside in Victoria, MN, with their sons Jacob and Benjamin.

TOM HUNKELE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Hunkele enters his 3rd season as an assistant on the Vikings' athletic training staff in 2008. Hunkele and Eric Sugarman worked together for 6 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. Hunkele assists in the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained and help implement proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs for the athletes.

During Hunkele's tenure with the Eagles from 2000-05 he worked with NovaCare Rehabilitation as a Staff Physical Therapist during the off-season and as an assistant with the team starting in the pre-season through the remainder of the schedule. While working with the Eagles, Hunkele was part of Rick Burkholder's highly-regarded staff and was exposed to some of the most progressive rehab programs and techniques at work in the NFL today.

Hunkele started in the athletic training field as a student at Duquesne where he assisted with the athletic training staff for football during his undergraduate days. During the 1997 season he was exposed to the NFL for the first time when he served as a season-long intern for the Pittsburgh

Steelers as the team advanced to the AFC Championship to face eventual Super Bowl champs Denver.

Following his graduation in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Duquesne, Hunkele remained at the school to earn his master's in physical therapy. During graduate school he served as a graduate assistant from 1998-2000 where he worked as head trainer for the men's soccer, ice hockey and men's and women's tennis teams along with supervising student assistants. Hunkele is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Hunkele, a native of Reading, PA, and graduate of Holy Name High School, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association along with being a licensed physical therapist in Minnesota. Hunkele was married in July 2006 to Rachel Arora and the couple resides in Plymouth, MN.

ROB ROCHE ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Rob Roche brings a diverse athletic training background in pro football and college athletics to the Vikings as an assistant on Eric Sugarman's staff.

Roche enters his third season with the Vikings in 2008 and assists with the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained and helps implement proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs for the athletes. Roche was a season-long intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2000 and during 2003-05 training camps where he worked with Sugarman and Vikings assistant Tom Hunkeler.

Before joining the Vikings, Roche spent 2001-06 working as an assistant athletic trainer at Swarthmore College where he provided medical coverage for the NCAA Division III program. Along with athletic training responsibilities, Roche was an Approved Clinical Instructor for athletic training students.

Roche earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Chester University in 1998. During his undergraduate tenure he served an internship in athletic training at the school working with the football team. Following his graduation, Roche moved to the University of Illinois to earn his master's degree in kinesiology where he served as a teaching assistant in the kinesiology department and was a graduate assistant in UI's Rehabilitation Education Services. He earned his MS degree in 2000.

During Roche's stint at Illinois he was first exposed to the NFL when he was a training camp intern for the Chicago Bears in 1998 and 1999. His experience in pro football continued in 2000 when he was an assistant with the Frankfurt Galaxy in NFL Europe and in 2001 with the World Bowl IX champion Berlin Thunder. Continuing his education through experience, Roche volunteered for two weeks in summer 2003 with the U.S. Olympic Committee in Chula Vista, CA.

Roche is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the USOC Sports Medicine Society, has served on the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society and is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Roche, a native of Tamaqua, PA and graduate of Marian Catholic High, is married to Melissa. The couple resides in Chaska, MN with their son, Patrick.

DR. JOEL BOYD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Joel Boyd's experience in athletics and medicine have helped take him around the world. In 2008, he returns for a 2nd full season with the Vikings.

Boyd serves as a Physician at TRIA Orthopedic Center in Bloomington and joined the Vikings for the 2007 season along with working in a similar role with the NHL's Minnesota Wild.

His experience with the United State Olympic Team took Boyd to the Nagano Games in 1998 while working with the men's and women's hockey teams. In past seasons Boyd has worked as a National Team Physician with USA Hockey in world championships in Switzerland, Sweden and Germany.

Boyd holds an undergraduate degree from Bucknell and graduated from Temple University Medical School. He completed his orthopedic training at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and fellowship training at the University of Western Ontario, Canada.

Dr. Boyd and his wife, Cheryl, have 3 children, Kendall, Kyle and Kasey, and reside in Eden Prairie.

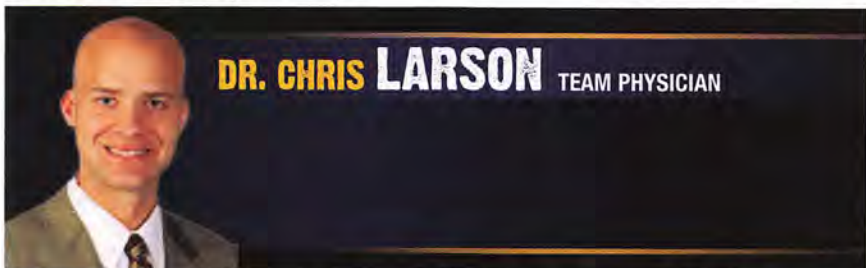

DR. SHELDON BURNS TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Sheldon Burns returns in 2008 for his 24th season as a Vikings Team Physician. A doctor at Edina Family Physicians, Burns is a Board Certified Specialist in Family Practice, Emergency and Sports Medicine.

Burns is also the Medical Director for the Minnesota Timberwolves of the National Basketball Association, Medical Director for the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA and the Minnesota Wild of the National Hockey League. He has served as team physician for seven United States Olympic or World Championship teams, most recently for USA Basketball's gold medal winning entry at the Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia, in September 2001. Burns also worked as a USA Olympics team physician in the Athens games and served as tournament physician for the Minnesota State High School League.

Burns is a Clinical Professor at the University of Minnesota Medical School and is active in teaching sports medicine at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center and The Orthopedic Center. He was a deputy medical commissioner of the International Olympic Committee and has worked in six Olympic Games.

A native of Grand Meadow, MN, and raised in Nisswa, MN, Burns received his undergraduate degree from Hamline University in St. Paul and earned his medical degree in 1974 from the University of Minnesota Medical School. Burns and his wife, Linda, who reside in Minneapolis, have two children, Alicen and Evan.

DR. CHRIS LARSON TEAM PHYSICIAN

Board-certified orthopaedic surgeon Christopher Larson earned his medical degree from the University of Minnesota Medical School. He completed his orthopaedic residency at the University of North Carolina and a sports medicine orthopaedic fellowship at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center in Minneapolis. In those capacities, he provided medical coverage for the University of North Carolina Tarheels football and soccer programs and the Minnesota Vikings and Minnesota Timberwolves, respectively. He was the orthopaedist for the National U.S. 17 Soccer Team in Blaine, MN in 2003, 2004 and 2005.

Dr. Larson sees patients at Orthopaedic Consultants in Minneapolis and at Minnesota Sports Medicine in Eden Prairie. He is co-chief of Orthopedic Clinic Services at Fairview-University Medical Center and serves as Director of Education for the Minnesota Sports Medicine and the Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Fellowship program.

DR. DAVID OLSON TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. David Olson is in his 6th season as a Vikings Team Physician. A doctor at Broadway Family Physicians in Minneapolis, Olson is a Board Certified Specialist in Family Medicine and Sports Medicine.

Olson also works as a Team Physician with the University of Minnesota athletics where he works primarily with the men's basketball program. He volunteers his time covering Minneapolis Community and Technical College basketball, Roseville and Patrick Henry High Schools and Minnesota State High School League events.

Olson is an Assistant Professor at the University of Minnesota's Family Medicine and Community Health Department where he is active teaching medical students, Residents and Sports Medicine Fellows. A native of Sioux Falls, SD and raised in North St. Paul, Olson received his undergrad degree from Gustavus Adolphus College and medical degree at Minnesota. Olson and wife Renee reside in Roseville with children, Tyler, Autumn and Kobe.

DENNIS RYAN EQUIPMENT MANAGER

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dennis Ryan enters his 33rd season of service with the Vikings. A lifetime resident of St. Paul, Ryan joined the Vikings in 1976 as an assistant to Jim "Stubby" Eason, who spent 20 years as the Vikings Equipment Manager. Ryan was elevated to equipment manager in June 1981. At 21-years-old, Ryan became the youngest equipment manager in the NFL. He is only the second person in Vikings history to hold the title of equipment manager.

In 1984 Ryan designed the first eye shield to be worn by a player in an NFL game, creating a shield to protect DT Mark Mullaney, who had suffered an eye injury in a previous game. In March 1995 Ryan received the Whitey Zimmerman Award, recognizing the NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year.

Ryan attended the University of Minnesota (1978-79) and University of St. Thomas (1980-81). He and wife Laura, have three children, Ben, Maureen and Annie, and reside in St. Paul.

AARON NEUMANN ASST. EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Aaron Neumann has been around Vikings football since 1989 when he began with the club as a ball boy during training camp.

Neumann has worked with 33-year Vikings Equipment Manager Dennis Ryan since 1998 and was hired as the Vikings Assistant Equipment Manager in 2000.

The Vikings' equipment staff has the difficult and often overlooked job of outfitting and maintaining all the equipment, uniforms and apparel for the Vikings players and football staff on a daily basis.

The Neumann name is familiar in Vikings circles as Aaron's uncle, Larry Neumann, was an athletic trainer for the team in the 1980s and 1990s before he passed away.

A native of Winsted, MN, Neumann attended Mankato State University before transferring to Concordia University-St. Paul, where he was a 3-year football letter-winner.

Neumann is a graduate of Winsted Holy Trinity High School and is married to Tammy. The couple resides in Shakopee with their son, Frank.

BOB MARCUS DIRECTOR OF VIDEO

In his 8th season with the Vikings in 2008, Bob Marcus is in his 7th as Director of Video after serving as Director of Digital Video in 2001.

Marcus is responsible for overseeing all aspects of videotaping Vikings practices and games as well as distributing video to coaches and players.

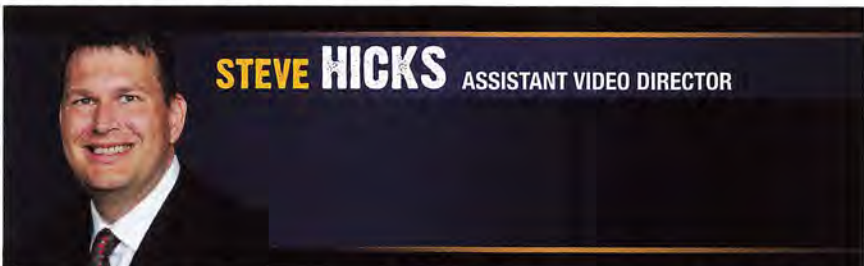

The Vikings utilize an XOS Technologies digital video network that features viewing stations in each meeting room and coach's office. Every NFL game and all practice footage is put online to be instantly accessed by players, coaches and scouts.

Prior to joining the Vikings in 2001, Marcus worked with the University of Minnesota Golden Gopher football program as video coordinator for 17 years. A native of Minneapolis, he attended Edison High School. Marcus is a 1982 graduate of the University of Minnesota with a degree in photojournalism.

As an undergraduate, Marcus was a student assistant for the Gophers and got his start filming practices and games for the football team. Marcus was hired by the University full-time in 1984. During his tenure with Minnesota, he worked with Gophers head coaches Joe Salem, Lou Holtz, John Gutekunst, Jim Wacker and Glen Mason. The 1985 Gophers won the Independence Bowl, the '86 team played in the Liberty Bowl, the '99 team was in the Sun Bowl and the 2000 Gophers played in the Micron PC Bowl.

Marcus and wife, Tami, have two children, Rob and Amy, and reside in Champlin.

STEVE HICKS ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

Steven Hicks enters his 7th season with the Vikings in the video department in 2008 and has a solid background in the field.

Hicks joined the Vikings in 2002 on Bob Marcus' staff and helped implement several technology upgrades that have made the Vikings' video services more efficient and effective.

Prior to his tenure with the Vikings, Hicks spent eight years at Ohio State University working with the video operations for the Buckeye football program. He started in 1994 as an intern and by 1998 had climbed the ranks to Director of Football Video, a position he held until moving to the Vikings.

Hicks majored in psychology at Ohio State and is a native of Marion, OH. He and his wife, Kathy, have a daughter Abigail Elizabeth and are avid participants in outdoor activities. Hicks competes as a pro on the FLW Walleye Tour. The family resides in Eden Prairie.

GEORGE PATON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

With over a decade of NFL experience under his belt, George Paton enters his second season with the Vikings as Director of Player Personnel.

The Vikings aggressive policy in the 2008 offseason and commitment from ownership allowed the club to make a blockbuster trade that brought 2007 NFL sack leader DE Jared Allen from Kansas City. The Vikings also signed impact WR Bernard Berrian away from NFC North rivals Chicago and added starting safety Madiou Williams from Cincinnati.

Paton's primary focus is coordinate scouting and personnel functions within the Vikings Pro Scouting Department and lend his expertise to the College Scouting Department as they prepare for the annual NFL Draft. Paton will work closely with his former Miami and Chicago protégé, Vikings Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman.

Paton spent 6 seasons (2001-06) with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Pro Personnel. Paton began his NFL career in the college and pro scouting departments of the Chicago Bears, rising to the position of Assistant Director of Pro Personnel in 2000.

A 4-year letter winner as a DB at UCLA from 1988-91, Paton was a part of a pair of Bruin bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in history and went on to play in professional football leagues in Italy and Austria.

Paton (pronounced Payton) and wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Bella.

SCOTT STUDWELL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

After establishing himself as one of the top players in team history during his 14 seasons (1977-90) at linebacker for the Minnesota Vikings, Scott Studwell enters his 17th year in the team's Player Personnel department. He retired from his playing career after the 1990 season and spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations before being named the Player Personnel Coordinator from 1992-2001. Studwell was named to his current post as Director of College Scouting in April 2002. His new responsibilities include overseeing all college scouting efforts and preparation for the annual NFL Draft.

Studwell has been a part of successful drafts that have included Pro Bowlers or Pro Bowl alternates Robert Smith (1st round, '93), Todd Steussie (1st, '94), Randy Moss (1st, '98), Matt Birk (6th, '98), Daunte Culpepper (1st, '99), Michael Bennett (1st, '01), Bryant McKinnie (1st, '02), Kevin Williams (1st, '03) and Adrian Peterson (1st, '07). In 2004 Kevin Williams, in just his second season, was selected to the Pro Bowl and named 1st-Team All-Pro. The Vikings 2007 draft class was highlighted by RB Adrian Peterson being named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year along with a starters spot in the Pro Bowl and MVP honors in the game.

A member of the Vikings' 25th and 40th Anniversary All-Time Teams, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has over 1,500 career tackles. According to team media guides Studwell has more tackles with one organization than any other player in NFL history. In addition, Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. He also played in 12 playoffs contests, including NFC Championship Games following the '77 and '87 seasons. In '87 and '88 Studwell was voted to the Pro Bowl. In '89 he was named 2nd-team All-NFC by United Press International. He also was Minnesota's recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award in '87. After earning the starting MLB job in '80, Studwell led the Vikings in tackles the next 6 seasons. He also was the team's leading tackler in '88 and '89. Studwell, who tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered three times ('82, '86, '88), finished his NFL career with 15 fumble recoveries and 11 interceptions.

Drafted by Minnesota in the 9th round from Illinois in '77, Studwell finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time tackler (342) behind Dick Butkus (374). In '76 Studwell recorded 177 tackles to surpass Illinois' season record, formerly held by Butkus. As a senior Studwell recorded 23 tackles against Purdue to tie the school's single-game record.

In '90 Studwell was named to Illinois' All-Century Team, joining Butkus and Ray Nitschke as the linebackers on that squad. Studwell earned 2nd-team All-America and 1st-team All-Big Ten honors in '76, and 2nd-team All-Conference mention in '75. Studwell also was the team's co-captain and co-MVP in '76, when he played in the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl.

A native of Evansville, IN (8/27/54), John Scott Studwell starred at Evansville High School. In 2001 Studwell was elected into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame. He majored in commerce at Illinois. During his playing career, he sat on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Minneapolis. Scott and wife Jenny have two daughters, Jessie and Samantha, and a son Jack.

Company Man

Since joining the Vikings as a 9th-round draft choice out of Illinois, Scott Studwell has called the franchise home. Following his record-setting 14-year playing career with the team he moved to a management role in 1991 and into scouting in 1992. A member of the Vikings 40th Anniversary All-Time Team, Studwell was one of the most popular and productive players in team history.

FRANK ACEVEDO

AREA SCOUT

A veteran evaluator with a track record of success, Frank Acevedo enters his 7th season with the Vikings in 2008 and his 14th season in the NFL. Acevedo joined the Vikings after seven seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs' personnel department and serves the Vikings as an Area Scout with coverage of the Midwest and East.

Acevedo spent five seasons as Kansas City's area scout covering the Big 12 region. Prior to working as an area scout with the Chiefs he was an assistant in the club's personnel department.

Before joining the Chiefs personnel department, Acevedo was running backs coach at Missouri Western in 1994 and '95. Acevedo was an assistant coach at his alma mater, San Francisco State, from 1985-89.

Acevedo played DB for two seasons at San Francisco State after transferring from Palomar Junior College. He was a team captain at SFSU as a senior and also earned All-Northern California Athletic Conference honors.

Born in Escondido, CA (3/5/64), Acevedo attended San Pasqual High School and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in physical education from SFSU. He and his wife, Phoebe, have a daughter Estella and a son, Antonio.

CONRAD CARDANO

REGIONAL SCOUT

Conrad Cardano is in his second decade with the Vikings college scouting department in 2008, joining the team in 1987 after a successful stint in collegiate coaching and working in scouting for Blesto.

Cardano is a Regional Scout for the Vikings evaluating prospects throughout the Eastern seaboard and the Southeast.

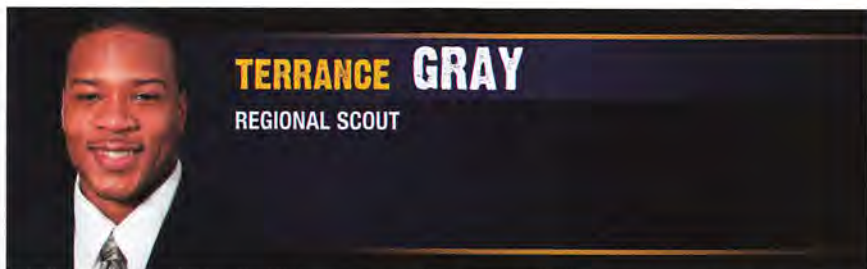

Since joining the Vikings, Cardano has helped build a team that has made the playoffs 12 times, including NFC Central titles in '89, '92, '94, '98 and '00. The team has played in three NFC Championship Games during his tenure with the organization.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Cardano worked for three years (1984-86) for the Blesto Scouting Combine. From 1981-83 he coached at Eastern Kentucky, which won the Ohio Valley Conference title each of his three seasons there. The Colonels captured the NCAA Division I-AA championship in '82, when they went 13-0. Cardano joined Eastern Kentucky after two seasons (1979-80) overseeing wide receivers at Marshall. His first collegiate coaching job came as offensive coordinator at Catholic University from 1975-78. Cardano coached two years at the high school level at Tuscola High in Waynesville, NC and Dover-

Sherborn High in Dover, MA.

Cardano played quarterback for the Hagarstown Bears of the Seaboard Pro League from 1972-73. As a collegiate player Cardano quarterbacked Western Carolina from 1967-70.

Born in Washington, DC, Cardano (8/18/48) attended Bladensburg (MD) High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Western Carolina. In 1982 Cardano received his master's in education administration and supervision from Bowie State College in Maryland. His wife's name is Gloria. Cardano has two sons — Christopher and Anthony.

TERRANCE GRAY

REGIONAL SCOUT

Terrance Gray returns to the Vikings in 2008 for his 3rd season as a Regional Scout for the team and handling BLESTO scouting duties. In his role Gray will scout the central region of the country for the Vikings.

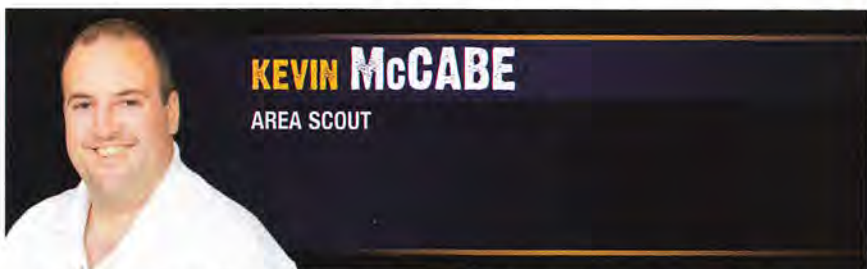

Gray comes to the Vikings from the Kansas City Chiefs where he served as the club's area scout of National Football Scouting (NFS) during the 2005 season and in preparation for the 2006 Draft. Prior to moving into scouting, Gray was the Chiefs Player Development Coordinator and worked in personnel from June 2003 to June 2005. As a scout with Kansas City, Gray covered the Southwest.

Gray got his start in the NFL as an intern in 2002-03 in the League office working with Player and Employee Development and focused on the NFL's Continuing Education Program. Before his opportunity with the NFL, Gray worked as a student assistant in the Oregon State University's athletic department in academic affairs as he finished his bachelor's degree in 2002.

Gray was a CB at Oregon State in 1999 and 2000 after transferring from Palomar (CA) Junior College where he was an All-America honoree and team captain. At Oregon State Gray was part of one of the Beavers' best seasons in school history as a senior, going 11-1 and ending the season ranked #4 in the nation after a 41-9 win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Gray played under former NFL head coach Dennis Erickson while at OSU.

A standout QB at Bayside High in Queens, NY, was the team MVP and a 1st-Team All-Queens choice by the New York Daily News. Gray and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Kansas City.

KEVIN McCABE

AREA SCOUT

Kevin McCabe enters his 7th season in 2008 with the Minnesota Vikings as an Area Scout, working in the Western region of the country.

McCabe came to the Vikings after working with the St. Louis Rams as an area scout for 7 years (1995-2001) and volunteering with the Rams personnel department in 1994. During his tenure with the Rams, the team became known as one of the most potent offensive attacks in the NFL. In 1999 the Rams went 13-3 in the regular season and won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee following a 4-12 campaign in 1998. In 2001, St. Louis posted a 14-2 regular season mark and lost Super Bowl XXXVI to New England in one of the most exciting Super Bowls in League history. In his final three seasons with St. Louis, the Rams amassed a 37-11 regular-season record, won the NFC West title twice (1999, 2001) and finished as the Division runner-up in 2000.

McCabe began his career in 1985 as an assistant coach at his alma mater, John Muir High School in Pasadena, CA. McCabe coached on the prep level in the Los Angeles area until becoming strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant football coach at Pomona-Pitzer College in Claremont, CA. He stayed at the school from 1991-94. In 1993 McCabe coached overseas for the East City Giants in Helsinki, Finland.

McCabe (3/23/63) is a native of Pasadena and earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1985 from Princeton University, where he was a three-year letterman for the Tiger football team. Kevin and his wife, Anne, have sons, Torin and Keenan, and a daughter, Kate. The family resides in Woodland, CA.

PAUL ROELL

REGIONAL SCOUT

A veteran scout with 17 years under his belt in the NFL, Paul Roell enters his 3rd season with the Vikings in 2008 and serves as a Regional Scout. He joined the team in June 2006 and scouts the Western region for the Vikings.

Roell spent the previous 15 seasons as a member of the Indianapolis Colts staff as an area scout. He got his first taste of scouting from 1987-89 when he scouted high school football in western Pennsylvania for Metro Index Scouting. In 1989 and '90 Roell worked as an intern for Pittsburgh Total Scouting, a division of the Pittsburgh Steelers headed by Art Rooney, Jr. He moved into the pro scouting division of BLESTO in 1990 before joining the Indianapolis Colts in 1991.

Roell gets his first experience scouting for an NFC team after spending his entire NFL career in the AFC prior to joining the Vikings this season. During his career with Indianapolis, Roell helped build a team that has become one of the NFL's elite. The team went 1-15 in Roell's first season with the club in 1991. The Colts went on to advance to the playoffs under three head coaches- Ted Marchibroda, Jim Mora and Tony Dungy. Recently, under Mora and Dungy, the Colts have advanced to the playoffs in six of the past seven seasons. From 2002-05 the team has amassed a 48-16 mark in regular season play and won the AFC South title consecutively from 2003-05.

As a collegian, attended Ohio State University for three years before transferring to Ohio Northern and later to Robert Morris where he earned a bachelor's degree in sport management at Robert Morris in 1990.

Roell, 43, is married to Stacey and the couple has daughters Victoria and Kaelin. The Roell family resides in Kansas City.

MIKE SHOLITON

AREA SCOUT

Mike Sholiton returns for his 5th season with the Vikings in 2008. He comes to the team with a wealth of football experience and is no stranger to the NFL. Sholiton will serve as a Vikings Area Scout in the southern states to find college talent for the team.

Sholiton is in his second stint in the NFL after working as an intern with the scouting, video and community relations departments of the St. Louis Rams from 1997-2000. He was a member of the 1999 Rams staff when the team won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee. While working with the Rams scouting department, Sholiton maintained draft boards and collected scouting reports while evaluating and profiling draft eligible seniors for the 1999 Draft. While in St. Louis, Sholiton was on the same Rams staff as Vikings Vice President of Operations and Legal Counsel Kevin Warren and current Area Scout Kevin McCabe.

Sholiton comes to the Vikings after four seasons with Fresno State where he served as Football Operations Coordinator for the Bulldogs. During his tenure with Fresno State the team climbed the national charts and posted one of the most successful stints in school history. The Bulldogs went 36-18 in his four seasons with the program and played in four straight bowl games, including wins over Georgia Tech and UCLA in the 2002 and 2003 Silicon Valley Football Classics respectively. While at Fresno State, Sholiton worked with current Vikings Bernard Berrian and Marcus McCauley.

A native of Cleveland, Sholiton (3/13/78) was a four-year letterwinner as a receiver and punt returner at Washington University in St. Louis. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing in 2000 and went on to earn a master's in kinesiology from Fresno State in 2001. Sholiton and wife, Ashley, reside in Phoenix.

JAMAAL STEPHENSON

AREA SCOUT

Jamaal Stephenson enters his 7th season with the Vikings in 2008. He is responsible for scouting the East Coast of the United States.

Stephenson joined the Vikings in 2002 after spending two years in the Houston Texans' scouting department. In May of 2000, he was hired as College Administrator for the Texans. During his time in Houston, he was in charge of scouting areas of Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, compiling statistics and biographical data on college players and maintaining several scouting databases for the team.

Prior to joining the Texans, Stephenson spent one year as a scouting assistant for the Washington Redskins. His duties included making recommendations on college prospects for the NFL Draft, compiling information for weekly opponent scouting reports and helping to maintain contractual and other miscellaneous information on NFL players. In the spring of 1998, Stephenson coached defensive backs as a graduate assistant at UMass.

Jamaal Akim Stephenson (1/29/76) is a native of Goldsboro, NC. He was a four-year letterwinner at DB for Brown. Twice he earned All-Ivy League honors, and was also awarded the team's "Unsung Hero" Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational behavior management from Brown in 1997, and his master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1999. In 2003, Stephenson was selected to Brown's All-Decade Football Team for the 1990's. He was honored as part the 125-year anniversary celebration of football at Brown University.

Stephenson and his wife, Emily, have a son, Noah, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

First-Round Finds

The Vikings have selected the most 1st-round draft picks in team history from the University of Southern California—starting with the #1 overall pick in the 1968 Draft by taking OT Ron Yary. His selection made him the 1st offensive lineman taken with the top pick in the Draft in NFL history. The USC pipeline continued in 1974 when OT Steve Riley was taken #25 overall, 1983 with S Joey Browner at #19 overall and DE Kenechi Udezue with the #20 overall pick in 2005.

SCOTT KUHN

PRO SCOUT

Scott Kuhn returns for his 2nd season with the Vikings in 2008 as a Pro Scout after spending 7 seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins. Kuhn will assist the Vikings with NFL-wide scouting of players, advance scouting of opponents, database operations, reports and evaluations for free agency.

Kuhn has a strong background in technology as it relates to scouting and worked with Miami as College Scouting Coordinator for his final 5 seasons. He joined the Dolphins in 2000 as a Player Personnel intern and rose within the organization during his tenure. While in Miami, Kuhn worked closely with Vikings Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman and Director of Player Personnel George Paton.

A 1997 graduate of Kansas State University, Kuhn holds a degree in anthropology. He is a native of Topeka, KS and attended Hayden High. Kuhn is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

RYAN MONNENS

PRO SCOUT

Monnens begins his 7th season in the Vikings scouting department. He is responsible for scouting players in the NFL, advance scouting of Vikings opponents, assisting with the pro scouting database and scouting players in both the CFL and AFL.

Monnens is in his 4th season as a pro scout after spending 3 seasons as a pro personnel assistant. He originally joined the Vikings as an intern in 1998 and spent 3 seasons in public relations before joining the scouting department in 2002.

Monnens played WR at St. John's University in Collegeville, MN (1995-97) under legendary coach John Gagliardi, the all-time winningest coach in college football history. During his tenure at St. John's, the Johnnies won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title in '95 and '96, advanced to the NCAA playoffs, and posted a (25-6-1) record.

A Minnesota native, Monnens (12/4/75) grew up in Richmond and was a two-time all conference running back at Rocori High School. Monnens earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from St. John's in 1998. He and his wife, Krissy, reside in Excelsior.

JEFF ROBINSON

PRO SCOUT

In 2008, Jeff Robinson enters his 19th season with the Minnesota Vikings and serves as a Pro Scout. Robinson assists the personnel department with league-wide player evaluation and preparing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

After joining the Vikings as a public relations intern in 1990, Robinson worked two seasons (1991-92) as a public relations assistant and three years (1993-95) as operations assistant. He moved into the scouting department in June 1996.

In 1989-90 Robinson was an assistant coach at North High School in Minneapolis.

A three-year starter at cornerback at Northwestern, Robinson served as a team captain and was selected honorable-mention All-Big Ten as a senior in 1988. In the Wildcats' 28-10 win over Illinois (11/21) in '87, he returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown, which at the time was the 7th longest interception return in school history and the longest interception return by a Northwestern player since '63. As a starter in all 11 games at right cornerback as a sophomore, Robinson helped the Wildcats post their best record (4-7) since 1973. Northwestern also tied a school record for takeaways with 31 in '86. He was recruited by and played as a freshman for former Vikings and current Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Dennis Green.

A native of Minneapolis, Robinson (4/16/67) was an honorable-mention All-America and a two-time All-Minneapolis Conference selection at North High School. He also was a 2-time All-State pick in track and an All-City choice in basketball. A member of the National Honor Society in high school, Robinson was recognized by the Minneapolis Public School Athletic Department in '88.

Named one of the Outstanding College Students of America, Robinson earned a degree in organizational studies/business management at Northwestern. Since '91 he has served on the board of directors of the North Community YMCA. In 1995 and 1996 he hosted a college prep basketball camp for the top 30 varsity players in the Twin Cities. For the last seven years Robinson has hosted the "Jeff Robinson Football Camp". He and his wife Cassandra have two daughters, Jassandra, Jaila and a son, Jeffrey II "Deuce" and live in Shakopee.

PAUL WIGGIN
PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

In almost five decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been closely linked with the success of several teams.

In his role as a Vikings Personnel Consultant, Wiggin works with the department that is responsible for the evaluation all NFL players and advance scouting of the Vikings' upcoming opponents.

Wiggin first joined the Vikings in 1985 as defensive line coach in Bud Grant's final season as head coach. Wiggin oversaw a line that featured DE Chris Doleman and DT Keith Millard, who posted 21.0 and 18.0 sacks respectively in 1989, earning Millard NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Wiggin's career included head coaching jobs at his alma mater, Stanford, from 1980-83 on a team that included John Elway and Darrin Nelson. From 1975-77 Wiggin was head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. His coaching career started in 1968 with the San Francisco 49ers defensive line.

As a standout DE for the Cleveland Browns from 1957-67, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight. He earned Pro Bowl starts in 1965 and '67 and was named to the Browns all-time team. A 2-time All-America at Stanford, Wiggin was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005. He has bachelor's and master's degrees from Stanford.

A native of Modesto (CA), Wiggin attended Manteca Union High. He and his wife, Carolyn, have three children and eight grandchildren.

JERRY REICHOW
PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

Jerry Reichow has been closely affiliated with the Vikings for nearly every season in franchise history.

A standout player on the first Vikings team in 1961, Reichow has worked over four decades with the team in a variety of personnel roles.

Reichow's eye for talent has played a key role in the success of the franchise and he has worked with all seven head coaches in Vikings history.

Reichow began in the Vikings front office in 1966 as Director of Player Personnel. He moved on to be Director of Football Operations in 1975 and Assistant General Manager, National Scouting in 1992. Reichow was a key contributor to the Vikings draft process throughout his career and the team developed a reputation for finding talent hidden in late rounds of the draft.

Originally joining the team in 1961 in a trade from Washington, Reichow played 1961-64 for the Vikings. He led the team in receiving in 1961 and '62, joined Hugh McElhenny in '61 as the first two Pro Bowlers in team history and his 11 TD catches '61 stood as the team record until Cris Carter broke it in 1995.

Reichow entered the NFL as a 4th-round pick in 1956 by Detroit, helping the Lions to the 1957 NFL title. Reichow was the 1955 Iowa Hawkeyes MVP. He left school as the school record holder in total offense and played in the Shrine Bowl and Senior Bowl as a senior. On the hardwood, Reichow helped the team to the Final Four in 1955.

A native of Decorah, IA, Reichow and his wife, Carolyn, have three children.

DAVE BLANDO*DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Director of Football Administration Dave Blando enters his eighth season with the Vikings organization in 2008 and brings experience at the franchise and League level to the Vikings. Since joining the Vikings in 2001, he has been able to improve the Vikings management of the salary cap and player contracts by implementing new technology and techniques.

Blando joined the Vikings after working as the Denver Broncos Director of Salary Cap from 1997-2000, where he was fortunate to be a part of two Super Bowl championship teams. Denver was one of the few teams that were positioned to stay competitive from a salary cap perspective following their back-to-back Super Bowl titles.

Blando works closely with Vice President of Football Administration Rob Brzezinski in managing the Vikings salary cap and developing contract proposals and parameters. He also individually negotiates a number of the Vikings player contracts. He spends a significant amount of his time working on administrative functions within the personnel department. Blando has extensive experience using relational databases which benefit both the Vikings salary cap and player personnel departments.

Prior to his stint with the Broncos, Blando served as a consultant to the Miami Dolphins and spent three years in the League Office (Management Council) and nine years as a financial analyst with the Boeing Company in Seattle.

An additional benefit to working for the Vikings is that Blando was able to move closer to his hometown of Aberdeen, SD, where he was a graduate of Northern State University in 1984. He is single and resides in Edina.

KIMBERLY FIELDS*DIRECTOR OF CIVIC AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS

Entering her second season with the Vikings, Kimberly Fields brings a strong background from the NFL's headquarters to the team as Director of Civic and Business Affairs. Fields will work on civic, business and ownership initiatives for the Vikings and provide support for all departments in the organization on civic and business affairs.

Fields comes to Minnesota after spending six years at the NFL, most recently as the Manager of Events Business Development. Fields was responsible for enhancing opportunities for local women and minority-owned businesses to participate in the production of the Super Bowl and the Pro Bowl. Fields oversaw the sanctioned event process and assisted with the management of the Super Bowl bid process and the special events' strategic plan.

Prior to working in the Events department, Fields was the Manager of Career Transition Programs within the Player and Employee Development Department. In that role, she was responsible for providing assistance to NFL players in all aspects of continuing education, degree completion, graduate school preparation, life skills program and personal development through career counseling.

Prior to joining the NFL offices, Fields served as Community Relations/Fan Development Coordinator for the WNBA. Her first exposure to the sports field came as an intern at the Women's Sports Foundation in Long Island, NY, and followed that with an internship with the NFL Player and Employee Development Department.

Fields earned bachelor's and master's degrees in systems engineering at the University of Virginia where she competed in track and field for the Cavaliers. Fields began her professional career as a technical marketing representative at IBM before returning to UVA to earn her graduate degree and gained exposure to academic counseling as an intern with the Department of Athletics and the Dean of Students office.

A native of Richmond, VA, Fields attended Lee-Davis High School.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Entering his 18th season with the Vikings and his 11th as Director of Public Relations, Bob Hagan is responsible for coordinating print and electronic media coverage of the Vikings as well as overseeing the publication of the official team guide, yearbook and game programs and publicity of the team.

Hagan began with the Vikings as an intern in public relations for the 1991 season and was named Director of Public Relations in 1998. A 1990 graduate of Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, Hagan was an intern in 1989-90 for KARE-TV in the Twin Cities.

In 1991 Hagan served as an intern in the Vikings public relations office under Director Merrill Swanson. In 1992 he was hired full time and served as an assistant under Swanson and then Dave Pelletier until his promotion to Director of Public Relations prior to the 1998 season.

Following the 1998 and 2000 seasons, Hagan accompanied the Vikings staff and helped the NFL with PR efforts at the Pro Bowl. Recently, Hagan has worked with the NFL public relations staff at the past six Super Bowls. In 2007 Hagan participated in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote growth of leaders within the League.

A native of the Twin Cities, Hagan is a 1986 graduate of Wayzata High School. Hagan and wife Val reside in Plymouth, with children Matt, Carley and Brad.

LUTHER HIPPE
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS-TEAM TRAVEL

Luther Hippe enters his third season as Director of Operations-Team Travel in 2008. Hippe is responsible for all aspects of team travel and transportation while serving as the point person for offseason travel, including bringing in players during the free agency visit process.

Hippe is one of the Vikings' longest-tenured employees and got his first exposure to the team as a training camp intern in 1993. He returned to the team as a season-long intern in 1994 and was hired to the staff in the spring of 1995 as an assistant in the team operations and personnel departments. After a season in a shared capacity, Hippe turned his focus to operations.

Hippe spent his graduate school days at Mankato State University working as a grad assistant for the Mavericks basketball team and as a grad assistant in the athletic department before earning his master's degree in sports management in 1994. It was while on the campus of MSU that Hippe developed a working relationship with the Vikings that would later evolve into a career.

During his undergraduate school at Sioux Falls College in his hometown of Sioux Falls, SD, Hippe was a four-year letterwinner in basketball. He earned his bachelor's in mass communications from the school in 1987. Hippe is a graduate of Sioux Falls Washington High.

Hippe has been active with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program in the Twin Cities and other charitable endeavors in his hometown. Hippe and wife, Emily, reside in Chanhausen.

PHIL HUEBNER

DIRECTOR OF TICKETING AND HOSPITALITY

Phil Huebner enters his 11th season with the Vikings as the Director of Ticketing and Hospitality in 2008.

Since October 1998, Huebner has overseen and revamped the successful Vikings Ticket Sales and Operations Departments, which are responsible for customer service and the sale of season, group and individual tickets along with hospitality packages. In 1999 season ticket sales were capped at 60,000, an increase of 17,000 from the 1998 season, and a waiting list was started. Entering the 2008 season the Minnesota Vikings have sold out 104 consecutive pre-season, regular season and playoff games. The three largest home crowds in team history have been during Huebner's tenure, including the team-record 64,482 fans who watched the Vikings battle Green Bay on 11/2/03. The Vikings have topped the 500,000 mark for home attendance in each of the past 10 seasons, setting the franchise record at 513,437 in 2003.

Huebner joined the team in 1998 after 12 years with the Minnesota Twins. While at the Minnesota Twins, Huebner worked in various sales positions with the final two years as the Director of Sales.

A 1986 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, Huebner has a bachelor's degree in political science.

Huebner and wife, Debbie, have two children, Rebecca and Bret, and reside in Andover.

DANNON HULSKOTTER

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The 2008 season will be Dannon Hulskotter's eighth with the Vikings. Hulskotter and the Marketing & Partnerships Department are responsible for bringing a greater level of service to the team's corporate partners, including responsibilities in corporate hospitality/travel, in-stadium and out-of-stadium promotions, corporate special events, as well as many other corporate partnership elements. Hulskotter is also responsible for managing the team's branding, marketing, promotions, game entertainment/production and internet initiatives.

Hulskotter acts as the main liaison with the team's flagship radio station, network radio affiliates, and local ancillary pre-season TV partner programming.

Prior to joining the Minnesota Vikings, he worked with Pacers Sports & Entertainment in Indianapolis from 1999-2001 and CAVS/Gund Arena Company in Cleveland from 1994-99. A graduate of the University of Iowa with a degree in sports management, Hulskotter and wife, Amy, have two sons, Jack and Alex, and reside in Shakopee.

KIM KLAWITER

DIRECTOR OF SECURITY

Entering his 3rd season as the Vikings' Director of Security in 2008, Kim Klawiter has worked with the team in game day and special events security since 2001.

Klawiter has a broad background in law enforcement and in the military, experience that benefits the organization as he has responsibility for the security of the Vikings owners, players and staff and the team headquarters at Winter Park. Klawiter coordinates with the Minneapolis

Police Department for security at the Metrodome during Vikings home games.

A 24-year veteran of the Minnesota State Patrol, Klawiter retired as a lieutenant. He spent 15 years coordinating VIP visits to the state and was responsible for the State Patrol's highly-trained Special Response Team. Klawiter escorted Mikhail Gorbachev on his visit to the state and has provided security to the past three U.S.

Presidents and other prominent public figures.

Klawiter was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1968 and served as a platoon sergeant in Vietnam where he earned the Bronze Star for heroism among other honors. He spent 14 total years in the military between active duty, National Guard and Army Reserve. After his return from active duty, Klawiter returned to school at the University of Minnesota, majoring in sociology.

Klawiter serves as President of the Law Enforcement Memorial Association, an organization that supports the families of officers who have died in the line of duty.

A native of White Bear Lake, MN, Klawiter resides in Arden Hills with his wife, Kathy. The couple has two children, Kelly and Kyle, and three grandchildren, Hunter, Tanner and Alyssa Marie.

CHAD LUNDEEN

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS-STADIUM AND TEAM LOGISTICS

The 2008 season will mark Chad Lundeen's third in his current role as Director of Operations-Stadium and Team Logistics. Lundeen will serve as the Vikings' point person for training camp, home games at the Metrodome and for the logistics of off-season mini-camps.

Lundeen has been associated with the team since 1998 when he did an internship with the club and was hired full time in 2000 with duties in Operations and Community Relations. In recent years Lundeen has handled the Vikings' training camp efforts at Minnesota State University, Mankato.

Already familiar with the Mankato scene, Lundeen was a natural fit. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from MSU and exemplified the model of the student-athlete. A four-year competitor on the Maverick hockey team, Lundeen was a summa cum laude graduate and a recipient of MSU's prestigious Preska Scholarship, presented annually to a top student who is involved actively in campus life. Lundeen earned the Team Leadership Award for his efforts in hockey as a junior. Lundeen continued his education at MSU as a graduate assistant in the athletics department and earned his master's degree in sports management.

A 1993 graduate of Little Falls (MN) High, Lundeen and wife, Lindsay, reside in Chaska. His uncle, Dwight Lundeen, is one of the most successful high school football coaches in state history at Becker High.

BRAD MADSON

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS/YOUTH FOOTBALL

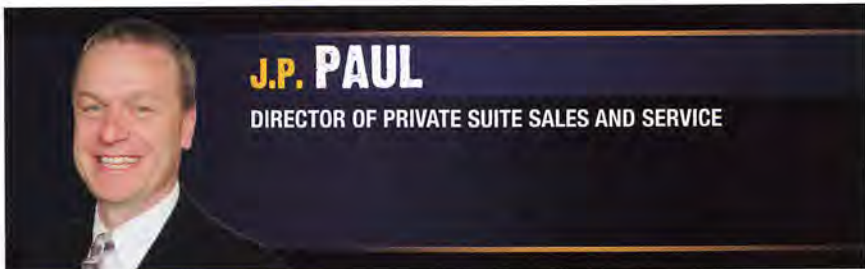

Brad Madson first joined the Vikings staff in 1992 and enters his 13th season heading up community relations and expanding the club's youth football initiatives.

In his tenure, Madson has developed the Vikings community relations into one of the NFL's strongest. In 1999 Cris Carter became the first player in Vikings history to win the prestigious Walter Payton Award as the NFL's Man of the Year.

The Vikings have implemented Community Tuesday as a concept that has been adopted League-wide. Community Tuesdays have Vikings players active in community events at local schools, hospitals, recreation centers and other nonprofit organizations on their only day off of the week during the season. Locally, Madson supports United Way, NFL Alumni Association, and the Page Education Foundation. Madson serves on the Board of Directors for Minnesota DARE, University of Minnesota School of Journalism Alumni Board, African American Adoption Agency Board of Directors, Minneapolis Park Board Youth Sports Work Team, Profound Sports Tri Team Board of Directors and Salvation Army Harbor Light Center Advisory Council. Through NFL Charities, LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation) and the Minneapolis and St. Paul Park and Recreation Boards, Madson has helped lead the $600,000 refurbishing of North Commons Park and Parade Stadium in Minneapolis along with Griffin Stadium and Jimmy Lee Center in St. Paul.

Madson joined the Vikings in 1992 and worked with the team's suite and ticket sales efforts until 1996 when he took over Community Relations duties. A graduate of the University of Minnesota in journalism, Madson worked in television sports as an anchor and reporter prior to joining the Vikings. Madson was a member of the Golden Gophers' Big 10 champion tennis team during his college career. Madson is single and resides in Minneapolis.

J.P. PAUL

DIRECTOR OF PRIVATE SUITE SALES AND SERVICE

The 2008 season will be J.P. Paul's 6th season with the Vikings organization and his 4th season as the team's Director of Private Suites Sales and Service.

As part of his responsibilities, Paul oversees all sales and operational aspects of the Metrodome's Private Suites not only for Vikings games, but for Minnesota Twins and University of Minnesota football games as well. Paul also acts as the Vikings Suite liaison with Aramark and Centerplate, which provide catering services and merchandise fulfillment, respectively, for the Private Suites. Under Paul's leadership, the Vikings also introduced the Samsung Legends Club and TicketExchange Touchdown Club. These exclusive Premium Seating areas were the first of their kind in the Metrodome's history.

With sales and customer service experience in the medical and telecommunications industries, Paul most recently developed and managed the premium seating program for a Chicagoland sports arena development company prior to joining the Vikings. A member of the Association of Luxury Suite Directors, he also served as the NFL's 2007 Premium Seating Committee Chairman and is a member of the Downtown Minneapolis Rotary. A lifelong sports fan and participant, he played Division I collegiate baseball at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

J.P. and his wife, Megan, reside in Chaska with their three sons, Ryan, Matthew and Nicholas.

LES PICO

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/LEGAL

Entering his 4th season with the Vikings but his 11th associated with the National Football League, Les Pico serves the Vikings as Executive Director of Player Development/Legal.

Pico is responsible for heading the Vikings efforts in player-related programs, including continuing education, family assistance and career internships. Other areas of Pico's expertise will include joining players at the annual Rookie Symposium, serving as a team liaison between the NCAA and the team and legal issues that arise concerning players, coaches and staff. In 2006 Pico helped implement a Vikings "mini-symposium" to assist rookies in their transition to life in the NFL and he lends his expertise to the team during the NFL Combine and during the free agency period.

Pico joins the Vikings after four seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs where he worked as Player Development Coordinator/Legal. The Chiefs have a reputation league-wide for their dedication to player programs and working to develop the off-the-field aspects of players lives.

Pico's background professionally with athletics extends to his tenure with NFL Security from 1998-2000 and with the NCAA from 1991-98 working as an enforcement representative where he investigated possible infractions at member institutions.

A native of Mesa, AZ, Pico graduated from Westwood High before attending Scottsdale Community College where he was a decorated QB and engineered the nationally-ranked SCC offense while earning team MVP honors. Following his two seasons at SCC, Pico went on a two-year LDS mission in the Midwest and then became involved in private business. He returned to complete his bachelor's degree at Arizona State University in criminal justice. Pico was a Cum Laude graduate with a bachelor's in criminal justice from ASU in 1987 and went on to law school at Washburn University in Kansas. During law school Pico worked as an assistant coach with the football team and was Vice President of the Hispanic American Law Student Association on campus before earning his Juris Doctorate in 1991.

Pico and his wife, Rita, have four children.

MIKE SLATES
DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE SALES

Mike Slates begins his 9th season with the Vikings in 2008 as Director of Corporate Sales. Slates is responsible for overseeing all aspects of corporate sponsorship revenue, including media, signage, print, internet, promotional and special event sales. Under his leadership and with the addition of radio and television broadcast rights, the group has totaled record-setting revenues each year.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Slates was a Corporate Sales Consultant for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. From 1998-2000, he was Director of Corporate Sales for the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer. During that time the Crew opened the nation's first professional soccer-specific stadium and corporate sales posted dramatic increases in revenue. Slates also worked for the ECHL's Columbus Chill for a year and Boilers, Inc., a subsidiary of Purdue University, for 4 years.

Slates, who earned his bachelor's degree in sports management at Bowling Green State University, has a daughter, Rachel, and a son, Noah. Slates resides in Prior Lake.

NICK TIGHE
FACILITIES DIRECTOR

Nick Tighe oversees the facilities at the Vikings' Winter Park headquarters. His day-to-day responsibilities include maintenance and supervision of the physical plant and overall upkeep and enhancement of the facilities.

Tighe came to the Vikings after working for Pipestone County, MN as Buildings and Grounds Supervisor.

Tighe has a degree in supervisory management from Anoka Technical College and a bachelor's degree in human resources from Concordia College in St. Paul.

A native of St. Michael, MN and graduate of St. Michael-Albertville High School, Tighe and his wife, Kristy, and daughters Annabell and Olivia, reside in St. Michael.

FRED ZAMBERLETTI
SENIOR CONSULTANT-TEAM HISTORIAN

Fred Zamberletti enters 2008 with a long and storied history with the franchise and a remarkable streak intact—Zamberletti has not missed a game in the 48-year history of the Vikings, working 968 consecutive contests. The streak includes all preseason, regular season and post-season games in club history.

Zamberletti has earned the respect and trust of countless players and staff during his tenure with the Vikings. In his time with the team Zamberletti has been a friend, brother, father figure and mentor to countless players, coaches and co-workers. When the team held Fred Zamberletti Day on December 20, 1998 before kickoff of the Vikings-Jacksonville Jaguars game, over 100 Vikings alumni turned out to celebrate with him. To the media he's known as "Trainer for Life." Former head coach Bud Grant acknowledged him as the "Cornerstone of the Vikings" and former General Manager Mike Lynn referred to Fred as "Mr. Viking." The players with respect and admiration refer to him as "The Man." To his friends and compatriots he is known as "The Voice of Reason." Zamberletti was the Head Trainer from 1961-98, Coordinator of Medical Services from 1999-2001 and currently Senior Consultant.

A successful entrepreneur and a man of deep religious beliefs, the 74-year-old Zamberletti was a 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Infantry. Following his graduation from the University of Iowa he served as chief physical therapist at Hibbing General Hospital in 1959 and head athletic trainer at the University of Toledo in 1960 before joining the Vikings at the team's inception in 1961.

Zamberletti is a native of Melcher, IA, and in addition to numerous professional awards he was inducted into the Minnesota Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame and was chosen Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year in 1986 by the Drackett Company of Cincinnati. He and the Vikings staff earned the 1996 NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 1999 he earned the Cain Fain Award at the NFL Physicians Sports Sciences Symposium and is an Honorary Fellow of the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Recognized by the governor as an Honorary Ambassador of the State of Minnesota, Zamberletti has also received Minneapolis' Honorary Citizen Award. The PFATS' senior member enjoys walking, bocce ball and cribbage.

PLAYERS

VIKINGS MEDIA POLICY

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Minnesota Vikings players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Brad Childress will hold a press conference the day following games at Winter Park and will make a weekly conference call to speak with the opposing team's assembled media.

Open Locker Room Period: The Vikings' locker room is open to accredited media during the week at scheduled times. Head Coach Brad Childress will address assembled media on Wednesday of a regular game week at Winter Park during this period. Television standups and live shots are prohibited during press conferences. Vikings players will also be available to the media with the assistance of Public Relations staffers of the Vikings. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays, the day before a game or on game day until after the game.

Practice Regulations: The Vikings practices at Winter Park on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are open for the first half-hour to accredited media. Practices are open for filming during the first half-hour.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignments and must be made through the Vikings' Public Relations Department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in July; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. Game day credentials may be picked up at Media Will Call at Gate D at the Metrodome starting three hours before kickoff. All credential requests must be submitted via email to Bob Hagan (haganb@vikings.nfl.net) or Jeff Anderson (andersonj@vikings.nfl.net) or by fax, (952) 828-6540.

Press Releases: The Vikings' weekly press release may be obtained from the team or on the Internet at www.vikings.com and nflmedia.com. The team's weekly injury report, which is first released on Wednesday and updated on Thursday, can also be acquired the same way.

Still Photography: Still photography is not allowed in the locker room at Winter Park or Metrodome at any time.

Media Contacts: Media requests can be submitted to the Vikings Public Relations staff: Bob Hagan, Director of Public Relations (haganb@vikings.nfl.net); Tom West, Assistant Director of Public Relations (westt@vikings.nfl.net) or Jeff Anderson, Manager of Public Affairs (andersonj@vikings.nfl.net). The general office phone is 952-828-6500.

The Grand Daddy Of All Connections

As one of the most tradition-rich college football bowl games in the country, the Rose Bowl has thrilled fans for years and been the witness to some of the most remarkable performances in the sport. The Vikings have some strong connections to the Rose Bowl. The Vikings have 2 QBs on the roster who have won the game and are joined by an offensive coordinator who also piloted his team to the Rose Bowl crown. Rookie QB John David Booty played his last game as a USC Trojan in the 2008 Rose Bowl and faced off against fellow rookie teammate J. Leman in the game, when Leman was the star of the Illinois defense. Vikings QB Brooks Bollinger joins offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell as signal-callers who led Wisconsin to Rose Bowl titles. Bevell helped the 1993 Badgers share the 1st Big Ten title since 1962 and went on to beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Bollinger guided the Badgers over Stanford in the 2000 game to help UW become the 1st Big Ten team to win consecutive Rose Bowls. The Vikings have 4 Texas players who won the 2005 national championship with a Rose Bowl win over USC- CB Cedric Griffin, DE Brian Robison, CB Marcus Griffin and WR Nate Jones. Vikings Head Coach Brad Childress has been a part of dramatic rebuilding programs at Illinois and Wisconsin that culminated in Big Ten championships and Rose Bowl berths- taking the 1983 Illini to the big game and the 1993 Badger squad that won the title. As a player and coach, Vikings offensive line coach Pat Morris has been associated with 5 Rose Bowls and Vikings LBs coach Fred Pagac played in 3 Rose Bowls for Ohio State as a TE and coached in 3 more. Pagac's last game as a collegian was the 1974 Rose Bowl, a 42-21 win over USC when he led the Buckeyes in receiving.

Oh Brother

Vikings S Michael Boulware and brother, Peter, joined elite company when both played in the Super Bowl, especially considering each was a defensive starter for their respective teams. Along with the Boulware's feat, Vikings S Darren Sharper and brother, Jamie, joined the short list of brothers in NFL history to play in the title game. In another twist, Peter Boulware and Jamie Sharper were fellow LBs for the Baltimore Ravens in Super Bowl XXXV.

2001 Played in 4 games and started once while serving as backup to Brian Griese...Posted career-high 73.0% completions in his lone start of the season at Kansas City (12/16) where he threw a TD to Rod Smith and ran for a 4-yard score...Placed on IR on 12/19 with a separated shoulder suffered in game at Kansas City (11/15)...Tossed a 26-yard TD to Rod Smith at Oakland (12/16)...Entered game vs. Seattle (12/9) in 3rd quarter and led team to a TD and a FG in a 20-7 win, throwing a 1-yard TD to Patrick Hape.

2000 Posted a 4-2 mark as a starter while replacing Griese when he was sidelined with shoulder injuries...Started 1st game of season vs. Kansas City (9/24) and then in 5 straight contests, vs. San Diego (11/19), at Seattle (11/26), at New Orleans (12/3), vs. Seattle (12/10) and at Kansas City (12/17)...Posted best day as a pro and set a Denver record vs. San Diego (11/19) with 462 yards and 5 TDs on 36-of-58 passing in a 38-37 win...Broncos posted 30+ points in the opening 4 games of that span, all Denver wins...Started 2nd career playoff game when he led Denver in Wild Card Playoff game against eventual Super Bowl champions Baltimore (12/31) on the road...Notched 132.3 passer rating at New Orleans (12/3) in a 38-23 win...Engineered his 4th and the team's 6th consecutive win and clinched a playoff spot with a 31-24 victory vs. Seattle (12/10)...Win vs. Seattle (12/10) was the team's 4th straight scoring 30+ points, tying Denver's longest such streak in franchise history...Threw a 25-yard TD to Ed McCaffrey vs. San Francisco (12/23), giving McCaffrey a franchise-record 101 receptions on the season.

1999 Started 6 games...Threw for 375 yards in 1st start of the season at Arizona (11/14) on 24-of-39 passing, a career-high at the time. His 77-yard TD to Germane Crowell in the game still stands as his career-long and the 375 yards was the 2nd-most in Lions history...Engineered a 21-17 win on Thanksgiving Day vs. Chicago (11/25), going 29-of-42 for 309 yards and 2 TDs...Played entire 2nd half of game vs. Minnesota (10/17) and led team to a game-winning FG with :07 remaining in a 25-23 win...Threw a 12-yard game-winning TD to Morton with :28 remaining against eventual Super Bowl winners St. Louis (11/7) for 31-27 comeback win...Replaced injured Charlie Batch in regular-season finale at Minnesota (12/06), going 14-of-22 for 180 yards and a TD...Started in Wild Card Playoff at Washington (1/8/00) for injured Batch.

1998 Saw time in 3 games with 2 starts while battling injuries in his final season as a Redskin...Started the opener at NY Giants (9/6) but a shoulder injury forced him from the game in the 3rd quarter...Replaced starter Trent Green at Philadelphia (10/11), going 7-of-16 for 73 yards...Started at Minnesota (10/18), throwing for 117 yards on 10-of-26 passing...Did not play in the final 9 games of the season.

1997 Started the opening 13 games of the season before a broken hip sidelined him...Placed on IR 12/29/97 due to hip injury...Engineered the 'Skins win vs. Arizona (9/14) in the first game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, going 19-of-36 for 265 yards, including a 40-yard TD to Michael Westbrook...Threw for 3 TDs vs. Jacksonville (9/28) to hand Jaguars 1st loss of the season...Had a 2-TD day at Chicago (11/2) in Washington win...Played entire 4th quarter with an injured hip vs. St. Louis (11/30), later discovered to be fractured, and led the game-tying drive with under 2:00 to play in a game the Rams won 23-20.

1996 Led Washington to a 9-7 mark but missed the play-off due to tiebreakers...Started all 16 games for only time in his career...Earned Pro Bowl berth along with setting career-highs in attempts (470), completions (270) and passing yards (3,453)...Posted NFL's 2nd-best interception % at 2.3 with only 11 INTs in 470 attempts...Connected with Leslie Shepherd for season-long 52-yard TD vs. NY Jets (9/29) on ESPN's Sunday Night Football, finishing game 15-of-22 for 257 yards and a TD...Threw for 346 yards on 22-of-31 passing in a 37-10 win vs. Dallas (12/22)...Threw for 193 yards, including a 53-yard TD to Cris Carter in the Pro Bowl.

1995 Entered the season as backup to Heath Shuler but went on to start 11 games...Replaced Shuler in season opener vs. Arizona (9/3), throwing a pair of 2nd-half TDs in a 27-7 win, including a 73-yarder to Leslie Shepherd...In 2nd start of the season at Denver (9/17) he posted a 3-TD day...Started games 2-11 before being replaced by Shuler and started the season finale after a Shuler injury sidelined him...Posted 345 yards vs. NY Giants (10/29).

1994 Entered season as the 3rd QB behind John Friesz and Heath Shuler...Moved past Friesz into backup role by mid-October...Earned 1st career start at Indianapolis (10/23) after Shuler suffered ankle sprain...Engineered a 41-27 win at Indianapolis (10/23) to snap a Washington 5-game losing streak and was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts...In his 2nd career start the following week vs. Philadelphia (10/30) he notched his 1st career 3-TD passing day...Entered the NFL as a 7th-round choice (#197).

COLLEGE Finished career at Tulsa as the school's 2nd-ranked all-time passer behind T.J. Rubley, a teammate from 1991-92...Threw for 5,480 yards and 32 TDs on 432-of-860 passing...His 2,871 yards as a senior were the most by a Tulsa QB in 28 years...Added 21 TD passes as a senior...Threw for 6 TDs vs. East Carolina in 1993 and topped the 300-yard mark 6 times in his career...Handled punting duties for the team as a sophomore and averaged 35.5 yards per punt...Forced into starting role for 8 games as a redshirt freshman in 1990 after Rubley was injured, starting his 1st career game at Oklahoma.

PREP Attended Ford City High in Ford City, PA...Led football team to the district title game for 1st time in school history...A 4-time letterman in baseball and 3-time honoree in football and basketball.

Prime Time Showcase

The Vikings open the 2008 season on ESPN's Monday Night Football on 9/8/08 at Lambeau Field in Green Bay. The game will mark the 4th time in franchise history the team has opened the season on Monday Night and the 2nd time in the past 3 seasons. The Vikings will play the 48th Monday Night Football game in team history in the opener and also travel to New Orleans for a Monday Night contest on 10/6/08. The opener will mark the 6th all-time game against the Packers on Monday Night with the Vikings holding a 3-2 advantage in the previous 5 games. The game against the Saints on Monday Night will be the 1st-ever meeting between the clubs on Monday Night. The last time the Vikings opened on Monday Night Football was the 2006 season opener at Washington. The game was monumental for several reasons, it was the 1st career game for Vikings Head Coach Brad Childress and was the 1st regular season Monday Night game on ESPN after moving from ABC. The Vikings can win the 3rd consecutive season opener with a victory at Green Bay.

2001 Finished with 104 points...Became only the 6th player in team history to reach 500 points, in Monday Night victory vs. Washington (9/24), connecting on all 3 FG attempts plus 4 PATs...Tied team record (also 1/2/94, at Detroit, by Jacke) with a 54-yard FG just before halftime at Tennessee (12/16)...Came through with game-winning PAT in final minutes of 21-20 victory over vs. Tampa Bay (11/4)...Made FGs from 46 and 39 yards in 29-27 win at Detroit (11/22)...At the top of his game in the postseason, made 2 vital FGs in NFC Wild Card playoff win over San Francisco (1/13/02), a 26-yarder midway through the 3rd quarter, gave Green Bay a 9-7 lead, and a 45 yarder with 7:00 remaining, put the Packers on top 18-15 in the eventual 25-15 triumph.

2000 Enjoyed one of his best seasons in the NFL, making 33 FGs to tie the Packer single-season record, set by Chester Marcol in 1972...His 86.84 percent success rate ranked 3rd in club annals, just under his own benchmark of 87.88 percent, achieved in 1998...Earned All-NFC recognition from Football News...Made all 32 PATs...His 131 points led NFC kickers and ranked 2nd in the NFL behind Stover (135)...Became the 1st Packer to lead the NFC since Marcol in 1974...Also set a team single-season mark for most points, no TDs, surpassing the 128 jointly held by Marcol (1972), Jacke (1993) and himself (1998)...Converted his initial 3 game-winning FGs (at any level), vs. Philadelphia (9/17), vs. San Francisco (10/15) and vs. Tampa Bay (12/24)...Deadly accurate inside 40 yards, going 17-of-18 with his only miss the result of a block...Nailed 3 kicks of 50+ yards, a career high, and the 2nd-best total in team history...Punted once for 30 yards in a quick-kick situation out of FG formation...In win at Arizona (9/24), scored a career-high 17 points; tied a team record with 5 FGs (done twice previously by Jacke) on 5-of-5 day...Registered 1st career game-winning FG to beat Philadelphia (9/17), a 38-yarder with :03 remaining, scoring all the points in a 6-3 win en route to NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors...Hit a 35-yarder with :54 left to notch a 31-28 win over San Francisco (10/15)...His 3rd game-winner came in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (12/24), a 22-yarder in overtime for a 17-14 triumph...Had his 6th 4-FG game in 33-28, upset victory at Minnesota (12/17), garnering NFC Special Teams Player of the Week...Booted a season-long 52-yarder at Tampa Bay (11/12)...Nailed a 51-yarder at Detroit (10/8)...Made FGs of 51 and 48 yards at Miami (10/29).

1999 Appeared in all 16 games...Connected on 25 of 30 (83.3 percent) FG attempts...Also hit on all 38 PAT tries...Finished with 113 points to lead the team in scoring and become the 1st player in club history to record 3 straight 100-point seasons...Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the 1st time after making a season-high 4 FGs (42, 49, 38, 43) in a 26-23 win over Tampa Bay (10/10); 3-of-4 were clutch connections, either tying the game or giving his club the lead; scored a season-high 14 points in the win...Connected on all 4 FG attempts in gusty winds vs. Detroit (11/21), contributing to a 26-17 victory...Nailed a 50-yarder at Denver (10/17)...Converted a career-best 7 PATs in season finale vs. Arizona (1/2/00), 1 shy of Don Chandler's team mark...Hit FGs from 28, 35 and 34 yards in 23-20 win over Minnesota (9/26)...Punted vs. Detroit (11/21), when Aguiar was not able to finish contest; his 19-yard effort landed inside the 20.

1998 Was the NFL's 4th-leading scorer among kickers with 128 points, 2nd in the NFC to Minnesota's nearly perfect Gary Anderson...Enjoyed an 87.88 percent rate (29-of-33) on FG tries – the 2nd-best single-season percentage in team annals, behind only Jan Stenerud's 91.67 percent (22-of-24) in 1981...Became only 3rd Packer with back-to-back 100-point seasons, joining Hutson (1942-43) and Paul Hornung (1960-61)...Converted on 41-of-43 PAT tries...Began season a perfect 12-of-12 on FGs, the best start in team history (Max Zendejas kicked 10 straight in 1987) until he missed a 51-yarder at Pittsburgh (11/9)...Booted at least 1 FG in a team-record 14 consecutive games (8 in 1997, 6 in 1998), breaking the previous mark of 12; snapped the string without an attempt vs. Baltimore (10/25).

1997 Enjoyed an immensely successful rookie season, connecting on 24-of-30 FG tries and all 48 PAT attempts, while playing all 16 games...Led team and ranked 3rd in NFC scoring with 120 points, the 2nd-highest rookie total in team annals – trailing only Marco's 128 in 1972...Of his 6 misses, 2 were blocked and 2 hit the uprights...Had 29-of-89 regular-season kickoffs reach the end zone, including 11 touchbacks (12.4 percent), as the Packers finished 3rd in NFL kickoff coverage...Turned in a stellar performance in the playoffs, hitting 6-of-7 FG attempts (85.7 percent) and 6-of-6 PAT tries, to lead the NFL's kickers in postseason scoring with 24 points...Was 3-of-3 on PATs and converted a 27-yard FG attempt in Super Bowl XXXII vs. Denver (1/25)...Connected on 3-of-4 FG tries in NFC Championship victory at San Francisco (1/11), falling one short of Green Bay's single-game postseason FG record...Effort against the 49ers – who had released him in the preseason – included a 43-yard FG into a tough wind as the half ended, giving the Packers a 13-3 intermission lead...One week earlier (1/4/98), had connected on a pair of 2nd-quarter FGs (21 and 32 yards), staking the Packers to a 13-0 halftime lead in eventual 21-7 NFC Divisional playoff win over Tampa Bay...Chalked up 3 FGs in each of Green Bay's opening 3 games – vs. Chicago (9/1), at Philadelphia (9/7) and vs. Miami (9/14) – with the Bears' contest producing his 1st NFL FG...Enjoyed a perfect preseason, hitting on 6-of-6 FGs and 10-of-10 PATs to earn a roster spot after Brett Conway suffered a quadriceps injury in pregame warmups at Oakland (8/8) in preseason action, making it necessary for the Packers to keep a 2nd kicker into the regular season...Connected on all 3 FGs vs. the Raiders as he anonymously stepped in for Conway on a last-minute basis, hitting from 21, 44 and 34 yards...Two weeks later, he solidified his hold on the job in the final preseason contest, against the Giants in Madison, Wis. (8/22), as he converted FGs of 50, 28 and 49 yards to keep the Packers within striking distance; Green Bay later scored 2 TDs in the final 5:20 for a 22-17 win...When Conway's injury did not respond to treatment and he eventually was placed on injured reserve (9/3), Longwell was provided with his season-long opportunity...Originally signed by San Francisco as an undrafted free agent on 4/28/97, he was waived by the Niners 7/9/97 and claimed the next day by Green Bay.

COLLEGE A 4-year letterwinner (1993-96) at California, acting as both the punter and placekicker during his final 3 seasons...Was successful on 32-of-56 FG attempts and 81-of-85 PAT tries (including Aloha Bowl)...Had a 41.9-yard career punting average at Cal (including bowl games), good for 3rd place (tie) in Golden Bears' annals...As a senior, earned 1st-Team All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a punter and was voted 2nd-Team All-Pac-10 as a placekicker...Ranked 9th in the NCAA in 1996 with a 45.2-yard average on punts, the 2nd-best mark in Cal history...Booted a season-long, 72-yard punt against Navy in the Aloha Bowl...Was a Golden Bears tri-captain during the '96 campaign.

PREP Highly-rated kicking prospect coming out of Bend (OR) High...A 3-year letterman in football where he was All-Conference as a junior and senior...Served as backup QB as a senior...Was a standout 3rd-baseman where he garnered all-conference honors as a junior and senior.

Sound That Gjallarhorn!

According to Norse mythology, the Gjallarhorn was the musical instrument that would announce the arrival of the Gods. Heimdall, the watchman of the Gods, was responsible for sounding the horn when the Gods and Viking warriors would go to battle. Down from the halls of mythical Asgard, the deities would come to wage war against their enemies. When the horn sounded for the final time, it would mark an event called Ragnarok, which was Norse mythology's version of Armageddon. The reverberating note from the horn would summon Gods and warriors from all across the heavens and earth to take part in one final, epic battle.

In 2007, the Gjallarhorn found a new home at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Now, when the horn is sounded, it marks a battle of a different kind. It signals the arrival of the Minnesota Vikings and the start of a struggle against their enemies. Instead of clashing on some ancient, mythical plain, our Vikings grind it out on the Metrodome's turf.

Record Run

Adrian Peterson made his presence felt on the NFL scene early, breaking the league record for rushing yards in a game in his 8th career contest. His 296 yards against San Diego paved the way for him to notch the 2nd-best rushing season in team history. Peterson set an NFL record as the only rookie RB in history to ramble for a pair of 200-yard games in their debut season.

Vikings Committed to Youth Football

The Vikings youth football mission statement is to grow, support and promote youth football through fair play, health/wellness and academics. The impact can be seen at historic Parade Stadium in Minneapolis after a $200,000 donation toward the installation of synthetic turf. In 2007 the Vikings hosted "NFL Unplugged" at Parade for more than 100 youth through the Minneapolis Park and Rec Board. The Vikings also hosted the 5th annual NFL Junior Player Development Camps (JPD). More than 400 kids attended free JPD camps at different sites coordinated by Vikings Pro Scout and Minneapolis native Jeff Robinson. JPD Camps are designed for kids age 12-14 to learn the fundamentals of tackle football. The Vikings have also started initiatives like the High School Coach of the Week program, recognizing the Vikings All-State Team, partnering with the Minnesota High School Football Coaches Association to bring youth camps to outstate communities and sponsoring USA Football Youth Coaching Schools to give youth coaches specialized instruction.

Historic Parade Stadium benefits from a new synthetic field.

Vikings Community Tour Reaches Outstate

The Vikings launched a new initiative in 2007 aimed at connecting with fans, community partners and local leaders throughout Minnesota with the introduction of You Made The Team Community Tours. The tours brought Vikings players, executives and representatives to fans across the state spreading the excitement of Vikings football while providing donations to local causes and spreading the word to youth about the importance of fitness and leading a healthy lifestyle.

Takeaway 'Toine

Antoine Winfield's nose for the ball and instinctive play has quickly moved him into elite company in Vikings history. Few Vikings CBs have had as much success making big plays and taking the ball away. For a player entering his 5th Vikings season, Winfield is poised to climb higher in the team record book and continue turning the tide for the Vikings defense

 Super Bowl XXXVII

Super Men

The Vikings have several players and coaches who have been to the NFL's pinnacle game in recent years. Defensive Coordinator Leslie Frazier accomplished a rare feat by earning his 2nd career Super Bowl title, winning Super Bowl XX as a player with the Chicago Bears and winning Super Bowl XLI as a member of the Indianapolis Colts coaching staff. Frazier and his Colts DBs squared off against the Vikings newest WR, Bernard Berrian, in the game.

Ellis Wyms notched a sack of Raiders QB Rich Gannon in Super Bowl XXXVII for Tampa Bay against Oakland, defeating Vikings LB coach Fred Pagac in the game when he served on the Raiders staff as LBs coach. A pair of teammate tandems played in the game- Ryan Longwell and Darren Sharper were rookies with Green Bay in 1997 when they represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXII against Denver while Steve Hutchinson and Michael Boulware started Super Bowl XL for Seattle against Pittsburgh.

VIKINGS FIND GEMS IN ROOKIE FREE AGENTS

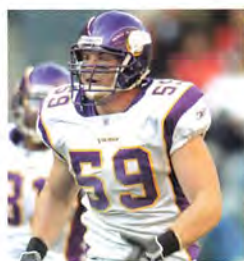

The Vikings have had success over the history of the franchise in finding players who slipped through the cracks during the annual NFL Draft and were acquired as rookie free agents. These players enter the NFL facing long odds but have proven their worth through hard work and determination. Some of the Vikings most legendary players came to the team as undrafted rookies and the current team features some real success stories. Former Vikings center Mick Tingelhoff came to the team in 1962 undrafted out of Nebraska and went on to play and start in 240 consecutive games, ranking 2nd in team history only to Jim Marshall. Another Vikings legend, John Randle, came to his first Vikings training camp as an undersized defensive lineman from Division II Texas A&M-Kingsville. His high-energy style eventually earned him a spot on the team and the rest is history. Current players like Heath Farwell, Charles Gordon and Anthony Herrera all joined the Vikings as undrafted rookies. The Vikings roster also features DT Pat Williams and K Ryan Longwell as players who began their NFL careers as undrafted rookie free agents. Will the 2007 class produce more impact players that just needed a chance to showcase their talents?

There's A First Time For Everything

The Vikings will sail into 3 stadiums they have never played a game in during the 2008 regular season- going to the Tennessee Titans 9-year-old LP Field in Nashville on 9/28/08, Alltel Stadium in Jacksonville on 11/23/08 and to Arizona's University of Phoenix Stadium on 12/14/08. The Vikings last played in Nashville on 12/26/98, a game that marked the final game played as the Tennessee Oilers franchise and the last game the club played at Vanderbilt University before moving into their new stadium. The Vikings have never played Jacksonville on the road, but have a 2-1 all-time series lead against the Jaguars. The team will make its first trip to Arizona's new stadium for the final road trip of the regular season. The gleaming University of Phoenix Stadium played host to Super Bowl XLII.

The Vikings were represented in the Pro Bowl by 6 players following the 1987 season, including 2008 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Gary Zimmerman. The Vikings selected to the game were (L-R) Joey Brownner (S), Scott Studwell (LB), Chris Doleman (DE), Steve Jordan (TE), Anthony Carter (WR) and Zimmerman (T).

HISTORY

VIKINGS LORE

FRANCHISE FOUNDED— Minnesota was granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami on Jan. 28, 1960. The team began play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P. Skoglund, Ole Haugsrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the northern Midwest.

RBs Hugh McElhenny and Tommy Mason earned trips to the Pro Bowl in the Vikings early years.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin was selected as the first head coach in franchise history. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL as a Hall of Fame QB.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960, RB Tommy Mason of Tulane was taken with the 1st overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were QB Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and DB Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select 3 players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30 of their 38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were OL Grady Alderman (Detroit) and RB Hugh McElhenny (San Francisco).

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the NFL assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in the conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD, on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams in preseason action at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN, on Sept. 10, 1961, the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Vikings defeated the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and 4 touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962, RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Culpepper proved to be a dangerous runner himself in 2002, setting team records for attempts (106), yards (609) and rushing TDs (10) by a QB.

VIKINGS OFFENSE RANKS #1 — The 2003 Vikings became the 1st squad in franchise history to finish the season with the #1 ranked offense in the NFL, averaging 393.4 yards per game and scoring an average of 26.0 points per game.

ELLER ENSHRINED — On August 8, 2004, Carl Eller was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Eller, the Vikings career sacks leader, was a member of the vaunted Purple People Eaters defense.

WILF FAMILY TAKES OWNERSHIP — An investment group led by brothers Zygmunt and Mark Wilf were unanimously approved as the new owners of the Vikings by their fellow NFL owners on May 25, 2005. The Wilfs, owners of a real estate development company in New Jersey, took ownership in mid-June from former owner Red McCombs, who had owned the club since 1998. Joining the Wilfs ownership group is cousin Leonard Wilf, Reggie Fowler, David Mandelbaum and Alan Lands.

CHILDRRESS TAKES THE HELM — The Vikings named Brad Childress the 7th head coach in the history of the franchise on January 6, 2006. Childress comes to the Vikings after seven seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, spending the 2002-05 seasons as offensive coordinator. The Eagles won NFC East titles in 2001, '02, '03 and '04 and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX against New England. During his tenure with the Eagles, Childress was instrumental in the development of 5-time Pro Bowl selection QB Donovan McNabb. Childress began his coaching career at the University of Illinois from 1978-84 and tutored the Wisconsin Badgers offense from 1991-93.

VIKINGS UNVEIL NEW UNIFORMS — The franchise made the most dramatic change to its uniforms in the history of the team during the 2006 offseason. The team unveiled the new uniforms before an enthusiastic crowd at Mall of America on April 27, 2006.

VIKINGS SEND 4 LINEMEN TO PRO BOWL — The 2006 Vikings strong play along the defensive and offensive lines was recognized league-wide as C Matt Birk, G Steve Hutchinson, DT Kevin Williams and DT Pat Williams all earned Pro Bowl honors.

ROOKIE RUNS TO RECORDS — In only his 5th NFL game, rookie RB Adrian Peterson broke the team record for rushing yards in a game with 224 at Chicago (10/14/07). Three weeks later he topped that by setting the NFL single-game rushing record with 298 yards vs. San Diego (11/4/07). He went on to lead the NFC in rushing with 1,341 yards, was named All-Pro, NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, started in the Pro Bowl and took home game MVP honors.

SOLID 7 EARN PRO BOWL TRIPS — The Vikings sent 7 players to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl, the most to earn the honor since the 2000 season. The team was represented by C Matt Birk, G Steve Hutchinson, S Darren Sharper, FB Tony Richardson, DT Kevin Williams, DT Pat Williams and RB Adrian Peterson.

BLOCKBUSTER TRADE LANDS ALLEN — The Vikings struck a deal with Kansas City to trade 2007 NFL sack leader DE Jared Allen to the club for the Vikings 1st-round (17th pick) in the 2008 Draft, a pair of 3rd-round picks in 2008 and a swap of 6th-round choices. Allen was introduced to a boisterous crowd of fans at the Winter Park facility as part of the Vikings Draft Party days after the trade.

Versatile RBs who excelled in the passing game helped the Vikings offense become a trend-setter and help the evolution of what would become known as the West Coast Offense under head coach Bud Grant and offensive coordinator Jerry Burns. Talents like Brent McClanahan (#33) and Hall of Fame QB Fran Tarkenton helped lead the offense in the 1960s and 1970s.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 26 seasons (1982-2007) at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 48-year history. Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota, and the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minnesota. On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over 21 seasons the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. December 20, 1981, marked the last game ever played at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year.

The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 64,121. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens, 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 25 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 137-76 record, which includes a 6-4 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2008 season marks the Vikings' 27th campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, 6 seasons longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000, 2003, and 2005 and the 2001 NCAA Men's Final Four.

2008 ALLTEL VIKINGS TRAINING CAMP

In 2008 the Minnesota Vikings will call Mankato their summer home for the Alltel Vikings Training Camp for the 43rd straight season. Over 50,000 fans attended the 2007 Alltel Vikings Training Camp to observe daily practices and take part in all the fun and fanfare in the Vikings Village.

Players report for camp in late July on the campus of Minnesota State University, Mankato.

The team typically practices twice daily and the Northland Ford Autograph Zone will return in 2008 where fans can get their favorite player's autographs following selected practices. On the afternoon of opening day, July 25, the Vikings will hold a team introduction in Blakeslee Stadium. The NFL Pepsi Punt, Pass and Kick program, for kids ages 8-15, will be held Friday, August 1. A youth football clinic and a cheerleading clinic conducted by the Minnesota Vikings Cheerleaders are also being planned. Night practices will be held from 7-9 p.m. on Saturday, July 26 and Saturday, August 2. Alltel Vikings Training Camp will conclude on Thursday, August 14 with Fan Appreciation Day including a full-team autograph session following the morning practice.

For a full schedule of practice dates and times, event listings and more information, visit www.vikings.com.

Training Camp Facts

Location: Mankato is located 90 miles south of the Twin Cities off of Highway 169.

Headquarters: Alltel Vikings Training Camp headquarters is at Gage Hall on the campus of Minnesota State University, Mankato.

Media: All media should report to the Alltel Vikings Training Camp media headquarters in Pennington Hall on the campus of MSU, Mankato. Credentials and parking information will be distributed at Pennington Hall.

Minnesota State University, Mankato's Blakeslee Stadium has played host to Vikings training camps since 1966.

2008 VIKINGS PRESEASON TELEVISION

Ari Wolfe

Mike Mayock

The 2008 Vikings Preseason TV broadcasts return veteran voices Ari Wolfe and Mike Mayock to the booth for the 2nd season. The crew will bring Vikings fans 3 games in the preseason- August 8 vs. Seattle, August 16 at Baltimore and August 28 at Dallas. The excitement and competition of preseason football will come to life as players fight for a roster spot with the Vikings and chase their dreams of playing in the NFL.

Wolfe joined the Vikings in 2007 after establishing himself as a fast-rising and versatile broadcasting voice in professional and college sports. Wolfe works as the football and basketball voice of the University of Louisville Cardinals and handles the coaches shows. In 2005 Wolfe's work was recognized with an Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Play-by-Play for his work with Louisville.

Wolfe has over a decade of experience in pro sports as a play-by-play man in the Arena Football League and is the voice of the Philadelphia Soul. He has been a sideline reporter for the AFL championship game, the ArenaBowl. Wolfe has served as a sideline reporter for NFL football, called NFL Europa games on Fox and NFL Network and in 2005 handled preseason TV for the Philadelphia Eagles. Wolfe is a native of Madison, WI and earned his bachelor's degree at Emory University. He went on to finish a master's degree at Southern California where he handled play-by-play and color for USC football, basketball and baseball as a student at KSCR radio in Los Angeles.

Mayock brings the unique perspective of a former NFL player and seasoned broadcaster to the Vikings booth again in 2008. Mayock is a fixture on NFL Network and has established himself as an expert voice on the NFL Draft. Mayock has climbed the ranks in the broadcasting business starting in the early 1990s at ESPN covering college and Canadian Football League action. He moved to CBS to work on college football and basketball coverage for the network from 1996-99. Mayock called college football games on Fox Sports Net in 2000 and moved to ABC Sports as a college football analyst in 2001.

Mayock brings the knowledge of the game and perspective from the field he gained as an NFL DB with the NY Giants from 1982-83 and a standout at Boston College where he was inducted to the Eagles Hall of Fame. As a Giant, Mayock played under the legendary Bill Parcells in his 1st season with the club in '83. Mayock entered the NFL as a 10th-round draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers and head coach Chuck Noll in 1981. Mayock's father, Mike, was a 1955 draft pick of the Steelers as an end out of Villanova.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS RADIO NETWORK

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his 7th season in 2008 as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen as the color commentator is former Vikings LB and coach Pete Bercich.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

Bercich returns for his 2nd season with the broadcasts in 2008 and brings a decade of NFL experience from the field and sideline. A 7th-round draft pick by the Vikings in 1994, Bercich overcame the odds and played for the team from 1995-2000. A standout special teamer, Bercich parlayed his knowledge of the game into a job coaching with the team from 2002-05.

Joining Allen and Bercich from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391), punts inside the 20 (154) and ranks 3rd in career average (40.8 yards per punt).

Pete Bercich, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-AM (1130) and KTLK (100.3 FM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.

WINTER PARK - VIKINGS HEADQUARTERS

Dedicated in 1981, the Vikings Winter Park headquarters and training facility at 9520 Viking Drive in Eden Prairie, MN, have evolved with the times and the face of professional football. Named for former Vikings owner Max Winter, the Winter Park facility sits at the intersection of Highways 494 and 169 on Viking Drive in Eden Prairie.

Housed in the facility are the teams executive offices, coaches offices and all elements of the team's football operation including the Vikings locker room, practice fields, weight rooms, meeting rooms, athletic training facilities and cafeteria. The 3,000 square foot Vikings strength training facility features state of the art weight lifting and cardiovascular machines. The outdoor facilities include two 100-yard natural grass practice fields. The facility features a 100-yard indoor practice field that stands 90 feet tall at its apex. Built with the dual role of housing the NFC Champion Washington Redskins during Super Bowl XXV week preparations, the fieldhouse is regularly used by the team for practices and has been useful for community events and charitable endeavors. During the 2006 offseason the Winter Park locker room, equipment room and athletic training areas underwent a complete renovation and upgrade, providing Vikings players with an updated and state of the art facility to call home.

The Vikings sales and marketing departments are located directly across the street from Winter Park at Olympic Place, 7825 Washington Avenue, Suite 700, Bloomington, MN and can be contacted at 952-918-8500. The Vikings ticket office is at the Metrodome, 500 11th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN, and can be contacted at 612-338-4537.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS SPECIAL EVENTS

The Vikings offer unique opportunities throughout the year to get up close and personal with their football heroes through team-sponsored special events. Among the most anticipated each year are the annual draft party and Taste of the NFL. Both events give fans a chance to meet and mingle with current and former Vikings greats and support worthy causes. Check Vikings.com for information on special events.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional.

The Ed Block Courage Award has become one of the most prestigious awards a player can receive because no other national football award is chosen solely by a vote of his peers. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide—

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.
